Durable Dick's Debut Displays Cage Talent

By DON LONIE

This is a tenfold tribute to a Hobby H. specialty who has earned his chevron as a back-board bambino tried and true. About to be unfolded before your wandering eyes is the tale of the fourth in a line of Dicks to be let loose on this campus in the last ten years. For many moons, now, there have been Dicks lurking behind every tree, beneath every shrub, under every window. No, indeed, this is not a reference to coppers. Dicks are what Ed, the latest campus interpretation of the family, is one of.

tional, Ed has been dribbling around the floor for longer than long. For the local high school at that trading post he played varsity ball, both foot and basket, and the gang decided to send him down to college to see what he could do. In his right pocket he carried a state championship which his team of gridironers copped and in his left he guarded a knowledge of basketball ins and outs. Basketball he loved best, hence decided to try at it.

Results? Not bad. This, his first term out, produced a freshman who has seen action against every team the green-yellows have played, one who will probably win his letter his first year, and one who really looked good against that unhappiest of all teams, the Vandals.

Hats Off

To you, Brother Ed, we doff our hat. Success and fortune will no doubt be yours. Incidentally, we would like to see Ed back here "Every Year About This Time" but the V-1 men haven't had an inkling of their future plans, so Ed doesn't know when the news will be out and he will be in.

"Law-sy me" might well be what Mr. Dick calls himself, for he will one day prove himself a sage of the seat when he becomes of age and is admitted to the bar. Aspirations pertaining to law are his and currently he is practicing proper gavel strokes on his brother's head.

In concussion, which is a better word than conclusion, we advocate the following slogan—"Watch Dick."

ket but kept the Oregon attack blazing with his here-and-there scampering.

Idaho's offensive was cramped when Norm Fredekind, Bob Ryan and Cliff Benson, all starters, were given the boot on four fouls as Referees Emil Piluso and Hal Lee overworked their horns. They charged a total of 34 personals, 21 on the visitors.

Omega Hallers, Kappa Sigs, Lawyers, Delts, Post Wins

After trailing throughout the first half, a fighting Omega quintet rallied to defeat a strong Theta Chi squad, 17-11, in the feature of yesterday's all B card. The Omegas were at a disadvantage as far as height was concerned, and had also lost one of their stellar guards, Del Burk, to the army a few days before. Both teams were well supported, which added much spirit to an already spirited contest. Gordy Miller, who took the position vacated by Burk, proved to be the determining factor for the victors, as he caged several long shots late in the third period to give them a lead they never relinquished.

Not So Close

A spirited Kappa Sig five vanquished the Chi Psi bees, 24-6, in the only real walkaway of the day. The early part of the game was comparatively close with the score at half time standing at 11 to 6. In the second half, however, play was entirely dominated by the Kappa Sigs as they scored 13 digits while holding their opponents scoreless. Peterson paved the way for the winners with 11 points.

Tall Boys Count

Led by three 6-footers, the Law School conquered a short but scrappy Kirkwood bee team, 18 to 8. Baskets by Shetterly and Walker sent the Lawyers into the lead early and after holding their opponents scoreless led at half time 6 to 0. The second half saw the Kirkwood bees come through with some long shots but they were not enough and fell by the way.

J. Ryan Shines

It was Johnny Ryan, one half of Idaho's brother duo, who made life miserable for the Duck zone defense. Young Ryan hawked the leather all over the hardwoods and swished five long-distance one handers from 'way out. His 12 points allowed him to share top point honors with the point-tossing Quinn.

Rog (Big Boy) Wiley, stork-like Duck pivotman, chipped the ice after 1½ minutes were past when he canned a foul toss on an offense charged to Norm Fredekind. Babe Brown's battling Vandals jumped into the lead, 4 to 1, with a bang when Benson plunked one from 15 feet, Bob Ryan added a gift throw, and Brother John Ryan came through with a free one.

Three minutes elapsed with the fives rattling up and down the boards unable to connect. Then Warren Taylor brushed aside clawing Idahoans to plop in a cripple to knot matters at 4-all, following a gravy toss by Roy Seeborg.

Williamson Scores

Half-pint Williamson came through when given three foul chances to raise the Oregon ante to 7 while Idaho was blanked.

Lanky Wiley popped through another gifter and Kirsch holed out two field goals on the fast break as did Seeborg in a brilliant down-floor solo through the Vandal ranks. While this was going on for Oregon, J. Ryan and Benson both canned those long one-handers from 25 feet distant and the scoreboard read 14 to 8, Oregon.

At the half-way mark Quinn shook loose for his first one, a hook from the right, but Rolph Fuhrman, entering as a substitute, more than offset Quinn's efforts with two rapid-fire one-handers from afar. Score: 18-10.

Even Up

Then the losers shifted into second and with John Ryan, Quinn, Benson, Fredekind hoisting good ones through the hemp, Idaho pulled up. With 55 seconds remaining in the initial stanza things were tied as tightly as a Scotchman's purse-strings, 22 to 22.

A two-bucket flurry with Williamson and Kirsch acting on lightning fast breaks permitted the Hobson pupils to trot into the dressing room at mid-game with a slight 26 to 22 advantage.

Plan of attack for the Vandal in the second half was simple. It consisted of merely casting off time and again and praying the
