

UO Libe and Co-op to Offer Prize for Top Book Collection

"Enter your personal library now!" urge officials of the Library Day contest sponsored by the Association of Patrons and Friends of the University of Oregon Library and the University of Oregon Co-op.

Any personal libraries except prize winning ones of former years are eligible. All entries must be made by 6 p.m., April 30, at the circulation desk, stating the name of the contestant, the number of books and general nature of the collection.

Winners to Display

Winning libraries will be displayed at the Co-op following the contest.

Each personal library will be judged on the usefulness of the collection as a whole to the owner and its value as a nucleus of an interesting library for future years. Consideration will be given to well-edited and effectively printed books as well as to rare editions and fine binding, but will not be a major consideration, according to the officials.

Book Bears Mark

Each book must bear a definite mark of ownership but neither the total number of books nor their money value will be a determining factor. Required textbooks are excluded.

The prizes are as follows: First, $15 in books offered by the Co-op; second prize, $10 in books offered by the Association of Patrons and Friends of the Library; and third prize, a copy of Webster's Dictionary of Synonyms offered by the G. & C. Merriam company.

If a Buddy

At Oregon he was commissioned through the ROTC last May and in June won a scholarship to the New York university school of retailing. He was called into active duty, however, on July 6 and served at Fort Francis E. Warren, Wyo., prior to being assigned to the QMRTC at Camp Lee August 5.

Recruit Officer

Win Kelker, ex-University student, has been promoted to a recruit chief petty officer in the navy. While on the campus Kelker was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha.

Private Tom W. Cox, '41, recently was graduated from marine officers' training at Quantico, Virginia and received his commission as a second lieutenant.

Vernon S. Sprague, '37, is a lieutenant junior grade in the navy and is stationed at the preflight school at St. Mary's college, California.

Aviation Cadet Chester I. Wolcott, '40, is undergoing advanced flight training at Roswell, New Mexico. William A. Marshall, '39, graduated recently from Kirtland field, Albuquerque, New Mexico and received his commission as second lieutenant in the army air corps.

Two former University students, First Lieutenant Hugh Oliver Hoffman and Emmet Evans, both army flyers, were killed recently while in training in this country.

Lt. Hoffman was killed Sunday night when his plane carrying two other army flyers, crashed 12 miles southwest of Beowaw, Nevada. He enlisted in the army in October, 1941 and took his basic flight work at Moffett field where he received his commission in the air corps. Recently he had been serving as a flight instructor. While on the campus he was affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Emmet Evans, '45, who was in training at the Couer d'Alene, Idaho air base, was killed while flying at 3 o'clock in the morning and presumably ran into unseen telephone wires. He had been training under the civilian pilot training program.

(Continued from page two) still hold the lead chair. Bunny Berigan, in our opinion the greatest trumpet man to ever blow a note, would take the second, or hot chair. Roy "Little Jazz" Eldridge, with the Gene Krupa gang, would play third horn, and Sonny Dunham would fill the fourth spot nicely. That's a versatile, powerful section.

Sax section would be headed by lead altoist Benny Carter, capable of doubling on trumpet, clarinet, piano, vibes, arranging, etc. Coleman Hawkins is the nation's top tenor man, and he'd play the second tenor chair. Put Johnny Hodges (Duke Ellington) on third alto, Bob (Ex-Saunders King man) on fourth tenor and E. Carney on baritone sax. (Another Duke ace.) Just for effects, Benny Goodman would round out the section on calinet, and he can double on alto.

That's the dream band. Contact arrangers Sy Oliver, Jimmy Mundy, Ralph Yaw, Eddie Sauter, Billy Strayhorn, and you've got the best in the business. Vocalists? For sweet stuff, we'll choose Dick Haymes (Tommy Dorsey) and Peggy Mann (Teddy Powell.) Swing? Lena Horne (movies) and Jimmy Rushing, Count Basie . . . You'd like the outfit, too.

Nilssen Troupe To Entertain

University students, directed by Sigurd Nilssen, will present an all operatic musical program, 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, at the Portland art museum. At 8 in the evening they will give the same program at Camp Adair.

Marie Rogndahl, coloratura soprano, will sing "Lakme" by Delibes and "Naughty Marietta" by Victor Herbert, accompanied by the Opera Chorus.

"Herodiade" by Massenet will be sung by Raymond Leonard, baritone. He and Miss Rogndahl will sing "Don Juan" by Mozart as a duet.

Barbara Bentley, mezzo soprano, will render "Sampson and Delilah" by Saint-Saens and "Carmen" by Bizet. Sung by Margaret Zimmerman, dramatic soprano, will be "Aida" by Verdi and "Tosca" by Puccini. "Louise" by Charpentier will be sung by lyric soprano, Marjorie Juner. Lee Ghormley, a lyric tenor, will present "Martha" by F. van Flotow. "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni will be sung by Betty Fields, dramatic soprano. June Johnson, lyric soprano, is to sing "La Boheme," by Puccini.

Accompanying the group will be Ruth Baker, Jean Phillips, Phillis Taylor, and Maxine Cady.

UO Infirmary Does Dime-Store Business

The "pill palace" seems to be quite the spot these days, for nearly all its accommodations are full. Colds, measles, and sore throats are three main reasons why the infirmary is so busy. Wes Carpenter, Bob Ellinwood, Phyllis Miller, Teresa Levy, La Rue Boggess, Dorothy Blenkinsop, Leslie Lowry, Jack Billings, Dick Schultz, Lowell Chase, and Bob Scott are the newest patients to be admitted.

On Wednesday Chick Chaloupka was discharged.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Phi Beta will meet tonight at 7:30 in alumni hall of Gerlinger hall.

YWCA tea will be held this afternoon at 4 in the bungalow. There will be special music and refreshments. Everyone is invited.

A picnic dinner, pot-luck style, will be held at Westminster house at 6 o'clock, Thursday evening. Bring your own food. Everyone is invited.

YW Tea Honors Co-op, Sorority

Tea today at the YWCA bungalow will honor Hilyard house and Sigma Kappa girls, and house mothers. Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mrs. Ruby Marks will pour. The tea is set for 4 p.m., and every girl on the campus is invited.

Flora Kibler, music chairman of the YW, is in charge of music, and Betty Bennet, YW tea chairman, is making arrangements for the affair.

In the past it has been the custom of the YW to give a tea every week, but due to the many activities on the campus spring term it has been decided that a tea every two weeks will be the schedule for this term.

"I hope that every girl on the campus will make an effort to come over and have a cup of tea with us and get acquainted with the other girls there," Miss Bennet said Wednesday.
