Armyducks Dunked 25-6 By Victorious Navy Eleven

Displaying remarkable ability for turning intercepted passes into touchdowns, the Willamette university Navycats swam over the ASTU Ducks for a 25-6 victory Saturday at Hayward field, but not before Coach John Warren's soldiers had proven that they were well underrated on pre-game dope sheets.

Despite the heavy tally in Willamette's favor, the ASTU team looked good, boasting a strong line which gave passers plenty of time to fade back, and kept out rushes on punting plays.

But even when the passers had plenty of time they just couldn't throw them straight or they couldn't find receivers. Three of the four navy tallies came from interceptions. Without those interceptions, mostly the fault of all-around weakness in the aerial division, army might have tied or even won the game.

ASTUs Rugged

On the other hand, the ASTU line looked rugged enough to stop anything the Navycats could offer, which the dope sheets said was plenty, but which proved to be spread a little too thin for a good defense.

During most of the first quarter the ASTU team looked too good to be true, but near the end of the period the tide changed

Nurses' Aid Students Start Course Tonight

The Red Cross nurses' aid class will hold its first session tonight at 7 p.m. at the infirmary. New rooms have been completed in the basement of the infirmary, and the class will meet there.

All girls enrolled in the nurses' aid course who have not had physical examinations should contact the infirmary today, as this is the final day they will be given. All who signed up for the class are asked to be present at the first session tonight.

Refresher Course Set for Red Cross

A refresher course for all campus Red Cross instructors will be held Tuesday from 3 to 6 p.m. in the campus Red Cross building, Carol Wicke, in charge of campus Red Cross, announced Monday.

"All girls who have been instructors and wish to continue doing so this year must attend the class," said Miss Wicke.

Mrs. Jackson, of the Eugene Red Cross, will be the instructor.

White uniforms and white organdy veils will be worn during the class.

Capt. Gerald Johnson, Former UO Student, Bags Eight Jap Planes

Saturday's big air battle in the south Pacific in which Lt.-General George C. Kenney's fliers shot down 104 Jap planes from the skies was a day of victory—for both the United States and Captain Gerald Johnson, former University of Oregon student.

During the battle Captain Johnson shot down two enemy dive-bombers and a fighter. This score, added to his previous total of five Jap planes, gives him a record of eight planes which the Japs will never use again.

Last week the flier was awarded the distinguished flying cross for his air exploits.

War Board Will Outline Fall Salvage Program At Wednesday Confab

Salvage committee representatives of the campus war board will meet Wednesday at 4 p.m. in the College Side inn, Bibbits Strong, co-chairman of the committee, announced Monday. Houses that have not appointed representatives should do so as soon as possible, Miss Strong said.

Representatives who will serve as contacts for the war board are: Alpha Chi Omega, Elaine Wilson; Chi Omega, June Johnson; Delta Delta Delta, Dorothy Boiler; Delta Gamma, Mary Sherman; Gamma Phi Beta, Joan Patterson; Kappa Alpha Theta, Nancy Sullivan; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Marian Johnston; Pi Beta Phi, Marian Schaefer; Alpha Delta Pi, Rose Anne Leckie; Alpha Xi Delta, Betty Ann White; Sigma Kappa, Bernice Granquist.

Hefties To Give Blood

Donations for the blood bank will be handled according to the various living organizations, Beverly Padgham, chairman of the blood bank committee of the campus war board, said Monday. This year under the auspices of Mortar Board, senior women's service honorary, the houses will be divided into groups of from four to five houses headed by a member of Mortar Board.

Only girls who weigh 135 pounds or over are allowed to donate blood, Miss Padgham said. This rule was made because those weighing under 135 pounds can only give a half pint and the Eugene facilities are made for handling pints only.

The first group which has been assigned October 16 to November 16 includes Kappa Alpha Theta, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Chi Omega, and Hilyard house. Sue Sawyer heads this group.

Last year only boys donated their blood, but this year it is up to the girls, Miss Padgham stated.

Donations are made in Dr. E. D. Furrer's office.

More Contacts
Highland house, Doris Craig; Hilyard house, Phyllis Lloyd; University house, Jean Glenn; Lombardy lodge, Dolores Ashkar; Alderlodge, Marilyn Johnson; Hillcrest lodge, Molly Brown; Birch lodge, Yvonne Smith; Mill lodge, Pat Sears; Hawthorne lodge, Pat Barlett and Barbara Brown; Casa Blanca lodge, Carolyn Whithycombe; Laurel lodge, Pat Chapman; Spencer hall, Tom Kinesley; Steiwer hall, Art Rice; Campbell club, Kenneth Lode-wick.

If a representative is not able to attend the meeting a substitute should be sent.

Onthank to Attend Tea

Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel, will be in Portland Friday to attend the Portland Mothers' club tea and Saturday for the State Executive Committee meeting. Hazel P. Schwering, dean of women, and Alice B. Macduff, assistant dean of women, will also attend the Mothers' tea.

AWS to Hear Julia Coburn, Stylist, Speak

Julia Coburn, co-director and president of the Tobe-Coburn school for fashion careers in New York, will appear before an AWS assembly Wednesday afternoon at 4 p.m.

The assembly is scheduled to take place in Guild hall of Johnson hall, Miss Coburn will tell of her work with one of the country's leading fashion schools, the Tobe-Coburn school, which is training women for fashion careers in designing, advertising, and salesmanship.

"All women students are invited whether they are interested directly in fashion or not," Marilyn Campbell, AWS president said.

The fashion authority is stopping on the campus while on a trip down the coast. While here Miss Coburn will be the guest of the local chapter of Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising honorary, of which she was the first honorary vice-president.

Members of Gamma Alpha Chi are sponsoring a dinner for Miss Coburn at the Anchorage on Wednesday evening at 5:30. All members are asked to be present, according to Elizabeth Edmunds, business manager of the Emerald. Members who have not been contacted yet should call Charline Pelley at the Alpha Chi Omega house.

Mixer Returns For Final Trial

By COURTNEY SWANDER

Another trial mixer will be held this week during the soldiers' free hour this Wednesday night, the co-ordinating committee revealed Monday night, when a meeting to evaluate last week's experiment was held. The committee found general approval of the new plan from soldiers who say the dances help break up the routine of the week. The civilian population of the campus also registered its approval of the affairs. Members of the committee considered improvements in the set-up which will make for its smoother operation in the future.

This week's mixer will be the final stage in the experiment. On its outcome will determine the probability of future mid-week dances. A reassignment of houses and soldier groupings will be announced Wednesday morning.

May Be Permanent

Before the mid-week dances can be made a part of the social calendar, the student activities committee will have to pass upon the plan. In the meantime plans for the mixers will be made and weak points in it corrected.

The student executive council received a permanent member representing the armed forces on the campus. Bud Pence, a pre-engineering student, was elected to fill the position.

The suggestion of a project to collect tennis rackets for the use of army students was turned over to the campus war board, which
