Be Sure To Read

OREGON SIL EMERALD

Saturday's Emerald

VOLUME XLV

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1943

NUMBER 34

NOT WOMEN OF THE FUTURE . . .

... but women of the present are these WAVES marching at Hunter college, New York, where volunteers receive their first training.

'B' Shift Girls to Swing At Terms Final Mixer

The last campus swing mixer of the term will be held Wednesday night at living organizations on the "B" list. The 14 houses on this list will be the second shift to meet the men. Last week men danced with coeds in the "A" group.

Having already been permanently placed in the social calendar, the weekly mixers are being acclaimed a success, Jean Page, chairman of the student affairs committee, declared.

Since the Thanksgiving holiday is followed immediately by the approach of final exams the last mixer of the term will be held conight. Plans are being arral uged for their continuance next ir corps men are not included in this week's list because they are studying for exams. All other men are listed with designated houses, where they will go at 9:30 to dance to records until 10:15.

Shifters Take Tonight's Mixer

Company A—(Bud Pence in charge)—Delta Delta Delta, Casablanca lodge, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Chi Omega, Highland house.

Company B—(Don Dittman in charge)—Sigma Kappa, Alpha Gamma Delta, Delta Gamma.

Company C (Ben Zenda in charge)—Orides—at Gerlinger, University house.

Civilian men—Junior ROTC— (Lee Wimberly in charge)—Hillcrest lodge, Birch lodge, Pi Beta Phi.

Going Home?...

Students planning to go south by train for Christmas vacation should make reservations as soon as possible, according to word received from the Southern Pacific ticket office in Eugene.

Practically all the trains are filled up for December 15 and 16, especially the sleepers, it was announced. There is still quite a bit of space in the coaches, however.

Those going north may take the 1:48 train without having to get reservations. Otherwise reservations must be made.

Exec Comm to Face Problem Of Filling Vice-Prexy Position

GI Ducks Set Grid Contest For Saturday

The athletic surprise of the season hit the campus late last night when a long distance telephone call brought news that this Saturday will see the biggest football game of the term on Hayward field when the Salt Lake City air base team arrives to compete with the local ASTU outfit.

The Salt Lake City team is composed almost entirely of former college grid stars, which render it at least as powerful as most collegiate conference aggregations before the war. It chalked up victories over both Colorado and Nevada.

Captained by Bob Ingalls, 1941 all-American for Michigan, the team weighs up quite heavily, averaging 190 pounds in the line and 180 in the backfield. They can be counted on to show plenty of speed as well as power. The coaching department also is rich in collegiate experience, consisting as it does of Sgt. Don Galbreath, formerly of Oregon State, who is head coach, and Assistant Coach Pat Hogan, of West Virginia university.

According to Lt. R. G. Davis, ASTU athletic officer, the Salt Lake boys will pull into Eugene Friday morning. The game will start at 3 p.m. Saturday. The team will leave town some time Saturday night.

This will be the last game of the season for Oregon's ASTU, and even though it is an all-military tilt, it has many of the elements of the traditional Homecoming game usually held about this time of year. The executive council will meet at 4 p.m. today to discuss filling of the ASUO vice-president position, Nancy Ames, ASUO president, announced yesterday.

The position was vacated when Oglesby Young, returned ROTC man, resigned last Thursday because of lack of time in which to fulfill his duties.

There are four possible ways in which the vacancy may be

Seal Sale Set To Start Soon

Oregon will fight the tuberculosis menace by the sale of Christmas seals in a drive slated to begin the day after Thanksgiving, Beverly Carroll, chairman of the campaign, announced.

Sales will begin November 26 and will last until December 2. A booth will be set up in the Co-op as campaign headquarters, and representatives will sell the stamps in each house. Freshman women are handling the entire drive, which is based on competition between the houses.

Representatives are: Yvonne Edwards, Alpha Delta Pi; Jean Johnson, Alpha Xi Delta; Barbara Patterson, Lombardy lodge; Jean Braden, Alder lodge; Barbara Pearson, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Bea King, Delta Gamma; Dorothy Williams, Mill lodge; Kay Leslie, Pi Beta Phi; Reba Gregory, Hilyard house; Thelma Howard, University house; Aldeane Yarbrough, Sigma Kappa; Virginia Schutz, Hawthorne

(Please turn to page three)

Deadline Today for Oregana Pictures

Today is the last day that those who have not had their pictures taken for the Oregana may have them taken, according to Helen Johnson, Oregana editor. Makeup pictures were also given Monday and Tuesday.

filled, Miss Ames said. Any person from the executive council can be elected to the position; the council may use the petitions that were turned in for the office of senior representative; the council may ask for new nominations from members of the executive council; or they might open the field for new petitions by asking for them in the Emerald. There are no conditions on how the officer is chosen but he must have the majority vote of the executive council.

