

News Mice Dine Tonight

"Shack rats" who have been steady Emerald editorial or business staff workers will get together tonight for their big social event of the year, The Emerald banquet, to be held at the Eugene hotel at 6:30 p.m.

Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, will be toastmaster of the affair. One of the special features of the evening is the presentation of the Turnbull-Hall plaque to the most outstanding senior in journalism. The plaque will be awarded by George Turnbull, professor of journalism.

Certificates of achievement, indicating one year of continuous service, and Emerald "O" pins, for two years of regular service, will also be awarded to Emerald staff members.

Short silks are in order for women and sport jackets and ties for men, announced Marjorie Young, managing editor of The Emerald.

Special "non-student" guests invited to the banquet are as follows: Dean Allen, Mr. Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thatcher, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Short, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Price, Miss Aileen Guy, Dick Williams, Helen Angell, and Hal Olney.

NYA Pay Period Ends

May 15 is the closing date of the present NYA pay period. For extra time cards NYA workers can call at the office of Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel.

Seniors Get Tickets

Graduating seniors may obtain tickets for reserved seats at commencement and baccalaureate ceremonies along with instructions for these services at the Alumni office in Friendly hall from Wednesday, May 26 to Saturday, May 29, according to an announcement Tuesday from the Alumni office.

The bulletin also stated that seniors in caps and gowns will be admitted free of charge to the University luncheon at 12 Saturday, May 29, in John Straub hall.

Red Cross Goal May Fall Short

Alpha Phi, Susan Campbell hall, Alpha and Gamma halls, Alpha Xi Delta, and Alpha Chi Omega are scheduled to work at the campus Red Cross centers on Wednesday. Thursday should see Hilyard house, Sigma Kappa, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Kappa Alpha Theta.

"We're going to fall short of our goal of 8,000 bandages this month," said Carolyn Holmes, campus Red Cross chairman, "unless the girls remember their responsibility and desert their studying enough to come and help."

Wednesday, May 19, will see the surgical dressing center open for the last time this year, announced Miki McCandless, executive secretary.

Lady Marines Want Recruits

Applicants for the women's reserve of the U.S. marine corps will be personally interviewed in the marine recruiting office, 841 Willamette street, on Monday, May 17, according to an announcement by Sergeant L. L. Pitinger of the recruiting office.

Prospective "marinettes" will be interviewed by a procurement board of three members, Major Lloyd B. Dysart, Lt. Hope Brannum, and Sergeant Woodrow Wiley. The board will see all applicants from 9 a.m. to 5 Monday evening. Appointment should be made before interviews, if possible, by calling 1645 before Monday.

The board will also interview any men qualified to enter the corps, Sergeant Pitinger said. Especially urged to apply are radio engineers and technicians of all kinds who are interested in enlistment or commission.

THE "T-ZONE"
—where cigarettes are judged

The "T-ZONE"—Taste and Throat—is the proving ground for cigarettes. Only your taste and throat can decide which cigarette tastes best to you... and how it affects your throat. For your taste and throat are absolutely individual to you. Based on the experience of millions of smokers, we believe Camels will suit your "T-ZONE" to a "T."
