

Second WSSF Drive Collects $596.10 As First Day Ends

The second World Student Service fund drive rolled into high gear by the end of its first day, with $596.10 collected by 5 p. m., according to statistics released by Dorothy Rogers, general chairman.

The drive is being carried on in conjunction with the campus war chest fund in hopes of achieving the $1000 goal. The last drive brought in some $600, which, according to Miss Rogers, "is not nearly as much as the students of the University of Oregon are able to contribute."

Stress 100%

At a meeting of all campus representatives of the drive Saturday in the YWCA it was decided to continue stressing the idea that Oregon men and coeds should contribute 100 per cent.

The drive will last two more days, ending Wednesday evening. All donations should be turned into Nancy Boles, at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house. Students living on the campus will be contacted by representatives in each house. Those living off the campus in private homes and rooming houses will be taken care of by Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary.

Part of War Chest

As part of the war chest, the money will go not only to the students who are fighting for an education in lands torn by war, but also to other wartime charitable institutions.

Working with Dorothy Rogers, general chairman, other officers of the drive are: Ann Graham, secretary; Nancy Boles, treasurer; Leslie Brockelbank, in charge of church solicitations, and Shirley Neal, in charge of faculty solicitations.

The campus war chest drive, and through it the WSSF, is part of the Lane County war relief drive, which must raise $115,261 in order to meet its quota.

Houses Pledge Bond a Month

Three campus sororities, Alpha Phi, Alpha Delta Pi, and Pi Beta Phi, have pledged a war bond each month toward the service scholarship fund, it was announced by Yvonne Torgler, head of the UO service scholarship drive.

Fifteen other women's organizations have pledged one bond per term. They are Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Sigma Kappa, and Hawthorne, Hillcrest, Laurel, Casa Blanca, and Birch lodges.

"A few houses haven't voted on (Please turn to page four)

Phi Chi Thetas Initiate Six Women Members

Six new members were initiated into Phi Chi Theta, national business women's honorary, last Thursday evening at a ceremony in Gerlinger hall, Elisabeth Eid, president, announced.

Doris Hoiland, sophomore; Hildegard Roselund, junior; Joy Rasmussen, senior; Lorraine Davidson, junior; Fay Rice, junior; and Charlotte Calder, sophomore, are the new members.

Mrs. Ruth M. Thompson, instructor in business administration, is the honorary's faculty advisor.

BOOKS . . . bought by money given to WSSF waiting to be shipped of war in Europe.

Holiday Joy for Trainees Planned

Prominent on the agenda for Tuesday night's session of the University war emergency council are plans for Christmas holiday entertainment for the trainees who will be too far from their own homes to spend Christmas with their families.

Other business matters include further consideration of plans for the chaplaincy consultation services which are offered by the council's committee headed by Rev. Wesley G. Nicholson.

The session, which begins at 7:45, will be held at Westminster House. Dr. Quirinus Breen will preside.

A. m. Services; p. m. Hop On Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving day will be observed on the campus by a Thanksgiving day service in the morning and an ASUO-sponsored dance Thursday night.

The morning service will be held in the music building from 11 to 12, according to Phyllis Horstman, chairman of the committee. Dr. R. E. Cushman, professor of religion, will speak and the vesper choir under the direction of Helen Luvaas will sing two numbers.

New-Formed Vesper Choir To Gather

Women interested in joining the University vesper choir, an organization newly formed by the student religious council and directed by Helen Luvaas, are invited to attend the rehearsal tonight at 7 at Westminster house, or to contact the membership chairman, Dorothy Currier, at 4795-J.

All former members and new members who wish to sing for the 11 o'clock Thanksgiving services at the music building and for vesper services on December 5 must be at the rehearsal tonight.

The main purpose of the organization (Please turn to page four)

Senior Ball Petitions Due 5 p. m. Wednesday

Petitions for chairman of the Senior Ball must be submitted to Barbara Lamb, president of the class, before 5 p. m. Wednesday, Miss Lamb announced.

The petition should contain a record of activities as well as a grade eligibility slip from the dean of men's office.

The Ball will be held January 8.

Six More ROTC Men Come Back

Six more former University students have returned to the campus with the junior ROTC. They are James A. Bennison, Willis A. Caples, Wayne E. Coffee, Roger L. Dick, Aaron U. Jones, and Richard E. Moshofsky. The trainees are in Company D of the ASTU 3900 and will stay at the Kappa Sigma house. They will be studying basic engineering in the regular ASTU course.

