

Ducks Seek New Aqua Records

Beavers to Check U of O's Time Hopes

By ROLLIE GABEL

Riding rather easily on their victory over the Oregon State swimming team of last Saturday, the Oregon squad will again meet the aforementioned at the University of Oregon men's pool this afternoon at 2:30. The meet promises to be a fast one, because of the fact that all week Coach Mike Hoyman has been concentrating, not on primarily totaling a great number of points against the State squad, but on the possibilities of breaking some existing records. Admittance to the meet will be on student cards.

Record Challenge

The possibilities of breaking some records are very good as two of the existing records have already been broken in unofficial time trials held recently. The one good possibility is the 100 yard breaststroke event in which Ralph Huestis of the Oregon squad will be the chief aspirant. The other very good possibility is in the 440 freestyle event being swum by Dick Smith. The existing record is held by Robinson of last year's championship squad with a time of 5:06. Smith made the time of 5:07 last year, and because of strenuous workouts and time trials over at the pool, there seems to be a very good possibility of breaking this Oregon held record. Chuck Nelson will also try to break a freestyle record in the 50-yard event.

Sights Raised

The boys are all primed to really make a show this afternoon and have been working diligently in an effort to do justice to previous Oregon swimming standards.

This meet will mark the second official meet that both squads have competed in, the first being the one held last Saturday between each other.

Following is a schedule of the events:

300 yard medley: Backstroke, either Nelson or Prowell; breaststroke, Huestis; freestyle and anchor man, either Gautier, Hoffman, or Houston.

220 freestyle: Smith, Allen, Hoffman.

100 freestyle: Gautier, Smith, Hoffman, or Nelson.

150 backstroke: Nelson, Prowell or Tugman.

200 backstroke: Huestis, McCaulley, or Smith.

440 freestyle: Houston, Smith or Allen.

440 freestyle: Houston, Smith, or Allen.

400 freestyle relay: Nelson, Allen, Smith, Hoffman, Gautier, Houston. (Four of these six, each swimming 100 yards.)

Ducklings Humble Soldiers In Overtime Game, 50 to 48

Reeder Scores 23 Points For Army Hoopsters

By MART POND

Oregon's never-say-die Duckling hoop quintet met the 96th division in a casaba contest Friday night in McArthur court and matched the soldiers blow for blow, finally dunking the hard-fighting Adairs in an overtime period with a score of 50-48.

With five sets of clipped wings, the Frosh came back in the last half of a contest in which they had remained just a little behind, but always within a few points during the entire game.

An army squad with more than an ordinary team of fine shooting players to drop in enough baskets to keep ahead of the Frosh was very much in evidence during the first half. One "Lanky" Reeder of the khaki contingent dominated the backboard remarkably well, as he augmented the division's score by a neat 12 points during the initial half, and came back in the second half to shoot in an additional 11 points, to become high scorer for the evening with 23 counters.

Something New

Starting an entirely different combination at the beginning of the contest, Frosh coach, "Sandy" Sandness, employed the services of two of the yearling "speed merchants" in the guard positions, with Bob Hodgins and "Iowa" Bob Hamilton doing the running chores. Big Ron Pupke took Dean Sempert's usual position at the pivot spot, and Joe Coenenberg and Ken Hume assumed the forward jobs.

Deploying two men in the respective backcourt of the Frosh, "General" Kelly, paced an army squad with his arching howitzers which swished through the hemp with the ominous hum of an 88. The score at the end of the first half was 21-17 to the good for the elongated militia.

Coming back into the contest at the outset of the second period, a determined Duckling squad beat away at the soldiers' lead, with Dean Sempert doing some of the heavy work with some fore-court swisher shots. Because of their apparent inability to go over the heads of the 96th team, the Frosh then began to go through them with a sporadic type of play on the part of Bob Caviness and "Hodge" Hodgins.

The shooting eye of Kenny Hume, of the Frosh, wasn't off in the least during the tilt, for this Portland boy drove in toward the basket to make lay-in shots or was content in shooting them from the sideline.

In the last few minutes of the fray, the soldiers were leading, with Reeder and Jackowski and Kelly playing a game of tag with the speedy Frosh forwards, then the Yearlings opened their last-minute rally, with Caviness and Sempert connecting for long shots to tie the game in a knot as the regular playing time was completed with the score 46-46.

In a fast five minute overtime, "Big" Mr. Reeder "canned" a whirling shot to put the soldiers again into the lead, but Ken Hume and Bob Caviness came through with counters to win the game for the Frosh 50-48.

Officials: Siegmund and Summers.

WILL HE SEE HIS RECORD BROKEN?

... Jack Dallas, holder of the northwest record in the 100-yard breast stroke at 1:05:38, will be on hand this afternoon as Ralph Huestis attempts to better his mark.

Awful Awfuls, Betas Crush Intramural Opponents

By STAN PIERSON

Intramural basketball competition was at a low ebb yesterday afternoon as only two games were played. A third game, the scheduled contest between Alpha hall and Ness, was taken via the forfeit route by the Sigmas since the Alphas have withdrawn.

The feature attraction brought together two hitherto undefeated "A" fives, the Awful Awfuls and Canard club. After jumping into an early lead on baskets by Kelly and Ness, the Awful Awful outfit was never headed and wound up on the long end of a 24 to 7 count. Canard, who had beaten Phi Psi the day before, took a large number of shots from the floor but were unable to connect. Glen Kelly, whose work under the basket was particularly effective, tied with George Booras for high point honors, each accounting for 8.

In a class "B" affair, the Beta Theta Pis rolled over the Phi Sigma Kappas to the tune of 50-15. Marty Duden wrote a new season scoring record into the books as he tallied 21 points in leading his team to victory. The Thetas displayed a fine ball handling technique and coasted most of the second half after leading at one time 30-4. Although outplayed completely, the Phi Sigs were not outfought and

Commandos Gain Former Athlete

Second Lieut. Don W. Galbreath, former University of Oregon basketball and tennis star, has been assigned to duty with a United States marine corps combat organization.

He was assigned to his present outfit following his graduation from reserve officers' school at Quantico, Virginia.

Lieut. Galbreath enlisted for a commission in the reserves last March, but completed his education before reporting to candidates' class.

After spending ten weeks in candidates' class he received his gold bars and commission and was then enrolled in reserve officers' school.

Twenty-two-year-old Lieut. Galbreath was a mainstay on the Oregon basketball team for two years. He was graduated with a BS degree in physical education. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.
