ISA Council to Meet Today; Year's Program On Docket

Independent student representatives will meet at 4 this afternoon in room 204 of the library to draw up plans for the year's activities, Doris Jones, ISA president, announced Wednesday. Coles Politz, ISA senate president, will preside, and the cabinet will be introduced.

ISA, organized to promote independent student interest in campus activities, is composed of all students living in dormitories, houses converted into dormitories, cooperatives, or those living off the campus.

Card File

A card file of all independent students, their interests and activities, is maintained in the ISA office. Last year, ISA, forming a coalition with some of the Greek houses, won the student body election.

Greek Men Postpone Rush Date

The fraternity rushing problem was laid on the table again at a meeting of fraternity members on the campus Wednesday afternoon. It was decided that there were not enough fraternity men on the campus to justify making a decision on rushing, Virgil D. Earl, dean of men, said. The matter was put off until other members of fraternities on the campus can be contacted and the ROTC members return.

Representatives who attended the meeting were: Jim Lund, Alpha Tau Omega; Frank Jacobson, Beta Theta Pi; Robert Schott, Delta Upsilon; Harry Gester, Kappa Sigma; Harry A. Skerry Jr., Phi Kappa Psi; Bill Jackson, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Bob Smith, Sigma Chi; and William J. Hales, Sigma Nu.

Air Corps Men Tell Hop Plans

Members of the AAFTTC are giving a dance Saturday night at the Hendricks hall barracks, Cy Bernstein, in charge of arrangements, said Wednesday. Refreshments will be served and intermission entertainment is being planned. About 200 air corps men and their dates are expected to , attend, Bernstein said. Phonograph records will furnish the music.

Chaperons will be: Captain and Mrs. C. D. Cable, Lieutenant and Mrs. M. G. Punches, Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Dedrick, and Dean and Mrs. Virgil D. Earl.

Pete Pride is in charge of decorations and entertainment.

Weekly Tea Set For Today at YW

Stamp Selling Begins Friday

Beginnings of the fall term war bond and stamp campaign will make an appearance at campus living organizations Friday night at dinner, according to Beverly Padgham, head of the drive.

In a new campus war game, one winner in each house will be presented with a book of war stamps, Miss Padgham said.

Details of the plan will be explained to house treasurers at a meeting today.

Only Trial

She emphasized that the idea will be only a trial Friday night, and if proven successful will be continued throughout the school year.

"Last year Oregon was rated one of the top schools in the country in bond sales, and we're trying to reach another high quota this year," Miss Padgham explained. She added that since this is the beginning of the bond and stamp drive for the year, it is important that it be a success from the start.

$60 Goal

If all the houses supported the plan, almost $60 a week in war stamps would be netted, the chairman said.

Stamps are on sale at the Co-op, and plans are also being made to install a Victory booth there.

The treasurers from all civilion living organizations will have charge of the campaign in their respective houses. They will meet today at 4:30 in the YWCA hut for other details of the drive, Miss Padgham announced.

WAA Members Vote For Two Officers

WAA elections for the office of president and treasurer will be held Friday in the Co-op between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. All members of WAA are eligible to vote.

Names on the ballot will be Beverly Goetz, senior in phy-

WAVE Alum Leaves For Officer Training

Eleanor Stevenson, '35, left for Portland October 17 for officers training in the WAVES. She will join other trainees at Smith college in Missouri.

While a student in the University, Miss Stevenson served as president of Delta Delta Delta, women's sorority. She graduated among the Senior Six, and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary.

She worked on the campus for several years after graduation as secretary to Dean Onthank. She later took a position at Boeing aircraft in Seattle in the department of flight research and aerodynamics.

training.

Because the salvage committee hasn't been able to secure a truck or a place for storage, the scrap drive scheduled for this Friday has been called off, Marge Curtis, co-chairman of the salvage committee, said Wednesday.

If a truck can be secured and a place of storage found before next Friday, the drive will be held then.

Last year a garage behind the Sigma Alpha Mu house was used in storing the salvage and Miss Curtis stated that the committee might be able to use this garage again.

A truck owned by the University depot and one donated by the Lane county war board were used last year but neither of these are available this year. "Anyone who knows where we can get a truck should get in touch with me immediately," Miss Curtis said

Members of Sigma Kappa and Birch lodge will be guests at the weekly YWCA tea to be held at o'clock this afternoon in the YWCA bungalow. Mrs. Ruby Marks and Mrs. Elsie Miller. housemothers of the two organizations, will pour. Ruth Van Buskirk will sing. Virginia Beattie is in charge of the entertainment.

House representatives will be served a "get-acquainted" cup of coffee at the bungalow from 6:45 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. today. Joan Dolph, membership chairman, will talk over membership and activities with the girls. They may come and leave at anytime, Miss Dolph stated, and they will have the opportunity to meet their fellow workers.

Anne Craven Named To Emerald News Post

Anne Craven, junior in journalism, has been appointed acting news editor of the Emerald, Marjorie Major, editor, announced Wednesday.

The appointment is subject to approval by the educational activities board. Miss Craven, former assistant managing editor, will replace June Taylor who did knot return to school this year.

Julia Coburn, Fashion Designer, Boosts Liberal Arts Background

-W.R.L.

Girls planning to enter the field of fashion should prepare themselves with a good background of liberal arts courses, Julia Coburn, co-director of the Tobe-Coburn school for fashion careers, advised women students at an AWS assembly Wednesday in Guild hall.

Miss Coburn recommended the business angle of fashion work including promotion, advertising, salesmanship, and retailing because the average girl considers fashion as a creative work beginning either in July or industry and is often disappointeđ.

Pay Is Small

The various divisions of the business side are not highly paid at first but offer almost unlimited salaries to the girls who have imagination and are willing to work. She characterized it as a glamourous and hard job. She suggested that girls interested in fashion career begin plana ning in their freshman year if possible.

The Tobe-Coburn school offers

September. Those entering in July attend classes until September when they begin work in the stores. If they start in September they begin actual store work in November. While working they write out one assignment a week and attend a weekly discussion period.

Courses are offered in sales, fabrics, retailing, advertising, fashion trends, and fashion history. Cost for the year runs from $2000-$2500. On their jobs the girls earn about $500.
