

Air Alert

By WILMA FOSTER

Sunday is Mother's day and although the networks usually turn up with a large number of radio shows honoring mothers only one program appeared in this week's news releases.

John Charles Thomas will present a salute to Mother's day during the Westinghouse broadcast Sunday, May 9. His songs include "Little Mother of Mine," "Homing," "Home on the Rangs."

Two of Kay Kyser's former bandsmen, Eddie Shea, drummer, and Tommy Jones, trumpet, received a visit from Kyser and his troupe when they presented the May 5 broadcast from Gardener Field, Taft, California.

A wounded marine's fiancee wrote Ginny Simms asking that she put him on the show to call his mother. The girl herself wanted to talk to him but did not ask it.

She was rewarded, however, because the call on the air went to her while his mother had a private call. In addition they received a hope chest.

Also on the romantic side a contestant on the Truth or Consequences show is a bride just because she fished a question. The consequence was to marry her fiance immediately with the program paying the bills. Furlough troubles had delayed the marriage until the program arranged things.

Officers of a destroyer asked to see Red Skelton play his three radio parts of Junior, Clem, and Deadeye. The request was granted.

ed and the officers and their wives were guests on the May 4 show.

Werner Janssen, conductor of the "Standard Hour," considers that Americans have grown a great deal spiritually since the last war because we no longer ban the music of our enemies.

Friday selections for the 10:30 p.m. program, "Curtis at the Console," are "Green Eyes," "All the Things You Are," "Always in My Heart," "Moon and Sand," and "African Lament."

Bing Crosby is remaining in Mexico for another three weeks, returning to "Kraft Music Hall" for the broadcast of May 27.

Sherlock Holmes featured to the air over KALE last Wednesday at 8:30. A good show with its old cast of Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce.

"Timber," the new KOIN public service program, made its debut last Wednesday with an entertaining informative lineup. Its purpose is to bring entertainment and information of vital interest to loggers and lumbermen. Representatives of government agencies appear each week.

Sunday, May 23, the address of Henry J. Kaiser to the graduating class of Washington State college will be broadcast over NBC at 3:30 p.m.

Fred Waring's Victory Tunes for next week are selected by the WAVES at Cedar Falls, Iowa, the Quonset Point, Rhode Island naval air station, the General hospital, Camp Carson, California, the Army Air Force Technical school, Madison, Wisconsin, and the Ordnance Regiment, San Jose, California.

Chartists are also needed to make out the company's graphs, which show how much of their earnings go into taxes, payrolls and investments.

Public relations work and financial advertising jobs are open to the girls who can write.

Girls who decide on any one of these industries will find them all fascinating as finance reflects every social and political development.

"'Tis a pity that this impotent Alpha Delta Sigma group of youngsters must be faced with certain annihilation," Warren C. said with genuine feeling in his voice, and added after a slight hesitation, ". . . they seemed like such nice fellows, too."

SDX Czar Price has such a bevy of hurling beauties on hand that he just doesn't know which one to name as his starter. Rumors were flitting all over the campus, via phone and telegram, as to who would leave the apple for the writing fraternity—a "chore" which looms in the simplicity bracket of "taking candy away from a baby."

Plainly the Alpha Delta Sigs were worried no end. They tried to contract J. Bubalo, B. Hamel, and various other Hobson clouters, for the tilt with negative results.

It was a losing cause, and W. F. Goodwin Thacher, ADS high-llama, seemed to sense the trend. Many advertising majors wished they could have switched the majors to journalism at the last minute.

An ADS collapse appears inevitable.

Supporting the staunch, solid cause of the stoic SDX group is the following array of swatting talent, all of which, mind you, will be displayed on ONE field at ONE time, for free;

Russell "Rusty" Hudson, hard-hammering red-head who recently brushed aside a N. Y. Yank offer for one tendered by Unc Sam; "Texas" Goodwin, ball-bashing beauty; Roy Paul "Paint Brush" Nelson, spheroid-slugging smoothie, and Stanley Weber, Frederick Carrick Beckwith, Mark "Register-Guard" Howard, Charles Politz, Fred Kuhl, Joseph Spencer Miller, Keith Jandrall, Leland Flatberg, Lynn Johnson, Fred Treadgold, and Ralph Kramer.
