

Ball Closes Hop Career

es would be the best indication of the caliber of tomorrow night's dance, Packouz listed feature points of past dances.

"When we were freshmen we brought Benny Goodman to the campus for one of the best Frosh Glee's ever presented. As sophomores the class of '43 brought Russ Morgan for the Whiskerino—and centered the dance around a Paul Bunyan theme—with the writer of a Paul Bunyan book, Ida May Turney, guest of honor," Packouz recalled.

Typical Sophomores

"Later that same year we presented a sophomore informal with the music of Russ Morgan. The committee originated the idea of choosing a Betty Coed and Joe College that year—and Betty Biggs Schrick and Russ Hudson were selected as typical for the dance.

Instead of the canoe fete, impossible because of a dry mill race, the junior class presented the Broadway musical 'Of Thee We Sing, Baby.' Parodied theme for the weekend was 'Of Thee We Sing, Ellie,' written by J. Wesley Sullivan." Prexy Packouz wound up breathlessly.

Committee Picks Bennett Subject

The principles of a free government will be treated in this year's Philo Sherman Bennett essay contest, under the specific heading of "The Place of the University in a System of Free Government."

Every year, under provisions of a trust established by Mr. Philo Sherman Bennett, prizes are awarded on a pertinent subject.

Prizes Listed

Prizes offered this year are $35 for first place and $15 for second.

The contest is open to undergraduate students. Everyone participating in the contest must register with Dr. Waldo Schumacher, chairman of the Philo Bennett committee.

Two typewritten copies of the essays must be submitted to the chairman of the committee by May 1, 1943. The essays should be about 5000 words.

IN THE ARMY

they say:

"HAY BURNERS" for cavalry horses

"JUGHEAD" for the Army mule

"CHICKENS" for the eagle insignia of a colonel

"CAMEL" for the Army man's favorite cigarette

The "Zone"

where cigarettes are judged

The "T-ZONE"—Taste and Throat—is the proving ground for cigarettes. Only your taste and throat can decide which cigarette tastes best to you...and how it affects your throat. For your taste and throat are individual to you. Based on the experience of millions of smokers, we believe Camels will suit your "T-ZONE" to a "T."
