

WAA Dines Tonight at 6:

(Continued from page one)
ziss. Winners of junior awards are Pat Carson, Margaret Murphy, and Janet Ross. All-star teams will be named during the evening. Invited as special guests to the celebration are girls' athletic association presidents from Eugene and University high schools.

Priced at 75 cents, the banquet is open to all members of WAA and anyone interested in joining. Short silks will be worn, and all women attending are asked to enter by the southeast door of Gerlinger.

In charge of arrangements for the banquet are: committee chairman Yvonne Umphlette; decorations, Ruby Florey; house contacts, Nancy Brownell; invitations, Margaret Murphy; and publicity, Anita Young. Entertainment will be included in the program.

Hollywood Scout

(Continued from page one)
After the class, the talent scout will be glad to talk to anybody who wishes to be a motion picture actor or actress, regardless of the student's previous training or experience, Mr. Robinson said. Ottilie T. Seybolt, associate professor of speech and dramatic arts, and Mr. Robinson will introduce the would-be stars to Mr. Baiano.

One of Mr. Baiano's purposes in coming to Eugene was to see the University production, "The Whole Town's Talking," last night in Johnson hall.

Rival Health

(Continued from page five)
point-producing potentialities at all posts.

While Gill has been waving the welcoming flags at the return of the prodigal ball player, Cecil, Oregon's Hobby Hobson has been setting his own house in order.

Five fighting reservists have put on such a scrap this week that Hobby is once again uncertain as to which five men he will give the nod to dribble out on the boards tomorrow eve.

Up till now the guard positions have been considered as belonging pretty much to Captain Donnie Kirsch and midget Stan Williamson. But with Bob Newland's return to form and the sparkling performances of Sam Crowell and Al Popick, the guard situation has Hobson in a quandary. Taller-than-tall Wally Borrevik, lankiest gent on the coast, has pushed Freshman Roger Wiley no end in practice sessions this week. At present the center slot is strictly "toss-up."

About the "hottest" chap in the Duck company in late games has been Roy Seeborg, sophomore all-stater from Astoria. Seeborg has loosed shot after shot through the bucket in a steady flow to achieve 45 points in the last six games.

Furthermore he is crowding regulars Warren Taylor and Rolph Fuhrman for the opening job Friday. The latter two turned in fine jobs against OSC last week, when the Ducks divided the series.

Oregon intends to run, naturally. Oregon State's plan of strategy will probably be confined to the inevitable dog-trot stuff, though occasionally the Bevos have been known to open up.

The 2x4 Corvallis gym will work an additional hardship on our Ducks, but should render a zone defense impregnable for both clubs.

Finch junior college this year is emphasizing liberal arts courses.

Town Talking Ends Tonight

Final performance of "The Whole Town's Talking" will begin at 8 tonight in the Guild hall theater in Johnson hall. This farce by Anita Loos and John Emerson amused three University audiences with the scrapes of Chet Binney, James Bronson, and Henry Simmons, Bob Farrow.

Mr. Simmons plots the marriage of his daughter to Chet, his business partner. The main trouble with his plan is the daughter's dislike for Binney who was a pretty baby but now finds himself unattractive to women. The girl is fascinated by a glamorous playboy to add further complications.

The father plans a romance to arouse interest in Chet. This backfires and Binney winds up on the chandelier.

The cast includes James Bronson, Chester Binney; Marge Quigley, Mrs. Simmons; Maxine McNeil, Ethel Simmons; Bob Farrow, Mr. Simmons; Louise Rossman, Letty Lythe; Ray Dickson, Donald Swift; Merlin Dow, Roger Shields; Vivian McNamee, Sallie Bloom; Nelda Rohrbach, Lila Wilson; Grace Dillard, Sally Otis; Vivian McNamee, maid; and Bill Neder, taxi driver.

The box office is open from 10-12 m. and from 1-5 p.m. Tickets are 55 cents and all seats are reserved.

