

Oregon Dads Begin Weekend

(Continued from page one)

awarded again this year for the groups with the greatest turnout of fathers. Nelda Rohrbach and Bob Mueller are in charge of these awards.

To the living organization having the highest proportion of Dads registering today will go the A. W. Norblad trophy. The Paul T. Shaw trophy is awarded annually to the living organizations winning second place for the highest proportion of dads here. The C. O. Laurgaard trophy will be awarded to the organization with the highest proportion of freshman dads registering.

Legal guardians will be considered dads for purposes of this competition. If the same organization wins a trophy for three successive years the trophy will become the permanent possession of that group.

Winners of the trophies will be announced tonight at the basketball game.

Bob Henderson and Mary Bush are in charge of hospitality for dads. They have arranged for open houses this afternoon. Dads have been especially invited to visit the University library, museum of art, museum of natural history, physical education building, student health service, and Chapman hall, the newest addition to the campus.

Hours of the campus will follow the annual meeting of Oregon dads in the Guild theater in Johnson hall at 3 p.m.

Dads arriving on the train that leaves Portland at 8:45 a.m. and arrives here at 12:35 will be met by members of a special committee headed by Joyce Clark and Martha Jane Switzer. They

OREGON EMERALD

Desk Staff:

Ross Yates, city editor
Art Carlson, assistant
Lila Howe
Kelly Snow
Norris Yates
Roger Tetlow
Bill Lindley

Night Staff:

Al Howard, night editor
R. Thomas Tetlow
Bill Buell

have worked in cooperation with Eugene Dads and Mr. Fred Stickles, president of the Eugene Dads. An attempt has been made to furnish transportation from the depot to the luncheon for dads arriving on this train.

Assisting the luncheon committee in decorating the table for the 1 o'clock meeting are Jean Fitzgerald, Signe Ecklund, Barbara Bealer, Flora Kibler, and Dorothy Frideger. Coat checking will be handled by Kelly Snow and Jim Campbell. Leon Benveniste has made all the place cards for the luncheon.

Tonight fathers will be entertained with a double-barreled program that will start with the varsity game between Oregon and Oregon State. All reserved seats for this event have been sold, but general admission tickets may be purchased either today or tonight at McArthur court.

Following the game will be a special presentation for dads of the University Guild theater's latest production, "The Whole Town's Talking." Tickets are 55 cents and should be purchased in the box office in Johnson hall.

Sunday morning old and new members of the Oregon Dads executive committee will have breakfast at 9:30 at the Eugene hotel.

Former Actor Reviews Play

Rehearsal for "The Whole Town's Talking" received a surprise visit recently when a former Guild Hall player, Dick Turner, reviewed the performance.

Turner is now a junior ensign in the navy and is returning to his home in Portland from Washington, D.C., where he was stationed.

Opens Saturday

A transfer from Whitman college, Walla Walla, Washington, Turner attended the University during his junior and senior years. He was an honor student majoring in advertising and was active in dramatics, appearing in "The Taming of the Shrew," and having leads in several plays. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

"The Whole Town's Talking" opens today with performances after Saturday's basketball game with OSC, and continues on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

The box office in the lobby of Johnson hall is open from 10-12 m. and from 1-5 p.m. Tickets are 55 cents and all seats are reserved.

This is the third production on the season ticket. Mrs. Otilie Seybolt, director, announces that if a fourth play is produced, holders of season tickets will be admitted at a reduced price.

If a Buddy

(Continued from page two)

Santa Ana army air base dedicated a brand new gymnasium recently when its stellar basketball squad defeated Loyola university. Laddie Gale, center for the University of Oregon's 1939 national basketball champions, is a member of the Flyers' team.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Libe Previews 'Figaro' Excerpts

Highlights from Mozart's comic opera, "Marriage of Figaro," will compose the seventh Sunday afternoon browsing room concert held February 14 from 4 to 4:45 p.m. in the browsing room of the University library. Visiting dads and mothers are invited to attend.

Records will be presented by Dr. Arnold Elston, assistant professor of music at the University. Preceding the playing of the records, Dr. Elston and Sigurd Nilssen, professor of voice, will give brief talks in order that the audience may understand the music better.

The "Marriage of Figaro" recordings have been chosen for the concert Sunday as a preview to the opera, which will be presented the following evening, February 15, by the Nine o'Clock opera company as a Greater Artist series attraction.

Hostesses for the concert will be Mrs. J. M. Miller from the Mu Phi Epsilon patroness group, Mrs. Buford Roach from the Mu Phi Epsilon alumnae, Miss Ruth Merritt from the Mu Phi Epsilon active group, and Mrs. Willis Warren from the library committee.

Camouflage is being taught at Queens college and Columbia university in New York.

Charles N. Pace, president of Hamline university, St. Paul, tossed a Civil war saber, onto the university's scrap pile.

Handball Tourney Nearing Completion

The intramural handball elimination tournament is rapidly nearing the day when the 1943 victors will be heralded.

In the upper bracket, the first semi-final game is slated for Fonday at four. It will pit the winners of today's ATO-Sigma Chi contest against the DU foursome.

Quarter-final competition in the lower bracket will end with the Kappa Sigs and Sigma Nu featured in Monday's five o'clock rubber-ball chase.

Ad Lib

(Continued from page two)

Sammy Kayes from house libraries and trade them even-stein to the stores for truly fine stuff that has been turned in by the undiscerning.

Yesterday I hauled in the Goodman trio's "Where or When," Bob Crosby's "Prayin' Humble," and a Dixie opus by the Herman Herd. You might find some favorites of yours in the back room of the Radio Lab if you aren't afraid of a little dust on the paws.

SEE YOU AT THE GAME, DAD!

- You'll enjoy those streamlined Ducks with their speed, accuracy and dependability — just as Mother would enjoy a streamlined white enameled automatic gas range that combines those very same qualities.
- SEE THEM NOW at the show room of the Northwest Cities Gas. Co.

931 Oak

Phone 28

Milk Is at War

• Total war includes milk on the lists of essential products. It is up to the consumer and distributor to work together. Remember to place your orders early and take only your just share so that all may have the benefits of dairy products.

Ice Cream . . . Medo-Rich Homogenized Milk . . . Double-Rich Buttermilk . . . Butter . . . Flav-R-Pak Frosted Foods.

Medo-Land Creamery

675 Charnelton

Phone 393