

From the Pulpit

By FLORA KIBLER

In spite of the ever-changing weather, the University is having one of its monthly vesper services, and the Eugene churches are faithfully putting on services.

At the Baptist church, Dr. Vance Webster will speak at 11 on "Taking the Hazards," and at 7:30 about "Too Little and Too Late." Bible school will be at 9:45 a.m.; B. Y. groups all meet together at 6:30 for motion pictures.

No Newman Club

Mass at St. Mary's Catholic church is at 8, 9:30, and 10:30, as usual, with a communion breakfast for University students after the 9:30 mass. Father Christoph, S.J., will speak to them. Newman club will not meet this Sunday.

Dr. Williston Wirt at the Congregational church will speak at 11 "On Finding God." The college group will not meet this Sunday.

Musicales

The First Christian Church's pastor, Rev. Walter J. Fiscus, will speak at 11 on "The Healthiness of Being a Christian." At 7:30 the choir is presenting a musicale of Christian music.

The lesson-subject at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, is to be "Love"; the services are at 11 and 8.

The Lutheran churches in town have their usual services. The Lutheran student association will elect officers this Sunday, with a brief Bible study, and some games. They meet in the YW bungalow at 6:30.

"Responsibility"

At the Methodist church, the 11 o'clock service, Dr. Thomas Acheson, a visiting pastor, will speak. At the Wesley Foundation group, 7 o'clock, Prof. Lawrence Bee, of the University, will speak on "The Individual's Responsibility to the Community."

Dr. Tully at the Central Presbyterian church will speak at 11 on "The Distinctive Message of the Christian Religion." The 7:30 service will be Young People's night. Young folks in the church will participate; the pastor's message is "Loyalty to Christ."

At the morning service of St. Mary's Episcopal church, Bishop Remington, who will also speak at the campus vesper service, will talk on "Fear not, for they that be with us are more than be with them." Confirmation services will be held at 11 o'clock, also. The Bishop will also speak at an informal fireside at 5:30, on "How to Find God."

At Westminster house the student discussion group will meet at 9:45 a.m. as usual. At the evening forum, 6:30, the University Symposium team is going to discuss "Transition from a War to a Peace Economy."

The campus vesper service is at the Music building at 4:30 Bishop Remington is in charge of the service; it is a meditation, with special music, rather than formal speech.

Illiterates Outnumber College Graduates

One out of every seven Americans over 25 years old—10,104,000 of them—are "functionally" illiterate, according to the 1940 U.S. census—more than three times the number of college graduates.

The definition of "functional" comes from army standards which require the equivalent of a fourth-grade education and the ability to read a daily newspaper for the admission of selectees. By this definition, the illiterates are barred from the army, have a restricted usefulness in war industries and cannot fulfill their duties as citizens.

The largest number of illiterates come from states with the greatest population: New York, with more than 1,000,000; Pennsylvania with 696,000; Texas with 642,000; and Illinois with 462,000. By races, the breakdown is 7,300,000 white, 2,700,000 Negroes, and 100,000 all others. Of the white total, 4,200,000 are native born and 3,100,000 foreign born.

One o'Clock Taps

(Continued from page one) white, and blue with the American flag at top mast.

5. Among brass hats invited to attend the formal conference of military dance goers is Governor Earl Snell.

6. Candidates for Little Colonel are: Charlene Pelley, Jean Villair, Jean Tomson, Beryl Robinson, Doris Schwarz, Ruth Van Buskirk, Nancy Lewis, Carolyn Koepke, Mickey Mitchell, Nell Carpenter, Helen Holden, Marjorie Young, Maxine McNeil, Elaine McFarlane, Shirley Neal, Harriet Knight, Marguerite Keating, Mary Mercier, Kay Marshall, Betty McFayden, and Marge DePourtales. The names of the five finalists chosen by members of Scabbard and Blade and Colonel are to remain a military secret until 10:15 tonight.

7. Part of the funds from gate receipts will be used by Scabbard and Blade to buy a war bond. Tickets will be sold at the main gate for $1.50.

8. Scabbard and Blade pledges are to be tapped following the announcement of the Little Colonel and her staff. The grand march and special dedication to President Roosevelt will complete the evening's program.

Authorized by Clinton Childs, commanding chairman.

Dads Go on Silver Standard

(Continued from page one)

living out of their organizations will be counted. Legal guardians are eligible, but dads of students living at home will not be credited to the house to which the student is affiliated. To count in the contest, dads must be registered in Johnson hall by 4:30, Saturday, February 13.

Prize winners will be announced at the earliest date following Dads' Day since it is not practicable to name them at the luncheon this year as was done in the past.

Tie?

In the event of a tie, the houses involved will keep the cup for equal periods of the year. Mr. Constance will work with a student committee in determining the winners.

The president of each organization is requested to file by Thursday, February 11, a complete list of the fathers of members of the house. A separate list will be turned in to Dean Earl's office containing names of dads of freshmen. These lists will include only those dads eligible under the above regulations.