Practice Weeks

(Continued from page four)
ner available, and on Saturdays, the courts were thrown wide open for use on the first-come, first-play policy.

The initial games proved leg-weary and "pooping" for all concerned. The coaches, having spotted inevitable weak spots, interchanged their proteges around, seeking strong, victorious fives. This was only the beginning of the grind.

For five solid weeks they continued on this steady diet. No one was complaining (at least not the pledges), but all of the losing quintets were rather glad to see the end of the trail. We have reached a time where the league titlists stepped off the beaten path into the pitfalls of the playoffs, where only one outfit in each the "A" and "B" ranks can emerge triumphant and receive the plaudits of the others.

Others Rate, Too

But what about all the other deserving individuals who failed to get any more recognition than a misspelled name on the score sheets or a "chance" plug in the Emerald sport-sheets?

A few of those lads who played on the "wrong teams might actually have more skill and ability than the average run of those in the play-offs. Aren't they justly due for a little additional mention and applause too?

We sincerely think they are. Therefore, we will try to do our small share, and make everything as fair as possible. How, you ask?

Selections

Well, within the next few days we are going to publish the official 1943 Emerald All-Star fives. To pick the most outstanding from an original bunch of 500 is certainly not the most easy task in the world, but we will do our best.

So, watch the Emerald.

Jewelry Exhibit

Hay Gray, representative of the L. G. Balfour company, has announced a display of fraternity jewelry. The exhibition will be at the Side from 9 to 11 and from 2 to 5 Thursday.

Fashions, Dance Added to Odeon

(Continued from page one)

form five original numbers as follows: "Invictus" by Margaret Murphy; "The Irish Dancer" by Wanda Burch; "Ground Base" by Elise Older; "John Henry Suite" by Barbara Scott; and "Dreary to Dizzy" by Helen Barklow and Margaret Brinkley.

Music for the dancers will be provided by Eugene Bennett and Phyllis Taylor, pianists. Miss Helen Petroskey is Odeon faculty member in charge.

Performing dancers are: Maxine Hughes, Elise Older, Margaret Brinkley, Helen Barlow, Charlotte Older, Mary Anderson, Altha Paul, Margaret Murphy, Barbara Scott, and Wanda Burch.

All costumes for the dance were designed by Merlin Dow.

Emerald Names Chief For Night Staff Work

Betsy Wootton, sophomore in journalism has been appointed chief night editor of the Emerald, according to an announcement from G. Duncan Wimpres, managing editor.

Miss Wootton will be in charge of all night staff work. She has been an Emerald night editor for several terms.

Sherry Ross

(Continued from page five)

Hamilton decided the affair in favor of the Rossmen. Gerald Potestio and Elliot Wright chalked up nine points apiece to lead the scoring.

Sherr Ross, 20 15, Phi Deltas G. Unkeles, 3...F..... 9, Wright M. Potestio, 2...F..... 1, Wimberly H. Unpeles, 4...C..... 2, Skade J. Potestio, 9...G..... 3, Burns Hamilton, 2...G..... Hewitt S..... Taylor

Betas Triumph

Thrills galore was the theme as the Betas and the Theta Chis battled through four quarters and an overtime before Quent Sidesinger's push shot from the corner gave the Betas an 18 to 16 decision. Marred by frequent roughness and a slam bang style of play, the game nevertheless proved to be the most exciting of the afternoon. Accurate shooting provided the margin of victory since the Theta Chis out-shot the winners by a wide margin. Defenses of both teams were especially effective during the early part of the game with the half ending with the score 7 all. Betas, 18 16, Theta Chi Crawford, 4...F..... 6, White Blake, 4...F..... 4, Pengra Jayne, 3...C..... Hall Farmer, 2...G..... Hall Sidesinger, 5...G..... 5, Wilson S... Steelhammer S..... 1, Davis

Nus Topples

Despite John Bubalo's 8 points, the Awful Awfuls moved into the "A" finals by virtue of their narrow 18 to 16 upset of the Sigma Nus. A first quarter splurge gave the independent aggregation an 11 to 2 lead and showed signs of becoming a walk-away. The Sigmas after staging a third quarter rally moved to within two points of a tie and from then on in things were nip and tuck. A long shot from the side in the last two minutes by Georgie Booras put the game on ice for the winners.

