

From the Pulpit

By NORMA AALVIK

Vesper services are being held this Sunday in the music school at 5 p.m. with Dr. Robert E. Cushman delivering the sermon. Campus vespers are a regular custom on the campus, being held the first Sunday in each month. A newly organized choir, led by Helen Luvaas will make their first appearance here.

With Armistice day close at hand, the sermon text of various ministers of the city will have a patriotic trend. Sunday evening at the Baptist church the sermon will be "Jonah: False or True Patriotism," a topic of special interest to those with men in the service. The morning service will be "He Calleth For Thee."

On somewhat the same order is "This Is Our Country," a patriotic sermon at the Congregational church at 11 p.m. Carrying out this timely patriotic theme is the service at the First Christian church on "Christ and the World Order." At 7:30 p.m. is "Steps to Victory Over Sin."

Methodist Service

The morning service at the Methodist church is "When God Is Ignored." The Wesley foundation will meet in the church parlor at 7 p.m. and will be led by Rev. L. O. Griffith. Wesley house is beginning this week a social evening on Tuesday from 9 to 10:30 p.m. which is designed specially for soldier students. Sunday morning at 9:45 Thelma Nelson and Esther Griffiths will lead the devotion on "What Is a Man Worth?" at Westminster house. At 6 p.m. there will be a social tea followed by the regular Sunday evening forum, this week to be "A 'G.I.' and a 'C.O.' Talk Things Over." Clarence Angel from Elkton "C.O." camp and Burton Moore, a G.I. engineer will lead the forum.

Westminster and Wesley houses are holding open house tonight inviting everyone to come after the concert. Newman club will meet at the YMCA hut at 7:30 p.m., when Father Solar will lead a discussion on the "Spanish Civil War and Spain Today."

Change, Drop Cards Due Saturday Noon

Students expecting to drop any courses must have all change cards completed and filed with the registrar by Saturday noon, according to Clifford L. Constance, assistant registrar.

Any change cards delayed beyond this time will require additional recommendation and approval of the academic requirement's committee of the faculty.

Gathers Guerillas

Mikhailovich gathered a force of guerillas that harassed the Germans. He became the focal point of resistance against the Axis. He was made a full general and minister of war in the Yugoslav government-in-exile.

A new force then arose in Yugoslavia backed by the Reds—the Partisans composed of Croats and Slovenes. Their leader is one Josef Tuzer who goes under the nom de guerre of "Comrade Tito." Tito fought in the Spanish war with the International Brigade. Tito accuses the Chetniks of playing "footie" with the Germans.

For the past year, they have been fighting each other more than they have the Germans. Each side claims the credit for every town captured or German slain. Tito protested last month against our giving planes to the Yugoslav government in exile.

It is unfortunate the Moscow conference was mute on the Serb-Croat squabble. It is a situation made to order for Dr. Goebbels.

Gamma Phis Top 'Scrap Drivers'

The Gamma Phis topped all other living organizations on the campus in Friday's scrap drive by contributing seven boxes of tin cans, Bibbitts Strong, co-chairman of the salvage committee, reported.

Several boxes were not picked up because the labels had not been removed or the cans had not been smashed, Miss Strong said. The salvage will be stored in a garage until the end of the month and then sent to Portland.

Results of the drive are as follows: Gamma Phi Beta, 7; Steiner hall, 4; University house, 3; Alpha Chi Omega, 3; Alpha Delta Pi, 2; Spencer hall, 2. Kappa Alpha Theta, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Kappa, Highland house, Lombard y lodge, Hillcrest lodge, Birch lodge, Mill lodge, Hawthorne lodge, Casablanca lodge, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, and Delta Delta Delta all contributed one box.

Art League to Continue Soldier 'Open House'

Taking last weekend's turnout as an indication that many soldier students on the campus are anxious to continue their art work while in the army, the Allied Art league has announced that they will hold "open house" in the art school on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Edith Onthank, chairman of the activity, stated that locker space, equipment and instruction will be available to those who wish to take advantage of the art school's facilities. The building will be open from 2 p.m. until 11 p.m. on both Saturday and Sunday.

three Deltas—now in blues—Bill Cox, Pierre Barnett, and Charles Larson. The frilly curtains and feminine decorations were almost too much for the poor fellows.

He's Really Gone

Bob, Phi-Delt, Hope is really gone now—at least as far as Wilamette. He came back last week just to date Nanette Holmes, Kappa.

Favorite indoor sport at Birch lodge to brighten up a dull evening is watching the "entertainment" in the backyard next door.

Ball Tournament Holds Spotlight

Intramural volleyball games were continued Thursday evening in Gerlinger with a smashing victory for the Kappas over the University No. 2 team with a score of 41 to 22. Beverly Hauser and Ann Winkler kept the ball in fast play and Alyson Hales' expert job of front line returning was the score winner for the Kappas.

Another easy victory of the evening was won by Highland from Sigma Kappa with a score of 55 to 29. Doris Craig, the spiker for the Highland eight, was the center spoke around which the team made their plays. Sigma Kappa's fighting was encouraged by Pat Davis who led her team in the battle.

Alpha Gamma and Alder played a close game with Alpha Gamma, winning by a margin of seven points for a final score of 32 to 26. Margaret Hughes and Mickey Delaven were the backbone of the Alpha Gamma team. On the opposite side of the net Norma Washburn kept the competition at a peak.

Games scheduled for next week will take place at 5 o'clock in Gerlinger. Monday, November 8, the following will play: Ordes vs. AOPi; Birch vs. Alpha Chi Omega; Kappas vs. Pi Beta Phi.
