

Tracksters Dump Washington

Allen Gains Double Win

By GEORGE SKORNEY

There were broad grins on the faces of Colonel Bill Hayward's trackmen Sunday when they returned from their invasion of Seattle track circles with a 68-63 victory over the favored Washington Huskies tucked under their belts.

Led by Don Wilson, Browning "M'Ghandi" Allen, and Chuck Beckner the Webfoots edged out the Huskies by one step to win their first dual meet of the season.

Beckner Edges Swanzey

Up to the mile relay the schools were running neck and neck with 53 points apiece. The first two Washington runners, Gerald Bell and Evert Pittman, freshmen 440-men gave the Huskies a ten-yard lead. Selwin Wisdom gained back five yards over Dick Clinton, another of "Hec" Edmundson's trio of quarter-milers. Then up came Beckner running anchor for the Ducks. "Beck" clung to the heels of Captain Gene Swanzey, Northern Division champion half-miler, and pulled out in front of him in the last 50 yards to win by a step and add the necessary five points to the 63 already obtained.

Swanzey stepped off a fast 880-yard run to win over his teammate Dodge in 1:55.3. Clinton lost the quarter-mile to the redhot Beckner by one yard and the time of :50.3.

Allen Double Winner

"M'Ghandi" Allen was a double winner in both the dashes winning the century in :10.1, fast time for this early in the season. He breasted the tape in the 220 in :22.8. "Baggy-britches" Wilson also pulled a double by copping his specialty, the mile in 4:31.6 far from the 4:19.2 he ran last season. In the two-mile, Don finished in 10:07.5 ahead of Brinkly of Washington, who placed second.

Oregon, who lost to Washington last year 85-46, took nine of the first places to six for the Huskies.

Hurdlers Disqualified

The Ducks, underdog in the first few events, lost hope at the climax of the meet when Ralph Kramer and Ray Dickson, favored to win the low and high hurdles, were disqualified in the high sticks when they both broke the gun twice. With the two Ducks eliminated, Jack Barron eased through to win with Bob Simpson of Oregon, the third hurdler, finishing second.

Short summary of events:

- Mile run—Won by Wilson (0); second Enger (W). Time, 4:31.6.

Lloyd Covers Girls' Fashions, Softball

By PHYLLIS LLOYD

Kappa Alpha Theta came out victorious yesterday afternoon after a close battle with the Alpha Chi O's. The final score was 12-8.

It was one of the most colorful games in respect to the costumes worn on the field. The brightest and gayest colors were displayed by the girls of both houses. Elaine Wilson, an Alpha Chi O lass, wore an immense red and green plaid shirt, and besides

The annual picnic for all PE majors, sponsored by the Physical Education club, will be held Wednesday, May 5.

The excursion is to leave from the steps of Gerlinger at 3 p.m.

Cascades Win

The Cascade hockey team clashed its way down the field to a 9-2 victory Saturday morning. The mud was slung for an hour and a half as the teams battled for scores on the slippery field.

The Cascade all-star center, Bev Goetz, worked some beautiful forward line plays with Janet Woodruff, the speediest of speedy inners, and the right wing flash, Marianne Blenkinsop. Of course, it was known before the starting whistle blew which team would take the lead. Hockey is a sure cinch for the Cascade team when the opposing team is the Evergreens.

But when it comes to basketball . . . last winter the former team took a terrific beating from the Evergreens. Confidence has overcome the team once more on winning in hockey and a hundred challenge has come up for a game of softball. Although the two groups were formed as hockey clubs, one is apt to get out of condition between seasons and therefore a seasonal sport is taken up. To mention the score once more, 9-2, in favor of the Cascades.

having the most outstanding costume, Elaine was also a hard hitter. Her run was the first score to be chalked up for the losing team. McCandless of the same house helped the team out by sprinting like a track star to beat the baseman by fractions of a second.

Martha Hock, pitcher for the Thetas kept the hits down to a minimum. The team has been practicing regularly enough as can be seen from the ease and the efficiency in handling the ball.

There are still a lot of errors made by all the teams. If the errors of the fielders wished to be ignored, there have been about six home runs or six scores made by various teams on errors of the fielders.

An equally as close game was that of AOPis vs. Susan Campbell hall. At the end of the fifth inning the score book read 11 to 7 in favor of the hall ten.

This softball season is drawing to a close and it is advised that the WAA softball managers of each house check up on the games and practices of each girl. To be eligible for membership the girl must have attended at least four practices and played in all games. It is the duty of managers of the sports to turn in the list of girls completing the requirements to Josie Reginato, manager of WAA softball. Her address is 1213 Hilyard or in care of the cage at Gerlinger.

STILL WITH THE GIANTS . . .

. . . Carl Hubbell and Bill Terry, who have been the mainstays of the New York Giant club for so many years, are back in there this season as pitcher and general manager respectively.

Fiji's, Canard Nab Intramural Tilts

By BILL DYER

Marked by a series of forfeits and unplayed games, the intramural softball schedule limped by yesterday as only two of six tilts were played. Phi Gamma Delta eased over Omega Gamma hall by a 3 to 0 score and Canard club rapped Alpha Sigma hall for a 7 to 3 triumph.

Sigma Phi Epsilon was handed a game by Kirkwood and advanced them further with an unbeaten streak as Pi Kappa Alfeited contest from Phi Psi, and Kappa Sigma continued its unbeaten streak as Phi Kappa Alpha failed to appear. The Beta, Phi Psi tiff was cancelled entirely as both squads failed to make the field in time for the game.

Forquet Stingy

Paul Forquet was in rare form yesterday as he let down the Omega Gamma club with four hits and no runs. Flashing a brilliant brand of elbowing he had the hall boys constantly eating out of his pitching hand. The Fiji batters got to Rossun the opposing chucker for a total of 12 hits but managed to squeeze over only three runs as Rossun was tight in the pinches.

Intramural Softball Schedule Tuesday, May 4

- 4 o'clock
- Field 1 Alpha Sigma hall vs. ATO
- 2 Chi Psi vs. Beta Theta Pi
- 3 Phi Gamma Delta vs. Phi Delta Theta
- 5 o'clock
- Field 1 Sigma Nu vs. Theta Chi
- 2 Delta Upsilon vs. Sigma Alpha Mu.
- 3 Sherry Ross vs. Canard club scored two of the three total. Pupke, Voderberg, Ferrall, Folquet and Clark got to Rossun for some timely bingles and pushed across enough runs to win the game. Folquet managed the final tally in the sixth frame, and his scoring romp ended the run making for the day. Clark with three hits lead the batting parade for the winners closely followed by Pupke, Voderberg, and Folquet with two apiece. Olson was the big gun in the losers attack, rapping out two hits and followed by Roper, George, and Foster.
