

Two Enter Race for Council; Nominations Remain Open

Charline Pelly, senior in liberal arts, and Harry Skerry, senior in law, have been entered as nominees for senior representative on the executive council, Jean Page, second vice-president of the ASUO, announced Monday.

Nominations are still open until 5 p.m. today. Requirements for the position are: senior standing, a record of activities, and eligibility statement from the office of the dean of men or women. These should be submitted to Jean Page along with the nomination. Final selection by the executive council will be made from the nominations on Thursday.

Ticket Gals For Capers Disclosed

Further appointments of Coed Capers ticket salesmen were listed today by Mary McCandless, co-chairman of ticket sales with Ann Graham and Sally Twohy.

Miss McCandless also announced a general meeting of ticket representatives from the various girls' houses today at 4 p.m., upstairs in the College Side inn.

Appointments were: Audrey Benge, Alder lodge; Sally Barr, Birch lodge; Doris Craig, Highland house; Lorrie Knight, Hilliard house; Virginia Turnbow, Rebec house; Jackie Bohland, Casablanca; Lee Simonsen, Hill—
(Please turn to page three)

Bandage Rolling Begins Again Under Army Specifications

Red Cross bandage rolling will begin Tuesday on the third floor of Gerlinger hall, Carol Wicke, head of the Red Cross committee, announced Monday. Hours will be from 3 to 5 on Tuesday and Thursday, and from 9 until 12 on Saturday.

Marty Beard, Esther Griffiths, Mary Minor, Mary Stanley, and Carol Wicke are the present instructors. Instructors of last year wishing to continue in that capacity should spend two hours one day this week at the Red Cross room and report to Carol Wicke.

Bandages are made for the army and under army specifications rather than those of the Red Cross, Carol said. Each girl must bring a cotton dress and bandana and wash her hands before coming upstairs. Special veils, to be worn at work, may be had by anyone wishing one from Carol Wicke for 35 cents.

Awards will be made every month to the houses serving the most hours. A Red Cross pin will be awarded to girls serving 18 hours and a production button to those who work 52 hours. Instructors will wear blue bands.

Last year the campus Red Cross unit was active in rolling bandages and making clothes for refugees.

UO Faculty Buys $30,000 in Bonds

Approximately $30,000 in war bonds were purchased by the University faculty, state officers and employees during the recent third war loan drive. As campus chairman of the drive, Alfred L. Lomax, professor of business administration, said that this sum was a generous contribution to the Lane county quota of about four and one-half million dollars.

Don't Slack-Buy a Pack

Eight Trying For Two Jobs In ISA Race

Elections for vice-president of the independent students' association and freshman representative on the cabinet will be held this afternoon in the men's lounge, first floor of Gerlinger, between 12:30 and 5:30. Candidates for vice-president are Betty Jean Walker, Marjorie Young, Elaine Burnham, and Jack Cairns. Whoever is elected will also serve as president of the senate.

Freshman representatives are Allen Hagland, Alice Buckingham, Norma Woodford, and Randall Polson. Ted Peterson withdrew his name from the ballot in favor of the draft.

All independents are eligible to vote, but they must bring identification.

"All eligible students should be sure to vote," urged Doris Jones, ISA president. "The officers are representative of the students and if the students don't vote, what good are the elections?"

Candidates were introduced at the independent houses Monday.

Nice Advice

Kappa Sigma house fronts on Eleventh.

And the traffic will rise there, I'll bet

As the coeds walk by To catch a soldier's eye, For their telephone's not been installed yet.

—W.R.L.

"Buy a Pack for a Buddy" has been selected as the slogan for this year's cigarette drive, Phyllis Horstman, chairman of the drive, announced. The drive will be held Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week with the cigarettes collected going to the Camp Adair hospital and the Lane county USO.

The goal has been set at 1800 packages and a thermometer will be placed in the Co-op to show the daily totals. The Emerald will also publish a thermometer each day of the drive showing the totals collected from the living organizations.

One Apiece

"In order to reach the 1800 mark, every student must buy at least one package," Miss Horstman said. Although the stress will be on collections in the living organizations, boxes for contributions will also be placed in the Co-op, Side, Villard hall, Friendly hall, and the newsroom in the journalism building.

Members of Kwama will take care of the distribution and collection. House representatives are as follows:

House Representatives

Alpha Chi Omega, Delores Hewett; Alpha Delta Pi and Laurel lodge, Lois Winsley; Alpha Gamma Delta and University house, Nancy Brownell; Alpha Phi, Patty Van Hooser; Alpha Omicron Pi, Altha Paul; Alpha Xi Delta, Dorothy Manville; Chi Omega, Carolyn Holden.

Delta Delta Delta, Signe Eklund; Delta Gamma, Mary Sherman; Gamma Phi Beta, Virginia—
(Please turn to page two)

Phi Theta's Farce, 'Out of This World' Scheduled Friday

"Ah-ha!" said the noise issuing from the girl's throat. "Ah-ha!" it came again, closely followed by a shrill squeal.

The girl was Audrey Holliday, president of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's service honorary. She was laughing about an assembly script.

"It's absolutely out of this world," groaned Audrey, and she was right, for the Phi Theta farce is entitled, "Out of This World."

This saga of heaven, hades and traditions will be held promptly at 7:36½ Friday p.m. at Gerlinger, with free apples, according to two other Phi Thetas, Marty Beard and Adele Riggs, who are chairmanning the affair.

"All freshmen are browbeaten and all upperclassmen are strongly urged to attend," said Miss Beard. "You'll be sorry if you don't," Miss Riggs added.

ROTCs Return; Campus Changes Cause Comment

They're here. After weeks of rumors and counter-rumors some 40 members of the junior ROTC group returned to the campus Saturday afternoon. Classes started Monday but with the regular term starting in December, their schedule now consists mainly in review courses, Major W. S. Averill, commandant of the ASTU, said.

They are housed in the Kappa Sigma house which has been renovated and cleaned up with new double-deck beds installed and the rooms equipped with study tables.

Under the same rules and routine as the other soldier students on the campus, they will take mathematics, physics, mechanical drawing, physical education, and military. Major Averill stated that he did not know how long the men would remain here or where they would be sent next. "They will take directed studies until they want them some place else."

Oge Young Says

Oge Young, former vice-president of the ASUO, was among those who returned. Asked what he thought about returning to the campus, he said, "you can say it's great to be back because of the friends you don't meet, the classes you don't hold in asphalt with the temperature around 140 degrees, and just because it is Oregon."

Quentin Sidesinger's only comment was: "It's not like the old days. Everyone's hitting the books around here. I've never seen anything like it."

All the boys were formerly stationed at Camp Roberts, California, except Ray Farmer, Leonard Barde, and Tom Houston, none of whom returned with this group. According to Sidesinger both Barde and Houston are in the—
(Please turn to page three)

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS . . .

. . . rolling bandages for the campus Red Cross. Scenes like this will be duplicated with the reopening of the Red Cross today at 3 p.m. on the third floor of Gerlinger. Girls in the picture include June Grantz, Carol Wicke, Leslie Brockelbank, Ann Graham, and Betty Lawrence.