

Oregon Seeks Dual Title As OSC Trackmen Arrive

GRAND OLE MAN . . .

. . . of Oregon track and field fame, Colonel Bill Hayward squares off with Oregon State at Hayward Stadium this afternoon in thrill-packed dual meet.

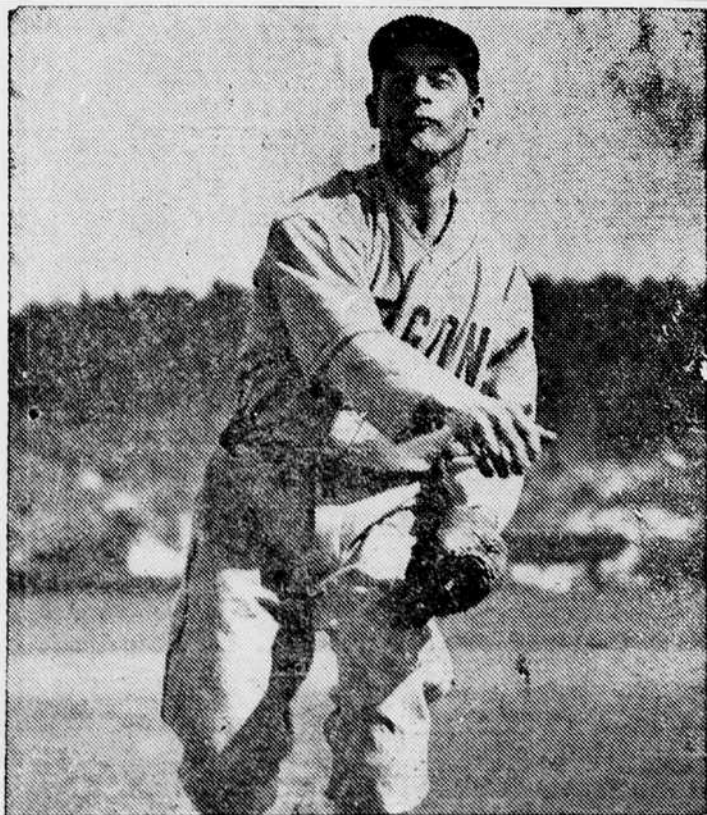

HONEST JAWN . . .

. . . Head coach of the pigskin art, and prominent fized conditioner, Mr. Warren has turned in his usually competent job this year. (See Duck Tracks for review.)

SLUGGING CAPTAIN . . .

. . . John Bubalo will lead his team-mates against the Corvallis enemy today in the first of a two-game series that will spell championship for either club.

FLIPPING HERO . . .

. . . of the Ducks is Nick Begleries, senior right hander, who may get the call today against the Beavers.

Hayward's 41st Thinclad Unit Faces Acid Test in 'Thriller'

By GEORGE SKORNEY

Upon the result of this simple statement rests the hopes of Colonel Bill Hayward and his reportedly "green Webfoots," who have at arm's length the northern division Pacific Coast conference dual meet championship.

In the 36th annual meeting between the two schools, the Beavers under Grant (Doc) Swann are favored to take their second decision in ten years and their 13th in the long rivalry between the two schools.

Duck meets Beaver here today on Hayward field at 1:30.

The Staters have beaten Coach Hayward's lads, 6-2 in the annual Oregon State relays at Corvallis at the beginning of the season.

Troubles Galore

Colonel Bill has his share of moans as well as his rival Swann. Don Wilson the flashy miler will probably not run for the Ducks. The black-haired Wilson has been ailing of late and his performances have not been up to par.

Ray Dickson, double winner against the Cougars, went into the marines last Sunday and is sorely missed. He ran both the low and high hurdles, broad jump and pole vaulted.

Another sad note is that Chuck Beckner, versatile quarter-miler, is also uncertain of running since he has come up with a cold like Wilson. Beckner is the anchor man on the mile relay team and runs number one in the 440. His best time of the season has been :50.3.

Shifts

Coach Hayward has had to take his high jump men and enter them in the javelin. Blond Bob Mueller will not only pole vault but will run the 220-yard low hurdles for the first time. Ralph Kramer is entered in the 100-yard dash. All in all his usual runners have been shifted to spots entirely foreign to them in order that he might best fill up his holes and prepare the best front he knows how.

According to reports that have filtered out of the Beaver's track office, Coach Swann will be forced to leave behind, because of army regulations, four sure point winners. They are: Captain Don Findley, broad jump and high jump; Len Moyer, quarter-miler and relay; Bill Waterman, mile; and Al Flake, two mile.

Besides these boys, the OSC mentor will travel without the services of Bob Graf, high jumper; Jesse Truax, sprinter; Dean Olson and Don Malmberg, javelin men; Boyd Clement, discus; and Lew Beck, broad jumper.

Crack Timber Toppers

The Beavers will have three ace hurdlers in Fred Winter, Jim Findlay, and Bob Phelps, while Hayward has but one topnotcher.

In the weights Bob Reiman and Bob Stevens have the edge over Chuck Elliott and Fred Foster of Oregon. Reiman in previous performances has proven better than Don Campbell in the discus.

The show that Jim Porter gave against the Cougars pleased the Webfoot mentor no end. Porter threw the javelin 183 feet which was 17 feet better than he had ever thrown before. Beaver John Kilguck is a shade better than the stocky Porter.

A feature event will be the pole vault. Jack Dudley and Fred Winter of Oregon State have gone 13 feet. Winter, who hails from a California junior college is listed as having gone 13 feet 9 inches down there.

Thomas Shines

Captain Homer Thomas has vaulted 13 feet 6 inches against Washington and WSC. Eston Way cleared the 13 foot mark for the first time last Saturday. Bob Mueller is the other entrant.

Another feature event is the mile relay. Coach Swann has three very strong 440-men in Bill Shinn, Stu Norene, and Art Hobart. Against Washington the Webfoots ran the fast race in 3:27.6.

The Ducks are favored to win only four events—the 100 and 220-yard dashes, the pole vault, and the high jump. The quarter-mile and the relay are a tossup. Oregon State figures to win both hurdles, the 880, mile, two mile, and broad jump. They hold slight edge in the shot, javelin and discus.

Best Effort

Colonel Bill remarked that he has done his best with the green material that he had. He added that the rest is now up to the boys themselves.

Although he didn't quite call the Beaver report that they would be forced to leave behind their best men a "bear story," he did say that he would expect Coach Swann to have these men along with him when he checks in at Hayward field.

Mrs. Alexander Thomson, Sr., recently was elected president of Western college, Oxford, Ohio.
