

QUEEN MARY . . .

Photo by Bill Goldstein

. . . who was chosen to rule over Junior Weekend by an all-campus poll last Friday. Princesses who will constitute her court are Mary Wright, Frances Johnston, Kay Jenkins, and Susan Sawyer.

Junior Prom 'Favorable' Despite War, Says Farrell

Plans for this year's wartime Junior Prom are being perfected, Bill Farrell, chairman of the prom, announced Tuesday, also indicating that this year's dance should compare favorably with those of past years.

"Despite the wartime inconveniences," Farrell said, "we will try to make this prom a good one in every way possible."

Prexy to Rule Matrix Table

Mildred Wilson, senior in journalism, will preside over the annual Matrix Table, sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism honorary, of which she is president, it was announced Tuesday. The formal dinner, which honors outstanding women in journalism, literature, music, and the arts, is set for the Osburn hotel Friday, April 16, at 6 p.m.

Mrs. George Turnbull, adviser of Theta Sigma Phi, will introduce the guest speaker, Lucile Saunders McDonald, outstanding woman journalist from Seattle. Mrs. McDonald will describe how traveling opened an ever broadening field of writing to her.

Heading the Matrix Table committee is Connie Averill. She is assisted by: Ann Leo, in charge of date, place, and menu; Marjorie Major, and Marge Curtis, decorations; Elsie Brownell and Penny Nichols, speaker; Marge Robinson, publicity, assisted by Janet Wagstaff and Carol Greening; and Mary Ann Campbell, invitations, assisted by Barbara Lamb, Virginia Bryant, and Pat Perry.

The theme of the dance will be in keeping with the "South American" idea for the entire Junior Weekend, and will be formal. One o'clock permission will be granted by the dean of women's office for the affair, he declared, since the dance will be from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Music, Perhaps

No orchestra has been signed as yet, but several good bands are being considered for the dance.

Honored guests—and rulers—for the dance will be the Junior Weekend Queen and her court of princesses. These regal rulers are to be crowned at the luncheon banquet earlier in the day and will attend the dance as one of their official duties.

Farrell announced his appointments for the prom committees yesterday: In charge of decorations for the affair is Dave Stone. Bill Frank and Barbara Lamb are on the music committee. Elaine McFarlane and Jim Evers are in charge of the programs.

Jim Thayer is chairman of the ticket committee; Martha Jane Schweitzer is in charge of patrons and patronesses, and Fred Treadgold is publicity head.

A conga line, strictly in the South American vein, will also probably be on the list of novel ideas for those attending the dance, it was intimated.

Execs Ready Class Constitution

Men Hop Tonight As Coins Roll

Tonight the title of "Den of the Wolves" will be bestowed upon the men's living organization which has collected the largest number of tickets at the last Nickel Hop of the year to be held at all women's houses from 6:30 to 8:30.

The winning men's house will receive a $5 money order for new phonograph records. Winners last term were the Theta Chis, who won the title of "King of the Wolves."

All men will turn their tickets in at the house at which they collected them after they have written their names and living organizations on the backs of all tickets. Each girl will have as many tickets as there are dances, and will also write her name and living organization on the back of her ticket before she gives it to the boy. She will give one to each person with whom she begins a dance.

The slogan of the hop, "Keep up the Morale of your best Gal," will really be "at home" along with the wartime atmosphere of the affair.

Immediately after the hop, certain representatives from each women's living organization will count all tickets and money to determine both winning men's and women's living organizations.

Organization chairmen of the nickel hop follow: Alpha Chi Omega, Barbara Blair; Alpha Delta Pi, Billie Marshall; Alpha Gamma Delta, Nancy Brownell; Alpha Omega, Mary Louise Olds; Alpha Phi, Patty Van House; Alpha Xi Delta, Dotty Manville; Chi Omega, Katharine Dunn; (Please turn to page three)

'Sunny' Buck Hits Campus

Tanned, brown-eyed, with the usual wide grin, Buck Buchwach brought the sunshine with him from Las Vegas, Nevada, where he has been serving for the past seven months in the ground signal corps.

Buchwach, who graduated last year, prayed fervently two years ago for sunshine to make freckles on the queen's nose at Junior weekend. His prayers kept the campus dry and cheerful for a whole term. Tuesday he came back on furlough, and lo! the sun! It's an old story to him now, since Las Vegas has sun too—but old campus hands are sure there is something mystical about the whole thing.

While on the campus he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Friars, senior men's honorary, and was president of Sigma Delta Chi, men's journalism honorary. He served on the editorial staff of the Emerald and did publicity for Junior Weekend and numerous campus dances.

Buchwach will leave at 12 noon today.

Scholarships Now Available For Service Men, Women

By ANNE CRAVEN

A decree clearing up conflicting phases concerning voting eligibility were made in the sophomore and junior constitutions by the ASUO executive council Tuesday afternoon. As changed, the sophomore constitution provides that all regular students in the class of '45 shall be members of the sophomore class. The change in the junior class constitution provides that all regular students in the class of '44 shall be members of the junior class. Before they were changed the sophomore constitution stated that votes for officers must be cast by "members of the class of '45" and the junior constitution stated that only voters with academic standing as juniors could cast votes for their class officers.

Surprises Due At Frosh Glee

Spring term's first all-campus dance, Frosh Glee, is scheduled for this coming Saturday night along with surprise decorations. Carrying out the theme of Black Magic, Spider Dickson and his orchestra will be assisted by the new campus harmony quintet, "Four Knights and a Dream."

Mystery, as the theme Black Magic suggests, will surround most of the decoration and entertainment plans until the event takes place. However, it has been announced that the Four Knights and a Dream, composed of Charlotte Gething, Chick Cecchini, Don Bridenstine, Frank Sardam, and Paul Beard, are preparing a special Black Magic number for the dance.

Short silks will be worn at the Igloo dance. Tickets on sale soon at the educational activities office and in all living organizations.

Committee heads are as follows: (Please turn to page seven)

Registration cards from the news bureau files will be used to determine to which class each student belongs according to his social standing on the campus, following a suggestion made by the Emerald. A change in the constitution was made necessary because of the elimination of class cards which were used before to ascertain the student's status.

Rules

Each candidate for nomination should submit his declaration of intention to run and a certificate of eligibility to the president of the ASUO by midnight of the second day prior to nominations. Nominations for classes will be made at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 20. Nominations will be held separately, the juniors meeting in 105 Commerce, sophomores in the Villard assembly room, and (Please turn to page three)

Dr. Erb Speaks at Rally Opening New Bond Drive

A mass gathering in the McDonald theater Tuesday morning heard Dr. Donald M. Erb, president of the University, deliver the first speech inaugurating the second war loan drive in Lane county.

"No government has ever conducted a total war without increasing taxes and borrowing money," Dr. Erb said. "The more bonds we buy, the less taxes we will have to pay."

For your sake

"War Bonds for Your Sake," was the central theme, and he declared that the purchase of war bonds will decrease purchasing power and consumer competition and deflate the danger of inflation. He called war bonds a deferred purchasing power, a hedge on the future which will avoid the expected slump at the end of the war. War bonds provide the best cushion for unemployment and depression, Dr. Erb asserted.

Marie Rogndahl, sophomore at the University, sang Malotte's "Pledge of Allegiance," "Voices of Spring," Strauss, and Victor Herbert's "Italian Street Scene."

Capitalist

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau opened the drive in New York and expressed optimism at the prospects of attaining the $13,000,000,000 goal in three (Please turn to page eight)

(Courtesy of the Register-Guard)

MARIE ROGND AHL . . .

. . . University student who aided in the war bond drive in downtown Eugene.