

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

By Bill Lindley, Motion Picture Editor, The Emerald

Hollywood Reporter

Jack L. Warner, executive producer at Warner Bros. studios, is giving serious consideration to the idea of staging a world premiere of "The Adventure of Mark Twain" at Oxford university in England sometime next fall. Twain was presented with an honorary degree by the world-famous university.

the demand: "With Roosevelt and Churchill?"

Late Flashes — Ha . . . Leon Errol is writing his life story. Ought to call it "A Quart a Day Keeps the Doctor Away," or does it? Rita Hayworth and Humphrey Bogart are being starred in a comedy, "Our Client Curly" . . . Crosby's new house cost $300,000 cabbage leaves.

Now Playing

HEILIG
Wednesday only
"Nightmare"
Thursday through Saturday
Journey Into Fear
Little Joe, the Wrangler
Sunday through Wednesday
The Big Street
Madame Spy

MAYFLOWER
Thursday through Sunday
Nightmare
Monday through Wednesday
Theater closed
Thursday through Sunday
The Big Street

McDONALD
Wednesday only
Stand By For Action
Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch
Thursday through Saturday
China Girl
Gorilla Man
Starting Sunday
Yankee Doodle Dandy

REX
Wednesday only
Primrose Path
Lucky Legs
Thursday through Saturday
My Sister Eileen
Romance on the Range

Production Briefs—Jimmy Rogers, son of the late humorist, will have the romantic lead in future "Hopalong Cassidy" pictures . . . Irving Rapper, director of "Now, Voyager," will handle the reins in "Rhapsody in Blue," story of the life of George Gershwin now on Warner books for early shooting . . . Sonja Heinie busy with "Winter Time."

Slightly Mistaken Identity
John Greenstreet, son of round Sydney of "Casablanca" fame, has been transferred to the air force and is stationed at St. Petersburg, Florida.

The cadet reports that when he casually mentioned his father was in "Casablanca" — the picture, of course — he was greeted with pop-eyed amazement and

Campus Gets 'Nightmare'

"Nightmare," a mystery packed with suspense, will take top billing at the Mayflower theater starting Thursday.

The film, which stars Diana Barrymore and Brian Aherne, is notable for its Hitchcock-like suspense and the clever unraveling of the plot.

A second hit will complete the bill.

STARTS THURSDAY MAYFLOWER Doors Open 6:30 P.M.

DIANA BARRYMORE • BRIAN AHERNE • DONLEVY

—in—

'NIGHTMARE'

As Forceful as the Concussion of a Depth Bomb

Plus: "STAND BY ALL NETWORKS"

THUR.-FRI. HEILIG AND SAT.

"Journey Into Fear" "Little Joe, the Wrangler"

THEN — STARTS SUNDAY

The story of LITTLE PEOPLE WHO ARE BIG!

Henry FONDA
Lucille BALL

in

The BIG STREET

An RKO Radio Picture —PLUS—

DAMON RUNYON'S thrill-packed story of Broadway!

CONSTANCE BENNETT and DON PORTER

in

Madame Spy

A Universal Picture

Damon Runyon's "The Big Street," which starts Sunday at the Heilig theatre features Lucille Ball and Henry Fonda, shown in a scene from the film.

Gene Tierney Stars at Mac In 'China Girl'

The breath-taking escapades of a newsreel cameraman in China are vividly shown in "China Girl," which opens tomorrow at the McDonald theater.

Gene Tierney brings to the screen a vivid portrayal of the women who help China in the war against the invaders of the rising sun, and George Montgomery plays the newsreel man who

(Please turn to Page Seven)

'My Sister Eileen' Next for Rex Screen

Rosalind Russell and Janet Blair are starred in "My Sister Eileen," a hilarious comedy about two country girls in New York City, which opens tomorrow at the Rex theater.

Second feature on the bill which runs for three days is "Romance on the Range," a thrilling western saga.

Thriller Due

Orson Welles' latest thriller, "Journey Into Fear," opens tomorrow at the Heilig theater for a three-day run. The film tells the story of intrigue in the near east. Welles himself has an important part in the picture.

Also in the bill is "Little Joe the Wrangler," action hit with Johnny Mack Brown.

Heilig Books Runyon's 'Big Street' for Sunday

Damon Runyon has been a favorite of American readers for years, and one of his best stories is "The Big Street," which starts Sunday at the Heilig theater.

busboy in Mindy's restaurant, adores Gloria Lyons, a night club dancer, but she scarcely notices him.

During a quarrel which she has with a gangster she is knocked down stairs, and is crippled for life.

Her fair-weather friends forget her, but Little Pinks pays all (Please turn to page seven)

McDONALD STARTS SUNDAY

IT'S A TREASURE OF PLEASURE

and the pleasure is endless!

says the N.Y. TIMES

WARNER BROS. most distinguished offering

JAMES CAGNEY
YANKEE DOODLE DANDY

Based on the story of GEO. M. COHAN and all his glorious songs

JOAN LESLIE

WALTER HUSTON - RICHARD WHORF

Tonight—Last Time!

"STAND BY FOR ACTION"

and

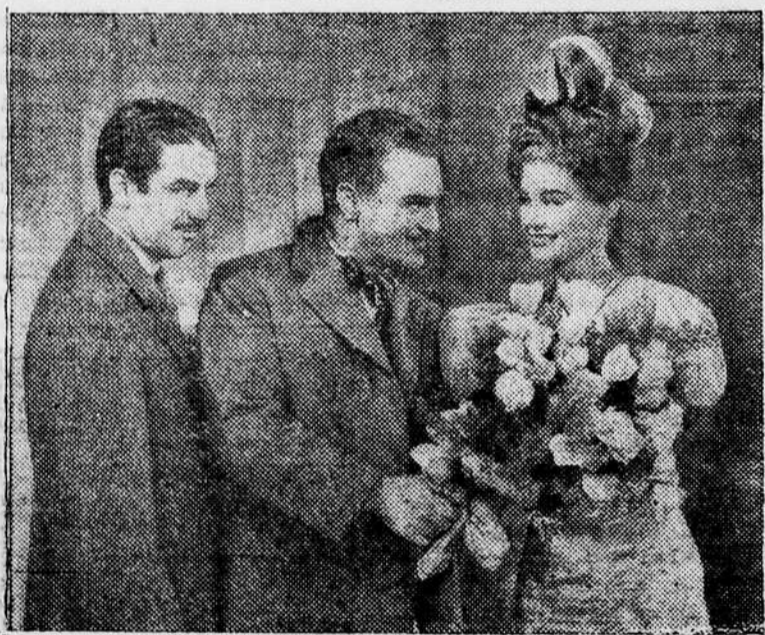

"MRS. WIGGS OF THE CABBAGE PATCH"

Thursday thru Saturday!

"CHINA GIRL"

and

"GORILLA MAN"

James Cagney and Joan Leslie are shown in a scene from "Yankee Doodle Dandy," coming Sunday to the McDonald Theatre.

Coming Tomorrow

Rosalind Russell, Janet Blair, Brian Aherne

in

'MY SISTER EILEEN'

Plus a Double-Barrelled Western

'Romance on the Range'

Last Times Today:
"PRIMROSE PATH"
and
"LUCKY LEGS"

REX Theatre