

Students Finish USO Murals Of Allies' Festivals, Holidays

Four murals, painted by members of the upper division painting classes, are now nearing completion and will be installed in the local USO headquarters in about two weeks. They are done in oil on canvas.

The murals portray festivals and holidays of various allied nations, and were designed by the students.

Allen Wong, senior in AAA who left with the ERC, created the division of the largest mural on China. It shows a Chinese New Year festival. Wong formerly performed in festivals of this type in Portland.

Canadian Sport Painted

The Canadian section was painted by Nelson Sandgren, graduate student, whose father and grandfather played on Canadian teams in curling, the sport depicted.

Other artists subjects of their murals are Barbara Scott, junior in AAA, Russia; Wanda Burch, senior at the art school, the Balkins; Dorothy Ellingsworth, senior in AAA, Norway; Marilyn Campbell, junior in AAA, Mexico; Helen Trask, senior in AAA, England; and Nelda Christenson, art school senior, Hawaii.

Mural Largest

Largest of the murals is 6 by 22 feet. Another is 3 by 22 feet. The two smallest are each 4 by 7 feet.

The two larger ones will be placed along the north wall of the USO headquarters while the two smaller ones will be installed in the reading room there.

Professors Work

Working with the students are Mrs. Francis W. Kelley, head of the Eugene USO; Andrew M. Vincent, professor of drawing and painting; and David J. McCosh, assistant professor of drawing and painting.

This is the second service project done by students at the art school recently. The first consisted of art work for the Salem USO. The school has had other requests for similar work from the Tillamook blimp base, Camp Adair, and other camps.

Students Awake

Professor Vincent commented: "We feel the work is a legitimate one at the time. The students are keenly aware of contributing to the war effort and are eager to do it."

Work on the murals was considered as part of the regular class assignments in upper division painting.

Senior Orator Contest Billed

Before they begin that long grind on term papers or start to add those finishing touches to their theses, seniors should consider the opportunity afforded by the annual Failing-Beekman oratorical contest, said W. A. Dahlberg, acting director of speech and dramatic arts.

Highlighting graduation, this contest features prizes of $150, $100, and $50 to be awarded to outstanding senior orators.

Manuscripts should be submitted by May 8 to Dr. Dahlberg at the speech offices in Friendly hall. Any member of the speech department staff is eager to help the speakers, according to Mr. Dahlberg; they will give encouragement, aid in ironing out faults, help with idea presentation, and in any other way possible.

Speakers in the contest, which will be held in the music auditorium, will dress in their commencement caps and gowns.

Emerald Appoints Ad Staff Manager

Don Kay, freshman in journalism, has been appointed Wednesday day manager of the Emerald ad staff by Dwayne Heathman, advertising manager. Kay worked for a time on the business staff preceding his appointment.

Koch Wallops Apple

Though not within rock-hoisting distance of Boob's uncanny mark, Freshman Barney Koch, the lithe, scampering out-gardener, has pieced together a respectable average of his own, .571.

Below Koch comes Bob Caviness, another stripling, with .500, though he has been to the plate just twice, Roy Carlson with .400, and Dick Burns with .333. The remainder of the squad has fallen far off their usual capabilities.

Team hitting, conference games:

AWS Notes

(Continued from page six) auctioneers today. Date of the auction is April 21 and as usual it will be held in front of the Side.

With the Nickel Hop tucked into the past and auction underway, Micki Campbell, AWS president, announced Wednesday that no special all-coed activities had been planned for the near future.

A good old-fashioned barn party has been arranged by and for present members of Kwama who will "take to the farm" Friday, April 23. The party will be held in the barn of one of the Kwamas, Margery Pengra, with all members having a change from their typical college "bunks" by sleeping in the hay for one night.

They will meet at the Side at 4 p.m., April 23, and all leave together, returning sometime Saturday, according to Phyllis Horstman, Kwama president. Dressed for the country, all members will wear jeans.

COME ON IN

The water's fine for bathing, and that's important. But it is even more important to wear the best looking swim suit you have ever seen. Cole of California has a perfectly scrumptious new style in raspberry, powder blue and yellow. The blue has a glossy sheen to it . . . beautiful lines . . . fitted jersey lining. I can't say enough about them, you'll have to see for yourself, at Russell's.

FRESH AS A SPRING BREEZE

Refreshing to the eye, and fun to wear, are the new cotton shirts at the Broadway. They are short sleeved, regular shirt style. White fruits and flowers decorate a colored background of blue, green, lavender, banana, rose, aqua.

GOING PLACES?

Here's a new idea for your traveling case—or for your friends' birthday. Tiffany-Davis has perfumed bath sponges, three in a tiny package for 25c. They are daintily scented cotton sponges, which fluff into large wash cloths when dipped in water.

RED SOX

Gobs of colored anklets in all colors, and at all prices! Ward's best bobby socks with the slender anklets, stay-up tops are only 69c, and come in bright clear colors. You're bound to find what you want in their big stock.

JOIN THE USA

If you're patriotic minded, and style conscious, try a red, white and blue stripe. The All-American Play Suit at Penney's is two-piece; shorts, with halter top; and coat dress to match. Both pieces are trimmed all around in white rick-rack braid. The suit is a darling, and incidentally, only $2.98.

A TWO-TONE JOB

A new sport coat is always a good idea, and looking at the ones in DeNeff's is a better one. They have some really spiffy ones in tweed, herringbone, suede. If you are the casual type you will like one in blue flannel, with sleeves and back in contrasting tweed.

FEMININE FUSS

Springtime, Adoration, Desire, Persuasion in cream sachet. Wear it as you would perfume. The pretty blue containers, and sachet are only $1.00 at Miller's.

COTTON COMPLEX

Take it from me, you'll like the St. Mason "authentically Californian" dress with the blue and white stripes. Sleeves, midriff, yolk, and inserts in the gathered skirt are made of the striped material, and the rest of the dress is a sky blue—at Beard's.

"—but mother—all he does is sit there and smoke his Sir Walter Raleigh!"

Blended from choice Kentucky burleys, Sir Walter Raleigh is extra mild—burns cool—with a delightful aroma all its own. Try the quality pipe tobacco of America.
