Valentines, Dads' Day Star This Weekend

By LOIS HULSER, Society Editor

Dear Diary: We're showing Dad a bit of collegiate life this weekend. House dances, firesides, dinners, basketball, a play, etc. As a prelude to the weekend girls are asking their men to the Heart Hop (the psychology is terrific). Dancing for the occasion will be at Alpha Chi Omega, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Phi and Gamma Phi with crowning of the lucky man down millrace way at the Gamma Phi house.

Phi Sigs are having a Bowery ball Friday night, with Wayne Ryan as maestro. An informal fireside at the Chi Psi lodge will be an occasion, according to advance reports of the skit the freshmen are whipping up.

Formal and Informal

Alpha Phi's informal fireside is slated for Friday eve as is the informal dance of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Orides-Yeomen formal in Gerlinger will crown their King and Queen at the Sweetheart Swing. Pi Beta Phi's formal is a dinner dance at the Osburn. Elmer Davis will play for the formal dance given by Kirkwood at the Eugene hotel. Hearts in Rhythm is the theme of the Hilyard formal. Campbell club's dance will be formal, also.

Scoop of the week: The boys at Fenton hall are having a social event this weekend, a skating party Friday eve.

"Talk of the Town"

Dads' luncheon is slated for Saturday noon. With the big cabsa thriller in the evening when the Ducks meet the Beavers at the Igloo. The Guild hall play,

"Talk of the Town," will feature laughs for the evening. Art Holman's band will play for dinner dancing at the Eugene hotel which adds variety to the evening.

Good Taste Misplaced

By MARY ANN CAMPBELL

How many among those present have heard the one about the anaemic man who went to the blood bank and they asked him if he wanted to make a deposit or withdrawal? . . . All right, never mind. . . .

The cast of "The Whole Town's Talking," the show which is being given for the benefit of the dads next weekend, was feeling awfully professional this week as they dashed back to classes from an out-of-town opening . . . just like the big shows in the East. The place was Elkton, and they actually had the high school gym as a theater, not the usual grange hall. . . . The show went over beautifully and more of the local citizenry signed with the army for filter center duty than at any time before these trips which are designed to promote interest in defense work. . . .

The black markets and the OPA must have crossed their wires or fingers or maybe it was swords the other day, at any rate, one gal mentioned that she had consumed a large piece of what she thought was perfectly good steer beef, but when she was about halfway through with it, she noticed that the bone had turned BLUE!!! That isn't normal . . . or is it???

Annual Report from the Underground

Two damsels were wandering along by the Co-op one afternoon, late when, all o' a sudden, they heard a Frantic Yell: "Hey, come over here!"

They looked around and didn't see anybody, so they started on. The Frantic Yell came again. This time they saw an arm, seemingly coming out of the turf, waving in the air. The arm belonged to a small boy, who, with a couple of others, had gone investigating in the heating system and had lost themselves.

The kids asked for a flashlight and put in a request that said damsels come back in 15 minutes if they didn't get out. In a few minutes the lost explorers emerged from a man-hole over by Johnson, much to the re-

AWS Notes

Hoppin' today . . . via Fee-fi-fo-fum, Gammafi, Pifi, and Alfachi are assorted lovelies and the apples of their eyes. Unsubtle tactics No. 4138567092: Ask aforesaid apple of eye to Heart Hop. Perhaps apple of eye will reciprocate with valumtine . . . or even better . . . a nice, slushy phone call invite for some closed weekend.

Also today . . . After big confusion about the AWS assembly Wednesday, all lovelies without 10 o'clocks still have a chance to find out about the army . . . nursing, that is . . . In the same building that all the brawn-measuring tests have been given.

POLITICOS ON PARADE: In precisely seven days (week to you) election of new AWS officers will be staged at Gerlinger. "Everybody 'en basse-y' pliz," quote AWS cabinet. Lotsa people there, lotsa politics, lotsa BWOC's.

And just to make this column completely odious, we bring it to a ghastly end with the one about the little you-know-what that brought cream and sugar to the movies because he heard tell there was going to be a serial . . . (ooh, quick-retreat-to-closet.)
