

Cast Announced For 'Frying Pan'

Following the final tryouts yesterday evening, Horace W. Robinson, assistant professor of speech and dramatic arts, announced the cast for the play, "Out of the Frying Pan," as follows:

Sue Welch, Marge; Dorothy Weygant, Kate; Jean McClanathan, Muriel; Pat McCormick, Dottie; Dorothy Rosenberg, Mrs. Garnett; Bob Forman, Tony; Gordon Halstead, George; Bob Hull, Norman; and Jack Blasingame, Mr. Kenny.

The play, which has been filmed under the title of "Young and Willing," is the story of six stagestruck teenagers who rent an apartment above the producer whom they are anxious to impress. It is expected to play army camps as well as campus performances.

Kathrine Korn, who will assist Mr. Robinson in directing, has played in Very Little Theater productions and has been active in campus dramatics.

Dorothy Weygant, playing Kate, was seen in the spring term play, "My Sister Eileen."

The parts of Mr. Corburn and the two policemen, Mac and Joe, have not yet been cast.

Ex-Student

"We were to get liberty at 2 p.m. on Saturday but were called out at 11 a.m. to fight fire. We were put to work cutting a fire trail through a canyon, the worst place they could have put us when the fire broke out below. The cliffs were sheer above and below us.

"The order came to 'hit the dirt,' and I crawled into a small hole in the brush. It got so hot that everyone was burning and several were 'raving.' I dumped my canteen of water on my helmet and jacket and poured sand in my hair to keep it from burning.

"Another fellow was on top of me and was burning badly. I kept throwing dirt on him, but learned later that he died in the hospital."

Burlingame also told how he found one of his buddies on fire and threw sand and dirt on him but too late. He was already dead. Of the 110 marines sent to fight the fire, 87 were seriously burned.

Quarterly Reviews Dr. Wright's Book

A review of Dr. Gordon Wright's recent book, "Raymond Poincare and the French Presidency," appears in the September issue of the Political Science Quarterly. It is written by Edward McChesney Sait of Pomona, California.

Dr. Wright, assistant professor of history, has studied in France and Europe, and is particularly interested in French history. Sait praises Dr. Wright's fairness in pronouncing or withholding judgment in Poincare's many bitter controversies and in pointing out that Poincare did love and serve France.

Sait summarized his review with the following: In most respects this is a satisfying book. Drawing upon a wide range of French materials, it clarifies many obscure incidents and exposes some reckless misstatements. The charge was made by Dr. Harry Elmer Barnes that Russian subsidies brought about the election of Poincare becomes grotesque in the light of factual analysis."

Hilyard Defeats Alpha Gam Squad

Hilyard house triumphed over Alpha Gamma Delta with a score of 43 to 13 in the first intramural volleyball game of the season. Hilyard's practices showed up in their smooth teamwork which wore down the Alpha Gamma Deltas to give the final lopsided score. Josephine Reginato and Joyce Mampler were the two outstanding "smoothies" of the Hilyard eight, while Margaret Hughes and Marie Medley were the most aggressive smashers on the defending team.

Delta Gamma and Hawthorne lodge agreed to postpone their scheduled tournament game until Wednesday evening. The AOPs and Thetas were also to have played Tuesday night but by mutual agreement their game was rescheduled for Wednesday night at five o'clock in the outdoor gym.

Teams scheduled to play tournament games Thursday evening at 5 o'clock are as follows: University No. 1 team vs. ADP; University No. 2 team vs. Pi Beta Phi; Hilyard vs. Alpha Chi Omega. WAR BOND QUIZ

Q. May I have a Bond reissued so as to include the name of a coowner?

A. Yes; if the Bond is registered in your name alone, and if an excess holding does not result. The reissued Bond will bear the same issue date as the original Bond.

Q. May a creditor obtain information as to a debtor's ownership of War Savings Bonds?

A. The Treasury gives no information about the holdings of any person in War Savings except to that person or to such persons as have clearly established a legal right to the information.

Q. What will the Government do with money I pay for my Bond?

A. Your money will be put to work at once to help the Nation's war program.

Q. When will I make my income-tax report on the increase in the value of a War Savings Bond?

A. You may do either. You may report the increase in value of a War Savings Bond on your income tax report each year that you hold the Bond, or, you may wait until you redeem the Bond and then include the increase (the amount received over and above the price you paid for the Bond) as income for that taxable year.

By Gib Crockett.

Remember—the longer you keep War Bonds, up to 10 years, the more valuable they become.