To be eligible for the position the candidate must be regularly enrolled at the University, have completed a minimum of 12 hours in the previous term, and be registered now for a minimum of 12 hours. He must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2 point; and have a GPA of a 2 point for the previous term. Also he must not be on probation in any way, must have completed at least 3 terms at the University and have acquired 110 credit hours.

Dr. Erb Expects No Revolutionary School Changes

Post-war higher education, while somewhat different, is not likely to be greatly revolutionized, is the opinion brought back by Dr. Donald M. Erb, University president, who has just returned from a month in the East on educational business.

While in the East Dr. Erb attended the annual meeting of the American Association of State Universities in Chicago and a similar meeting of the Association of American Medical colleges which met in Cleveland.

Distinct Groups Expected

One important decision reached at the medical colleges' meeting was that much more work will have to be given in tropical medicine since the war in the Pacific has called for more specialists in that class than are available, Dr. Erb said

"As far as the postwar years go," President Erb stated, "it seems sensible to realize that for five or six years after hostilities have ceased we shall have a student body composed of several distinct groups.

High Schools as Usual

"First, there will be young men and women entering as freshmen straight from the high schools. These will be very like the usual pre-war. students and this part of the program will not change much.

"Then there will be returning service personnel who had started a college course and who will want to finish their work as quickly as possible. This will be a numerous group and their special problem will be their desire

(Please turn to page three)

Coeds Concoct Own Comedy

Coed Capers was once compared to a grab bag—you put in your hand and don't be surprised at what you get. As an example of some of the things that are going into the Friday night all-femme show, are a dust mop, a "plumber's friend," a tantalizing can-can number, and a cap and gown, the symbol of studious pursuits.

Coed Capers shows What really goes—

Victory Diners Report

Four 100 Per Centers

Only four women's living organizations reported 100 per cent participation in the fourth of the series of war board-sponsored dime-digging dinners given last night, revealed Mary Bentley, chairman of the war stamp promotion drive. The houses were

Alpha Gamma Delta, Delta Gamma, Sigma Kappa, and Hillcrest.

ation of every house in the plan,

(Please turn to page three)

Miss Bentley urged the cooper-

On in women's minds . . . and this gala affair shows coeds in every conceivable scene, real or imagined. Some really great people, including, perhaps, even your favorite comic character, will be there. Superman, pardon us, superwoman, may fly in at any time.

Although nothing can be disclosed, the faculty skit has the women instructors in some mighty unusual action.

Caramel apples, dixie cups, and cokes will be on sale.

Following are members of the skits—freshmen: Roseann Lackie, Beverly Carroll, Mary Westrheim, Janice Seymour, Louise Robson, Marian Walstrom, Patsy Griffin, Vernita Nunn, Marilyn Sage, Jesse Scafe, Nancy Heber, Janice Noonan, Mary Lee Elliott, Nadine Neat, Heidi de Rose, Betty Green, Pat Scott, Marilyn Pollard, Pat Cline, Florence Hinson, Marge Allen, Eva Hedrick, Orene Henley, Ann McGillicuddy, Betty Thorpe, Mary Fairchild, and Sue Abbott.

Sophomores: Mary Ann Linch, Signe Eklund, Jean Loomis, Jeanne Briggs, Dorothy Pryor, Helen Crawford, Joanne Holsted, Lois McConkey, Eloise Mulhausen, Ann Graham, Phil Miller, Peggy Heitschmidt, Altha Paul, Mary Bush, Dorothy Weygandt, Janet Barringer, Gene McPherson, Lois Twining, Mimi Staub, Martha Harold, Dolores Hewit, Gloria Newell, Cece Norene, Virginia Wright, Bibbits Strong, Virginia Beattie, Mary Corrigan, Lois Winsley, and Joan Hart.

Juniors: Barbara Younger, Anita Fernandez, Liz Schaefer, Mary Stanley, Lorraine Davidson, Ardis Jensen, Arliss Boone, Bea Beard, Dorothy Hayden, Virginia Campbell, Alysone Hales, Shirley Neal, Marian Schaefer, Jean Taylor, and Phyllis Churchman

Seniors: Phyllis Taylor, Margaret Murphy, Donna Cook, Mary Mercier, Charlotte Older, Frances Brobert, Kay Jenkins, Julie Carpenter, Mary Jane Terry, Jane Webster, and Helen Manning.

Activity skit: Mimi Staub, Joan Dolph, Betsy Wootten Howard, Connie Fulmer, Phyllis Evans, Beverly Padgham, and Barbara McClung.

Final dress rehearsal will be held Thursday at 7 p.m.

Ann Graham is in charge of ticket sales to alums and organizations downtown, and Sally Twohy is in charge of selling tickets to the general public, feminine elements, from Russell's, Kaufman's, Gordon's, and Penney's.