

Guild Hall Plays To Raise Funds

Vaudeville has returned, at least for the benefit of the Noti air observation tower. A program, sponsored by the Guild Hall players and consisting of song and dance sketches, and musical numbers, will be presented at the Noti school Thursday evening to raise funds for the post.

Bill Wood and Keith Hoppes, emcees, will guide the show and on the side present a sketch with a humorous angle.

Norma Baker will be precocious in a Fanny Brice script.

Dance Routine

A dance routine is in preparation by Vivian McNamee, Louise Rossman, Maxine McNeil, Marjorie Quigley, Bill Wood, Gordon Cochran, and Ruth Foreman.

Those four Guild Hall players, Vivian McNamee, Louise Rossman, Maxine McNeil, and Marjorie Quigley, are planning a surprise in an as yet unannounced dramatic production.

Solo Dance

Solo dance routines are handled by Helen Holden and Joyce Coffee.

Cooperating with the drama department, the music department is sending Ruth Merritt, soprano, and Janice Hough, her accompanist. Phyllis Taylor will play the piano and Hollis Hartwick the accordion.

Signe Ekland is billed for Scandinavian impersonations.

The program is put on by the Guild Hall players assisted by others selected from the campus at large.

Small Talk

ness. Schaiffers and "Peter Rabbit" Stinebaugh report to San Diego on the 8th to don bell-bottom trousers. Goodbye and good luck to two of the old standbys. Sonny Fenton has been having a little relaxation before heading to the sunny South, where he will wait for the air corps to call him.

Oh, Brother

Beta Hal Fredricks has been taking awfully good care of the Beta girls, and he's entirely too attractive to keep a brotherly attitude. Theta Jean Morrison is really back in the Bob Wisemandel league. SAE Jim Evers and Phi Jean Loomis make a most attractive combo. Beta "Si" Sidesinger has been seeing quite a lot of Phyllis Horstman, DG. Sigma Chi Harry Thompson made a striking silhouette at Clingman's Saturday night as he wandered about the blackened room, holding a lighted candle, searching.

Pat Perry, Susan Campbell, took Bud Bergstrom's Phi Psi badge.

There has been a lot of dissension concerning late permission for girls who are bidding goodbye to their loved ones in the ERC. We wonder who is right.

Rally Squad Leads

kamp, and Marjorie Knoles—will sing an original song by Helen Jane Kerr, "Song for the ERC." Miss Kerr will accompany them on the piano. A dance by Helen Holden; a skit arranged by Ted Loud called "Feet's Too Big!" The "Four Knights and A Dream" will close the rally with a song and serpentine.

The committee in charge of the program is: Betty Kincaid, rally squad member; Len Barde, chairman of the campus war board; Les Anderson, president of the ASUO; and Jack L. Billings, Emerald editor.

Fordham college is admitting a freshman class in February for the first time in seven years.

Your Hat... Why Hurry?

By DON DILL, ERC

It's been great knowing you... Those few words are perhaps the hardest part about leaving for the army, or the navy... or the marines. In this case it's with the ERCs.

For the most part, going into the army is a welcome relief from uncertainty, rationing, the loss of the good "old times." And too, there is a feeling that here is a new opportunity for a career, perhaps not the one we studied for but at least a chance to be on our "own."

The ERCs who haven't finished school are already planning the hell they'll raise when they come back after the war and some of us who are graduating prematurely are toying with the idea of coming back for an extra term just to be in on the Spring Opening atmosphere which will probably be swamping the old campus after the present mess is straightened out.

That is what we're thinking about—the future and not the past.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

The Christian Science organization on the campus meets every Tuesday evening at 7:30 in Gerlinger hall on the third floor. All those interested are cordially invited to attend.

Junior weekend committee chairmen will meet at 4 Wednesday in the educational activities office.

All entries in the Junior Weekend theme contest must be turned in to the educational activities office by noon Wednesday. The $5 prize will be awarded to the person whose entry is most suitable, judged for timeliness, adaptability, and simplicity.

All girls entered in the Junior Weekend contest will meet at 4 o'clock today in the alumni hall at Gerlinger to appear before the contest judges. Short silks are in order.

Forty thousand club women demand the Minnesota legislature provide a new mechanical and aeronautical engineering building for the University of Minnesota.

Alum Explains Waves, Spars

The first WAVE officer to be assigned to active duty in the Oregon area, Ensign Mary Elizabeth Harper, a former Delta Gamma at the University of Washington, will be the major attraction at a Gerlinger assembly at 11, according to Carol Wicke, assembly chairman. Assisted by Yeoman Dorothy Duncan, she will also take interviews Wednesday afternoon, from 1 to 5, in the men's lounge, Gerlinger. All interviewees must sign in the dean of women's office.

In order to aid young women from this area in making applications for the WAVES or SPARS, Ensign Harper will explain the opportunities offered by the two services, and will receive applications from those who desire to enlist, in cooperation with the downtown navy recruiting station.

She will explain the connection between the more than 45 different jobs open in the WAVES and SPARS, and civilian work.

In civilian life, Ensign Harper was a personnel manager in charge of employing and training thousands of girls for large national store organizations. She is a graduate of Prince school of personnel training.

Come Rain or Shine

YOU CAN DEPEND ON THE 400,000 TELEPHONE PEOPLE who all work together to put through messages that may save a life or even a city. It is a tradition with the men and women of the telephone companies, from linemen to operators, to stick to their posts no matter what happens. The millions of us who use the telephone know how much that means.
