

Symposium Group Leaves On State Tour

Symposium begins its yearly schedule today as four members of the group leave for appearances before various civic groups in the Medford area.

"How May We Lighten the Shock of Transforming a War Economy to a Peace Economy" will be the topic of discussion when Jim Thayer, junior, and Miss Esther Quier, freshman, speak this morning at the Drain high school. They are scheduled for the Ashland chamber of commerce and Central Point high school on Wednesday and The Dalles chamber of commerce on Friday.

"What Should Be Done at the Next Peace Conference" is the question concerning Miss Alice Harter, sophomore, and Jack Robinson, junior, in their appearance before the Grants Pass Rotary club and Methodist church Wednesday. Thursday they will be at Rogue River high school.

The purpose of symposium is based on a saying of Plato that

SIX UO SYMPOSISTS . . .
 . . . pose before entering another one of their interesting open forums. . . . Left to right are Jack Robinson, Dave Waite, Cameron McDonald, Alice Harter, Lynn Ellingson, and Harold Rhea.

democracy is able to function as long as people are able to solve their own problems. When they fail a leader takes over. With informative discussions backed by three months of preparatory research symposium members hope to aid people in solving various problems of today's world.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Members of the Radio Workshop will meet this evening at 7:30 in 107 Friendly hall.

A talk on "The Structure of Protoplasm" will be given by Dr. A. R. Moore, research professor of physiology, at the regular meeting of the Chemistry seminar this afternoon at 4:15 in 103 McClure hall.

The campus Christian Science organization will meet every Tuesday evening at 7:30 on the third floor of Gerlinger hall. All those interested are invited to attend.

Episcopal communion services will be held Wednesday morning at 7 in the men's lounge at Gerlinger hall.

Pan-Hellenic will meet this afternoon at 4 in Gerlinger hall to discuss rushing rules. All representatives and alum advisors are urged to come.

Miss Gertrude Mooney, University of Texas physical education instructor, is women's representative for physical fitness in the I.A.A.F. defense.

FIVE AGGRESSIVE LOOKS . . .

. . . are glared by R. B. Huber, assistant professor of speech, and four of his students . . . left to right are: Mr. Huber, Jim Thayer, Esther Quier, Jack Caldwell, and Scott Wheeler.

HOW ABOUT THIS POINT? . . .

. . . R. B. Huber, assistant professor of speech, and three of his students discuss plans for a future debate . . . left to right are Mr. Huber, Norman Bradley, Sidney Seymour, and Rollin Wood.

Emmy Fargo 'Mix Queen'

Title of "Queen of the Frosh Mix" was bestowed upon Emmy Lou Fargo, freshman in liberal arts, by popular applause at the freshman get-together held in Gerlinger hall Saturday night after the Oregon-Washington game.

The two other finalists from a group of seven contestants were Louise Goodwin, freshman in AAA; and June Johnson, freshman in music.

An enormous stag line and a slippery floor greeted the enthusiastic crowd who danced to radio music at the no-date affair.

Ted Loud, master of ceremonies introduced a short quiz program at intermission with contestants picked from among the dancers.

Randolph - Macon's Woman's college will soon celebrate completion of its fiftieth year.

Miss Bertha S. Adkins, is now dean of residence at Bradford junior college.

Villanova college was the first Catholic college founded in Pennsylvania.

Bring in Your
Snow Snapshots

Your film will be expertly developed and professionally printed to give you a sparkling reminder in years to come of a "White Campus."

Your University 'CO-OP'

MCDONALD
 Sweet Dreams
 "George Washington Slept Here"
 Jack Benny - Ann Sheridan
 "The Undying Monster"
 James Allison
 Heather Angel

REX Theatre
 Now Playing!
 "VIVACIOUS LADY"
 GINGER ROGERS
 JAMES STEWART
 and
 "Five Came Back"
 CHESTER MORRIS
 LUCILE BALL

HELLIG
 Not AWOL, but
 "Seven Days Leave"
 With Victor Mature
 Lucile Ball and
 Freddy Martin's Orchestra
 Jinny Sims