Hacks Face 61 Offenders

Traditional "hacking" on the steps of Fenton hall this noon will face 61 offenders against Junior Weekend traditions, Merritt Kufferman, Order of the O presiant, revealed Wednesday.

For failure to wear rooters' caps or frosh pants, and for walking on campus lawns, students will receive one hack apiece, starting at 12:30 today. All "sinners" failing to appear will receive double punishment Friday plus "something special" prepared by Order of O members.

Offenders asked to report this noon are: Rod Dilling, Aaron Jones, Ted McMuran, Glen Kennedy, Bill Lindley, Jim Ronson, Oge Young, Don Treadgold, Bill Macy, Mart MacPherson, Bob Santee, K. S. Wood, Jim Thayer, Ted Bush, Russ Sabin, James Mc-Callum, Les Anderson, James Peterson, Don Haptberg, Linton Elwell, Blain Vincent, Olaf Sola, Mark Chapman, Leighton Platt, Pat Cloud, Jim Mann, Dick Humphreys, Bruce Boyd, Jim Hardy, Jack Hannam, Kim Mc-Kim, John Emerson, Don Fox, Bill Loud, Ray Leonard, George Chechester, Keith McGillway, Bunny Potts, Curtis Spangler, Doug Donahu, Doc Yocum, Baldy MacKevit, Roger Tetlow, Roy Carlson, Bob Simpson, Jim Ricksecker, Cal Lehman, Jeff Kitchen, Dick Shultz, Dwain Wiedkin, Maurice Drenkle, Norman Mannheimer, Bud Putnam, Tom Bomgardner, Bill arrell, Russ Hudson, Lee Ghormley, Frank Sardam, Bud Vandeneynde. Receivers of the double penalty for failure to report yesterday will be Al Larsen and Ted Loud. All students included in this list are asked to appear for hacking not later than 12:30 today.

Lower and upper classmen wishing to participate in the "tug-cf-war" scheeduled Saturday morning are being recruited today and Friday by Les Anderson, leader of upper classmen; and Ted Loud, lower classmen leader. Teams will consist of 35 men each.

Knox college and the Galesburg (III.) Cottage Hospital School of Nursing are jointly offering a five-year combined course leading to the degree of bachelor of science in nursing and the graduate nurse certificate.

Festivities will swing into high gear Friday when guests from all parts of the state come to attend Oregon's 16th annual Junior Weekend.

Rising Living Costs Result In Higher Faculty Salary

(Continued from page one) $200,000 in the operating level of Oregon institutions of higher education through non-replacement of staff members called to war work, reduction in staffs in departments having greatly reduced student loads, and reducing materials and supplies budgets in proportion to student enrollment.

New Members Leif S. Finseth, new member of the board, was appointed chairman of the grounds and capital outlays committee. Finseth was recently appointed by Governor Snell and replaces C. A. Brand. He is the mayor of Dallas and has been a member of the house of representatives. The board accepted gifts aggregating approximately $4,000 to the University for the museum of art library and student loan

Leaves of absence to enter military service were granted to Dr. Paul E. Anderson, associate professor of physical education; Dr. Paul B. Means, professor of religion; Wayne W. Massey, assistant professor of physical education; and Lloyd M. Faust, assistant professor of business administra-

Appointed

Dr. E. H. Moore, professor of sociology, was appointed to fill the vacancy as head of the department of sociology. He takes the position of Dr. Phillip A. Parsons who died recently.

Dr. W. E. Baird, acting dean of the University medical school in Portland, was appointed dean of the institution. He replaces Dr. R. B. Dillehunt, dean of the school since 1920. Dr. Dillehunt has resigned due to ill health and will now become dean emeritus on June 30, when his resignation becomes effective.

Caps, gowns and commencement announcements should be ordered at the Co-op at once. All orders must be in by next Friday, April 30th

Womani' World . . .

The Oregon campus is barren of males,

The buildings are empty of men, The life, so-called social, will hereafter be Made of parties exclusively hen. Uncle Sam has the power to call up the boys

And it seems that he wants to employ it,

So Oregon now is the women's own world,

And I hope that the women enjoy it.

ARE YOU CLICKING?

Is the girl friend keeping in line? Try pleasing her-and Mom-this weekend by looking extra special nice in a new white coat from DeNeffe's. You're sure to register 99.99% with the feminine world.

"IT'S THE WATER"

These fresh and cool spring dresses at Miller's are washable, tho they look like silk crepe. A clever casual is the white coin dotted skirt and the sharkskin blouse. The navy stitching matches the background of the skirt.

A LADY'S DREAM

Something new for the feminine fancies is the Pink Coral at Penney's. Wrisley's new line has beautiful sets of cologue and bath powder, or bath soap. Two bottles of this pink cologne, and a box of powder, come in an attractively designed box, just right for Mother on Her Day.

SOUTH AMERICAN WAY

Go South American native, with a bright colored shirt in the Latin mood. Long and short sleeves, in rayon shirts, with tropical plants and figures. Get in style for Junior Weekend . . . . at the Style Shop.

PROM PRETTY

Imported for the occasion. Embroidered dot-2 ted Swiss with a lace flounce on the skir! and around the low round neck line. You couldn't be prettier at the Prom than in this adorable dance dress - you can get it at Hadley's.

FRESH!!

Roses, cherries, apples on a pale green background that is absolutely yummy. In fact, good enough to eat! These Freshy Playclothes are really tops-at Russell's. The skirt is sheered in front, with pockets. Both the skirt and shorts bottom down the side. The top is a shirt waist.

FLOWER CADDY

A fragrance to suit every whim. Lucien Lelong's Flower Caddy is suggestive of memories—of the days before Mother used blended fragrances in perfume. Petunia, White' Lilac, Mignonette, Honeysuckle, in a clever gift box-at Tiffany Davis.

TROTTERS

Nylon fleece—"The Enchanting Fabric," in new trotter length coats. A modern creation, a product of science. Truly a fabric of today, in today's style: the new short length for spring. At Beard's they have gobs of them . . . in beautiful colors.

SLACK SEASON

Times ain't what they used to be, with all the men gone, but slacks are better than ever. Peasant embroidery decorates the jumper - slacks at the Broadway. Green, blue, rust, brown, navy—and $5.95.