Bennison was a business administration major and is a member of Phi Delta Theta. He is also a member of Skull and Dagger, Druids, Scabbard and Blade, and Friar honoraries. Moshofsky, a law major, is a member of Alpha Tau Omega, Druids, Scabbard and Blade, and Friars honoraries. He won the Koyle cup for being the outstanding junior.

Dick, a law major, is a Sigma Nu fraternity member and belongs to the Druids, Skull and Dagger, and Scabbard and Blade honoraries and was junior class president. Aaron Jones, physical education major, is a member of Scabbard and Blade and was active in independent activities. Wayne Coffee, law major, belongs to Scabbard and Blade; and Willis Caples, physical education major, is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa.

All six of the trainees came from Fort Knox, Kentucky where they have been at the armored forces replacement training center.

Janet Marugg, Ahlpa Chi, Picked As Oregon's Dream Girl At Coed Capers; Tri-Delt Angels Capture Silver Globe

Janet Marugg, freshman in liberal arts, was chosen "Oregon's Dream Girl" at the annual Coed Capers held Friday evening in Gerlinger hall. Approximately 1000 women students and 200 townspeople attended the all-women assembly.

The activity skit entitled, "The Masterpiece's Revolt" won the first prize for skits, an inscribed rolling pin. Honorable mention went to the seniors for their interpretation of Carl Sandburg's "The People—Yes."

Delta Delta Delta sorority, garbed as robots, won the first prize for costumes, an inscribed silver globe presented upside down in keeping with the slogan "When Women Reverse the Universe." Honorable mention went to the Alder lodge women who were dressed as angels.

Judges

Judges were Mrs. Hazel P. Schwering, dean of women; Mrs. Alice B. Macduff, assistant dean of women; Mrs. Kathryn Barrett, instructor in speech and dramatic arts; Betty Bennett, girls' league

DREAM GIRL . . .

. . . Janet Marugg, freshman in liberal arts, who was chosen to rule over Coed Capers Friday night. (Photo by Edith Newton)

president of University high school; and Joyce Davis, girls' league president of Eugene high school.

A faculty skit with individual take-offs of their professional selves, was presented by Mrs. Schwering, Mrs. Macduff, Dr. Leona E. Tyler, assistant professor of psychology; Miss Mabel Wood, head of home economics, department; Dr. Marian G. Hayes Miller, assistant University physician; Dr. Helen M. Petroskey, assistant professor of physical education; Mrs. Mary S. Huser, home economics instructor; and Mrs. Kathryn Barrett who won applause with her characterization of a cafe singer and dancer. Stooze "Peewee" Janet Ross and Mistress of Ceremonies Shirley Huntington provided lively adlibbing between skits.

Crashers Ousted

Bob Smith and Jim Lund from Eugene, crashed the performance but were caught by the Coed Cops, khaki dressed senior women. The show was stopped twice on rumor (Please turn to page four)

Peter Howard is in charge of the program and Signe Eklund is contacting the houses. Members of Kwama will usher and give out the programs.

The dance Thanksgiving night will be held from 7 to 10:15 p. m. in Gerlinger hall. Free to all, Owen Bailey's army band will play, Virginia Wright, in charge of the dance, announced. Patronesses chairman is Joan Holstad and chairman of decorations is Louise Goodwin.

Stage Production Tickets on Sale

Ticket sales for the University theater production "Out of the Frying Pan" will begin this morning at the box office, room 104 in Johnson hall. Tickets are 55 cents including tax.

The box office will be open between 10 and 12 noon and from 1 to 5 p. m. Reservations may be phoned in at 3300, extension 216.

"Out of the Frying Pan" depicts the farcical condition of six stage struck teensters living in one apartment because of financial difficulties and trying to attract the attention of a producer in the apartment directly below them. The play within a play construction leads to hilarious complications.

The production will open November 26 and will play the 27th and December 3 and 4.

ROTC Needs Hangers; War Board Sets Drive

One hundred hangers are desperately needed by the junior ROTCmen. In order to alleviate this situation the campus board is sponsoring a drive to collect the needed hangers. Friday, the hangers collected in each house will be picked up and taken to the soldiers.

AWS War Stamp Booth Opens in Co-op Today

War stamps will be sold from an AWS war stamp booth in the Co-op starting today, Miki Campbell, AWS president, announced Monday. The booth will be open from 8:45 a. m. to 5 p. m. and will be located at the camera counter.

Mary Wright has been named chairman of the booth. Any denomination from 10 cents to $5 will be sold.

Campus Red Cross Closes Thanksgiving

The Red Cross room will be open Tuesday and Saturday as usual but will be closed on Thursday because of Thanksgiving, according to Carol Wicke, head of the Red Cross committee.