

Lecture Series Topics Selected

Lectures on four themes of current interest will head the list of talks to be sponsored during winter term by the University lecture committee, Dr. R. H. Ernst, University English department, revealed Monday.

First on the 193 schedule will be a talk January 27 by Rabbi Adolph H. Fink of Spokane. Beginning at 7:30 Wednesday evening, Mr. Fink will lecture on "Major Trends in Judaism."

Dr. Wright Speaks

Dr. Gordon Wright, assistant professor of history, will speak on "French Foreign Policy from Versailles to Vichy" Thursday, February 4, at 7:30 p.m.

"Our Local Race Problem—The American Indian" will be the subject of a talk to be presented February 11 by Dr. H. G. Barnett, University anthropology department.

Lecture on Gibbs

On Wednesday evening, February 17, Dr. Pierre Van Rysselberghe, associate professor of chemistry, will lecture on "Gibbs, America's Greatest Scientist."

Especially designed for student interest, the winter term series may also include a lecture by Ernest Block. The internationally famous composer, living at Agate Beach, Oregon, is slated to appear some time during the latter part of February.

Honorary Sponsors

The lecture committee will also present jointly with Sigma Xi, chemical honorary, a talk by Dr. D. W. Bronk, neurologist from the University of Pennsylvania. Scheduled February 24, the discussion will deal with the physical structure and biological action of nerve cells.

Lectures are open to the public and will be held in the faculty room of Friendly hall.

Dads' Day Posts

(Continued from page one) bringing guests from the depot to the campus.

Secretary Named

Executive secretary for the program will be Harriet Henderson. Publicity will be handled by Ted Goodwin and Edith Newton.

All committee members met with Karl Onthank, dean of personnel and executive secretary of the Dads' club, last week to discuss plans and hear Dean Onthank explain the set-up and outline the duties of the chairmen of the various committees.

Dean Onthank emphasized that the program will be carried on with the least waste of student time and as inexpensively as possible.

Another Reserve Group

(Continued from page one) above, plus completion of courses in differential and integral calculus as well as one year of college physics. He must have completed two years of college study before application for this training.

The training leads to a commission as second lieutenant in the army air forces with active duty for the duration and six months, unless released sooner.

Students receive $75 per month and $2.25 per day during the advanced training and $50 per month and $2.75 per day during the basic and pre-meteorology training.

All tuition is paid by the government and clothing is furnished.

Classes Inaugurated In Catholic Teachings

Father V. F. Christoph, S.J., will conduct an instruction and inquiry class for University students interested in learning something about the Catholic church

YW Opens Winter Term Membership Drive

The winter term membership drive for the YWCA will end Wednesday night, Audrey Holiday, chairman of the drive, announced this week. Special object of the present drive has been to reach independent students, especially those who live off the campus.

New members of the Y and the membership committee will be entertained at a dinner at the Y bungalow Thursday night at 5:30. This will celebrate the conclusion of the drive.

and its teachings. These classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 8 p.m., on the second floor of Gerlinger hall.

Father Christoph has recently arrived from Gonzaga and Seattle colleges where he taught courses in psychology and sociology, and he has inaugurated these same classes for the nurses' training course at Sacred Heart hospital.

Women Open '43 IM Season

Kappa Alpha Theta and Sigma Kappa opened the girls' intramural basketball season with victories over Alpha Chi Omega and Susan Campbell.

The Thetas showed smooth team work for so early in the season as they came out on the better end of a 1-7 count. The forward combination of Jean Morrison, Helen June Kerr and Phyll Root worked together with remarkable ease and smoothness. They all have accurate shots, making it plenty difficult for opposing guards.

High point honors went to Jean Morrison of Theta who netted 14 tallies. Sue St. Pierre of the victors stood out at guard for the victors.

Sigma Kappa's contest was won by forfeit from the usually strong Susan Campbell.

Tonight's games pit Chi Omega against Pi Beta Phi in the indoor gymnasium and Highland

Oregana Prices Upped

Oregana prices will be upped this week to $5.50 from the present rate of $5, Jeff Kitchen, Oregana business manager announced Monday. The price raise will go into effect Thursday, January 21.

Only a few copies of the annual yet remain on the shelves, Kitchen declared. These may be purchased in the Oregana office between 3:15 and 4:15 p.m.

Houses Asked to Help

(Continued from page one) will take it to the educational activities office where the bonds will be bought. The money will be used as a gift to service men and women who will return to the campus after the war.

The plan has been presented to the house managers association, where it was favorably received. Young stated that he would explain the plan at the next heads of houses meetings.

Hoopers vs. Hendricks in the outdoor gym. Games will begin at 5 p.m.

AP Scribe Relates Tales of Pacific

News straight from the actual scene of battle will be heard by students and faculty members Thursday when Wendell Webb, Associated Press reporter, speaks at an assembly in McArthur court.

Webb was at Midway during the heavy battle there and has only recently returned to the United States. Before the outbreak of hostilities in the Pacific he had been night editor in Portland for the Associated Press.

From Iowa

Webb came to Oregon from Iowa and started work here on a McMinnville paper. He was last the managing editor of the Coos Bay Times.

Arriving here Wednesday from San Francisco, Webb will attend the annual state editor's conference being held here January 22 and 23, and will be the guest speaker at the faculty sponsored assembly. While here the war reporter will be entertained by Sigma Delta Chi, men's journalism honorary.

OUTSTANDING FEATURES OF YOUR NEWSPAPER

The Oregon Daily Emerald

THERE'S A WAR ON!

Keep in touch with the boys in the service and University affairs . . . military developments on the campus. Follow the scrap drive and other defense activities thru the Emerald.

WE'RE GOING TO WIN

Benito, Adolf and the rising sun are riding for a fall, the same as Oregon State, Stanford, Washington and our other opponents.

USE the
Daily Emerald's
Classified
Columns

Economic prices and good quality will be important this year more than ever. Through our advertising columns you will become well qualified as competent shoppers!..

SOCIAL LIFE GOES ON

In spite of the war—the Woman's Page, fraternity and sorority affairs and all University activities will carry on big as ever and your Daily Emerald will continue coverage of these events.

For Town People and
Men in the Service!
For the Family Back Home!

SUBSCRIBE NOW!

For One Term$1.25
Remainder of Year$2.00

Phone 3300
Ext. 354

Bring your subscription to The Emerald
Business Office

OREGON  EMERALD