Turn in Lists

It is important that these lists be turned in so that those dads who register can be checked on the list and the percentages computed.

Members of the Dads' Day committees will speak to the living organizations Monday noon to announce the contest and distribute the handbills that are available for mailing home. These handbills outline the day's festivities and need only be slipped in an envelope and mailed home.

OREGON EMERALD

Copy Desk:

Marjorie Young, city editor
Jon Snillib
June Taylor
Norris Yates
Tex Goodwin

Night Staff:

Roger Tetlow, night editor
Al Howard
Clell Crane
Jon Snillib
Marjorie Young
Betsy Wootton

Research in methods of storing high-octane gasoline and preventing its deterioration is in progress at the University of Texas

FEB 21
GROUNDHOG
DRY WEATHER
GOOD or BAD

With spring just around the corner, it's "brighten up" time again. It's your patriotic duty... and it's budget good sense to make last year's clothes do... and it is our business to see that it does! Our expert dry cleaning service will get rid of dust, grime and stains without harming the fabric.

Domestic
LAUNDRY & CLEANERS, Inc.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

The Latin-American prints exhibit at the little art gallery at the AAA school will be open from 2 to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Communion breakfast for all Catholic students will be held after the 9:30 mass, in the St. Mary's cafeteria.

Girls Neelel

(Continued from page one)

phone calls, and notices have been asking University girls to give two hours a week of their time toward concrete work in the war effort.

Now a plea is issued, a plea to each girl who has signed a card on file at the Red Cross. To sign one of those cards is to sign an unwritten pledge to do your part.

Although surgical dressing is the most important part of the Red Cross work, girls who are skilled, or even interested, in sewing are asked to help with the garments made for refugee children.

Both Red Cross units are open. Friday afternoons from 1 to 5 p.m. and Saturday mornings from 9:30 a.m. till 12.

Bandages made at the University are sent to a central station where they are kept until all the quotas from each Red Cross chapter are collected.

Special orders from the army notify the central station to send the proper number of packages to a certain ship. Because the orders are secret no one knows their exact destination. However, through knowledge of what has been done overseas, most of the bandages have gone to Alaska, Africa, and the south seas.

The dressings are used as sponges during emergency operations on the battle-front, in tent-hospitals or in the field hospitals.

Bronson Plays 'Different' Role

"The Whole Town's Talking," Guild Hall theatre production, opens shortly, featuring Jim Bronson, senior, in the leading role of Chester Binney.

This part is entirely different from other roles Bronson has had. As a freshman he played an Italian in "Idiot's Delight" and in his junior year he had the part of the hard-headed Carlson in "Of Thee I Sing" and that of Mongo in "Wingless Victory."

Slapstick Farce

In "Watch on the Rhine," this year's first play by the Guild Hall theater, Jim was a sophisticated business man.

The coming slapstick farce shows him as a man who can't understand why he isn't appealing to women, because he was "such a pretty baby."

"Even his friends won't recognize the Jim they know swinging from a chandelier and shouting. 'Even a worm screams when he's stepped on,'" states Mrs. Otilie Seybolt, director.

Designs Too

Bronson handled the pier and field scenes in the current play, "The Eve of St. Mark," and is the third member of the Guild Hall theater to be interested both in acting and stage design. First to have one of their scenes used during their senior year was Charles Jackson, '40. Last year Dick Turner, '42, handled one.

They are tied in 25-bandage packages so that they may be put into immediate use.

To fill the needs of all the battle-fronts and home hospitals hundreds of thousands of bandages must be made every month, and the people at home are the only ones to do it.

Mountaineering courses were a serious part of the summer curriculum at the University of Col.

ASK THE FLYING TIGER FROM CHINA

"SCRATCH ONE ZERO"

"OUT THERE WE'D GIVE A BUCK FOR A COKE" "THEY'RE STILL A NICKEL HERE"

"There must be something special about a 5¢ soft drink, when men overseas write home or bring back tales about it. That bottle and the familiar trade-mark Coca-Cola remind them of home. The delicious taste and refreshment of Coke bring a refreshing moment on the sunny side of things. Enjoy it yourself."

5¢

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF EUGENE

The World's News Seen Through THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR
An International Daily Newspaper
Published by THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PUBLISHING SOCIETY
One, Norway Street, Boston, Massachusetts

is Truthful—Constructive—Unbiased—Free from Sensationalism—Editorials Are Timely and Instructive, and Its Daily Features, Together with the Weekly Magazine Section, Make the Monitor an Ideal Newspaper for the Home.

Price $12.00 Yearly, or $1.00 a Month.
Saturday Issue, including Magazine Section, $2.60 a Year.
Introductory Offer, 6 Issues 25 Cents.

Obtainable at:
Christian Science Reading Room
86 West Broadway, Eugene, Ore.