

Creative Talent Gets on Boat

In order to display work in the creative talent show, or "Odeon," to be held in Gerlinger hall, February 22, at 8 p.m., students should contact W. A. Dahlberg, general chairman, before Sunday, January 17, in Friendly hall, according to a statement Tuesday from the Odeon committee.

Suggested by Mrs. Edna Landros, acting head of the classic department, because it originally applies to music theaters of Greece where art was patronized, "Odeon" was adopted as the special title for the event by the committee of faculty and students interested in creative art.

Acting Director of Speech W. A. Dahlberg was chosen general chairman of the meeting, while Miss Barbara Hampson, sophomore in journalism, was selected as assistant chairman. Committee members are the following:

Literature will be handled by Dr. Robert D. Horn, Mrs. Alice H. Ernst, and Miss Barbara Hampson; drama and interpretive reading, Mrs. Ottilie Seybolt, Mr. Horace Robinson, Miss Marjorie Quigley; radio show, Mr. Kenneth Scott Wood; modern dance, Miss Helen Petroskey, Miss Barbara Scott; art, Mr. Andrew Vincent, Miss Victoria Avakian, Mr. Merlin Dow, Miss Edith Onthank; music, Mr. George Hopkins, Mr. Eugene Bennett; and general, Dean Eric W. Allen, Mrs. Edna Landros, Miss Mabel Wood, Mr. Wallace Hayden, and W. A. Dahlberg.

University of Minnesota will ask the state legislature for an increase of $357,000 in its annual maintenance appropriation.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

The YWCA forum will meet this afternoon at 4 in the Y bungalow. Leader will be Frances Oram. The regular YWCA tea will be held Thursday at 4 p.m. All girls interested are invited to attend.

Master Dance will meet this evening at 7:30 in Gerlinger hall.

Girls' basketball practice will continue from January 11-18, with six courts available every day. Practice will be held Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 5-6 p.m., and on Tuesday and Thursday from 4-6 p.m. Houses should sign up immediately on the bulletin board for practice in the girls' gym. Entry blanks are due Wednesday at the WAA office or at 821 E. 15th street.

Badminton club will meet at 7:30 p.m. in Gerlinger.

A social swim for men and women will be held Friday evening from 7:30 to 9 in Gerlinger hall. As a special feature of this swim, all girls will be allowed to bring and wear their own bathing suits. Unless this swim is patronized more than those during last term, it will be the last social swim of the year.

YW Worship Service Substitutes for Forum

Instead of the usual Wednesday forum the YWCA is planning a special worship service at 4 p.m. today with Frances Oram in charge of the program.

The worship will be less than 45 minutes long and is planned to be a restful service with worshipful readings. The major part of the program will consist of poetry and special music.

Because of much noticeable unrest on the campus, it was thought that a worship service would be of more service to the students than the usual forum.

Wisconsin U.'s weekly sale of war stamps averaged more than $700.

'Hoarse Opera' Sells Lost Loot

Typical cries such as "What am I bid for 'Dante's Inferno,—this is hell—it's selling for 5 cents," rolled forth at the annual AWS auction held Monday afternoon in front of the College Side.

According to Peggy Wright, chairman of the event, a total of $36.25 was gained from the 150 articles sold. She added that there are still several articles left which will be auctioned later in the school year.

Success Ahead

Auctioneers G. Duncan Wimpers, Roy Paul Nelson and Fred Beckwith, stayed on the job to the bitter end, outyelling each other in their successful attempt to get rid of everything from text books to umbrellas.

Among unusual bargains was an English composition book which sold for 15 cents; a zipper notebook for 55 cents; man's rain coat, 78 cents; fountain pen, one cent; plaid scarf, six cents; and a red jacket for 41 cents.

German For Sale

"What am I bid for Hitler's text book — he learned to read and write with it," came from Nelson as he displayed a German composition and conversation text book.

Articles were invariably introduced by such expressions as

Propeller Club Bills Sound, Color Movie

"Duty to Cargo," a technicolor sound movie will be shown at the first winter term meeting of the Propeller club this evening at 7:30, in room 301 Condon hall. The public is invited to attend, according to Paul F. Lee, president of the organization.

A short business meeting will be held following the movie, and all students interested in joining the club are urged to be present. Propeller club is open to those interested in foreign trades and shipping.

"genuine leather," "all-wool" or "solid gold". Exquisite, beautiful, and rare were also used.

Merry Mix-up

One auctioneer pulled the trick of selling a red pair of gloves and a green pair and mixed the mates to each.

Throats of all gavel-wielders were definitely subnormal, following the auction, especially Wimpers's, whose has been hoarse since Saturday night, and Nelson's, whose tonsils were recently removed.

Personnel Secretary

Mrs. Janet Easterday, Oregon graduate, is taking over duties as secretary of the personnel division. She will replace Mrs. Delores Hunter.

Pi Kaps' Scrap Tops All Houses

Pi Kappa Alpha led living organizations in the collection of 213½ pounds of fats, greases, small scrap, and rubber in last Friday's campus salvage drive, Marge Curtis, University salvage committee co-chairman, announced Tuesday.

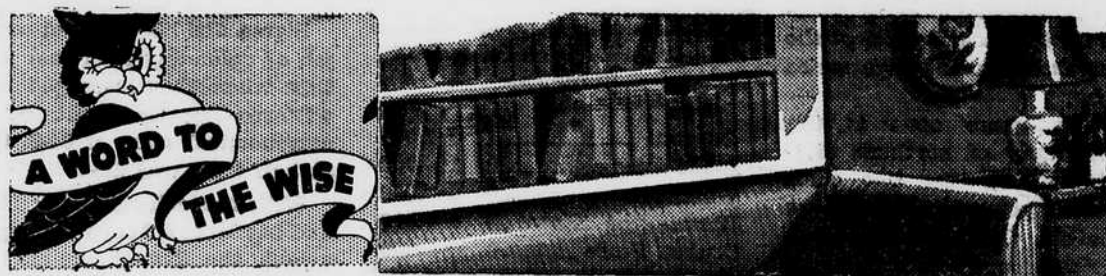

Out of this total, 164 pounds were fats, according to Miss Curtis.

She added that students should keep saving tin cans, old silk hose, and records for the next campus pick-up, which will be in the near future.

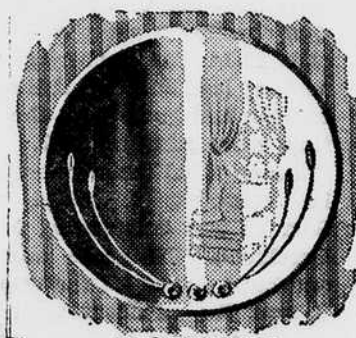

Appointment of Art Damschen, sophomore in law, to succeed Bill Lilly, co-chairman of the salvage committee, was announced Monday by the student war board.

Living organizations contributed the following amounts in the drive:

Pi Kappa Alpha, 34; Sigma Chi, 26; Alpha Tau Omega, 23½; Alpha Tau Omega, 22; Kappa Alpha Theta, 11; Pi Beta Phi, 10; Hendricks hall, 10; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 9; Sigma Kappa, 8; Sigma Alpha Mu, 7; Chi Psi, 7; Chi Omega, 6½; Gamma Phi Beta, 6½; Alpha Phi, 6½; Alpha Omicron Pi, 6; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 5½; Delta Upsilon, 5¼; Delta Delta Delta, 4¼.
