

Candidates Due For ISA Posts

Nominations for vice-president and president of the senate were presented at a special meeting of the senate Friday. Candidates are Betty Jean Walker, Elaine Burnham, and Jack Cairns.

Candidates nominated for freshman representative on the executive council are Ted Peterson, Alice Buckingham, Norma Woodford, and Alan Hagland.

Further nominations may be made by petition signed by 25 independent students. They must be turned into the ISA offices in the south end of McArthur court by 5 p.m. tonight. Members of the cabinet who will also accept petitions are Betty McFadden, Esther Griffiths, and Doris Jones. Petitions must also state the position applied for.

Old students are expected to comply with University grade requirements.

Elections will be held Tuesday from 12:30 to 5:30 in the men's lounge at Gerlinger. All independents are eligible to vote, but they must bring identification with them.

A complete list of candidates will be published in Saturday's Emerald.

Former UO Student Missing in Hawaii

Bill Calvert, former Oregon varsity baseball player, is feared missing by his mother after receiving word from Honolulu that $1,000 in war bonds owned by her son were found in a trash can and that no trace of him could be found.

The last Mrs. Calvert heard from her son was a letter received two weeks ago. In this letter he told her he was going to enter the navy.

Calvert has been working in the Pearl Harbor navy yards since he left the University.

Durable Peace

In addition to his work with the Federal council, Dr. Van Kirk acted for three years as director of the National Peace conference which was set up by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace to coordinate the efforts of some 40 national organizations in the field of international relations.

Conducts Program

For the past eight years Dr. Van Kirk has conducted a weekly radio program entitled "Reeligion in the News," which is transmitted by short wave to many other nations. He is the National Broadcasting company's special commentator on events of religious significance and in this capacity has broadcast from Europe to the United States on many occasions.

The Federal Council Commission on World Order which is being represented by Dr. Van Kirk in his lecture to the University, proposes to set forth for discussion the factors involved for the achievement of a just and durable peace.

Stovall Speaks To History Group

The Natural History society of Eugene will hold its first meeting of the fall in the basement of Condon hall at 8 o'clock Friday evening, with J. C. Stovall, assistant professor of geology and geography as the speaker.

Professor Stovall's topic will be "Geography of Death Valley and the East Slope of the Sierras." He will illustrate his talk with slides made from his own color photographs of that picturesque region. All interested are invited.

The Natural History society, now two years old, has a joint membership of town and University people. Its aim is to enlist as members all those interested in animal and plant life, geology, geography or astronomy.

Regular meetings are held on the last Friday of each month. Originally it was planned to follow the lectures with field trips on the weekend, but transportation conditions have made this impracticable.

Miss Ruth Hopson, teacher in the Woodrow Wilson junior high school, is president of the organization.

Newman Club To Hold Hallowe'en Celebration

At a meeting Tuesday night the new coordinating committee of the Newman club, Catholic young people's organization, decided to have a Hallowe'en mixer Sunday night rather than the usual business and social meeting. The program will start at 7:30 in the YMCA.

Formation of the committee was announced by Marian Schaefer, one of the three civilian representatives on the committee. The other two are Patricia Elliott and Doris Loening.

Soldier members include: Fred J. Brandiger, company A, Bernard W. Buerger, company A; Frank Schwab, company C; Joe Plagens, company C, Shaun McDermott, company B, Phil Driscoll, company B, and Bob Rowse of the air corps flight B. Joe Plagens, foreign area and language student, was elected chairman at the meeting Sunday evening.

Joe Louis Interrupts

(Continued from page one) opposing teams have not as yet been named. These will be the last two games of the season for the squad.

Nine members, three first string, have been placed on the ineligibility list. This will be of some disadvantage to the team but there is still plenty of time for the very capable replacements to practice and get the timing with the rest of the team.

During the last few nights of practice the team has been showing great improvement in their timing which has been their biggest headache. Bee, who played for the first time last Sunday, is showing that he is a good ball player at end. He has had no previous experience but Coach Warren has high hopes of him in there. Dick Ashcom has been doing a great job with the fellows working with them every night. The team promises a very exciting game and has all hopes of emerging victorious again.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Soldiers are invited to listen to the radio symphony beginning at noon Sunday in alumni hall of Gerlinger hall. Orides have loaned their radio for this purpose.

All events set for Gerlinger hall must be scheduled in advance with Mrs. Edith Seifert, hostess in the building.

Hallowe'en has been selected as the theme of the Westminster open house Saturday night from 8 to 12. Features of the evening will be a scavenger hunt starting from Westminster house and the remainder of the evening will be spent in playing old fashioned games, program skits, and dancing.

Old clothes and slacks or overalls and shirts are in order for the fun.

A drama meeting for all students is being held at Westminster tonight at 9 p.m. Leading the group is Dorothy Weygant, Ruth of last spring's campus production, "My Sister Eileen." The group will do readings and short plays for use at open houses. Everyone is invited to attend.

The University of Virginia is appropriately observing the bicentennial of the birth of its founder—Thomas Jefferson.

Miss Alden Retires After 22 Years

After 22 years service at the University, Miss Florence D. Alden is retiring as head of the women's department of physical education. Prior to joining the Oregon faculty she had been with the Central School of Physical Education in New York.

When Miss Alden came to the University Gerlinger hall had just been completed. It was then the best equipped women's physical education plant on the Pacific coast. During the last year Miss Alden gave part of her time to directing the city's playground recreational program.

Her educational background included work at University of Missouri, Smith college, Wellesley, and with the YWCA in Omaha. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Pi Lambda Theta. Miss Alden plans to maintain her residence in Eugene.

Dim-Out Restrictions Lifted in Coast Area

West coast cities will brighten up once more after almost a year of war-time dim-out when all such restrictions are lifted on November 1. The University will not be affected as Lane county was not in a restricted area. However, the western defense command emphasized that blackout regulations are still in effect, and test blackouts may come at any time.