Awful Awfuls, 16 14, Sigma Nu Ness, 2...F..... 1, Williamson Martini, 5...F..... 3, Crane Kelly, 4...C..... 8, Bubalo Booras, 5...G..... 2, Whitman Carr... G..... Skillican

Sherman wasn't kidding about 30 "burpees" into 60 seconds?

Westminster House Plans Special Dance

Westminster house will hold a special dance Friday night from 8 to 12 instead of the usual open house.

The dance will be formal with no flowers. The theme will be "Boy-date-girl, girl-date-boy," in other words, dates are in order but flowers aren't, Westminster authorities declared Wednesday.

Tickets will be on sale at the house for 50 cents until dance time, it was announced.

It was also announced that the Westminster council will have its picture taken for the Oregoniana at 12:40 today.

Oregon Mermen

(Continued from page four)

for the coming meet with the powerful squad of the University of Washington that Oregon meets Saturday at Seattle.

Oregon still lacks a diver for the team, and this has been the only hole where previous competition has sneaked in some points. In fact, this has been the leak where both the Oregon State and Washington State teams received the majority of their total points.

Diving Trouble

Coach Mike Hoyman has been trying out boys already on the squad as a diver so at least Oregon can get some third places in the diving events. Especially in the coming meet with the University of Washington will this be vitally important because every point that Oregon can total will be a decisive factor in winning the meet.

Pennington Out

Hoyman has not, as yet, chosen the man who will dive in Saturday's meet, but promised to have one by Saturday. Jack Pennington, freshman, who originally dove for the squad, broke an ear drum in the first meet and consequently has remained out of competition.

Mountaineering courses were part of summer curriculum at the University of Colorado.

E Stanley Jones

(Continued from page one)

Mrs. Jones is a member of a district board in India which is responsible for all schools, roads, and the levying of income tax. She is the only woman and the only Christian on this board, all other members being Mohammedan or Hindu men. She became a member at their urgent request.

Because of the war, which makes travel across the Pacific impossible, Dr. Jones will not be able to return to resume his work in India until the end of hostilities. In the meantime he is holding Christian Missions from week to week under the sponsorship of the department, evangelism of the federal council of churches of Christ in America.

While here he will speak at eight various programs, two being held especially for students—the assembly, and an interfaith banquet the next Thursday evening in Gerlinger hall.

Sigma Kapps Win

(Continued from page five)

were "red hot" — the result was bad for the A.D.Pis. Marie Eckstrom showed out especially well at guard.

Janet Ross, A.D.Pi forward, netted some beautiful shots, especially toward the end of the game. Her guard mate, Mary Ellen Smith, was a tower of strength defensively.

High scorers were Miss Carson with 23 tallies, and Pat Howard with 10. Janet Ross scored 10 for the losers.

Sigma Kappa (33)	Pts	Fouls
Pat Carson, f	22	0
Pat Howard, f	10	0
Elva Granquist, f
Pat Davis, g
Margaret Amber, g	1
Marie Eckstrom, g
A. D. Pi (14)	Pts	Fouls
Janet Ross, f	10	2
Bobby Edwards, f	3
Dawn Trask, f	1
Bette Workman, f-g		1
Mary Ellen Smith, g		1
Marillen Wilber, g
Billie Marschall, g

LAST TIME TONIGHT

'The Whole Town's Talking'

PRESENTED BY

University Theatre

JOHNSON HALL

Directed by Ottilie L. Seybolt

TICKETS NOW ON SALE

Admission 55c (including tax)
Reserve your seats now!

Third Season Ticket Play