

Murder Arranged for VLT Presentation Tonight

Something different among stage presentations is promised those who see "A Murder Has Been Arranged," three-act thriller which will play Wednesday through Saturday, October 13-16, at the Very Little Theater, Thirteenth and Monroe.

The play is set on the deserted set of an old London theater, one evening just a week after a man has been murdered there. An English lord (Horace W. Robinson), who is an authority in black magic, takes his family and staff behind the footlights so that he can test the powers of his occult faculties. If he lives until 11 p.m., he will inherit 50,000 pounds. His smooth cousin objects, and a "murder is arranged."

Sol Cornberg of the Cleveland Play House, who is directing, has assembled a notable cast of local theatrical favorites, including Mrs. L. K. Shumaker, Edwin Mickel, Kenneth Griffith, Roberta Quigley, Dorothy Parks, George Northam, Keena Hunter, and Mary Staton Krenk.

Curtain will be at 8:15 each night. Reservations may be made by telephoning 551-J or at the Willamette street market.

Volleyball Season Set

Volleyball is in season again! And it's time to begin practice if there's going to be some stiff competition. The indoor and outdoor courts will be open for practice every evening from 4 to 6 o'clock until October 22. With a possible 27 houses in the tournament, the competition should be high.

Teams may reserve a practice court by signing on the reservation chart posted on the bulletin board in Gerlinger. The gyms will be open as follows: Indoor gym: 4 o'clock on Tuesday and Thursday, 5 o'clock every day. Outdoor gym: 4 o'clock to 6 o'clock every day.

Evelyn Marshall, newly appointed head of volleyball, announces, "All entry blanks must be filled out and returned to Miss Petroskey's office in Gerlinger by 5 p.m. Friday, October 15." Teams failing to do this will not be scheduled to play in the tournament which begins October 25.

Chairs Needed By Red Cross

Chairs, 50 or more, are needed urgently by the campus Red Cross, Carol Wicke, head of the Red Cross committee of the war board, said Tuesday. Although the committee has a building, the one next to the "Side," it has no chairs and rolling bandages and making surgical dressings cannot start until chairs are provided.

Anyone who has a chair to contribute should take it down to the Red Cross room Saturday morning.

Miss Wicke announced that if enough chairs are received Saturday, the Red Cross will be open Monday.

Tobacco Company to Open Ad Campaign

Emphasizing the basic idea that "They Satisfy" is not a slogan but a fact, Liggett and Myers tobacco company opens its fall campaign for Chesterfield newspaper advertising in daily papers on October 11.

For many years the phrase has been almost synonymous for Chesterfield, because it sums up tersely what the company has always aimed to do—namely, to give the last word in smoking pleasure.
