

WAA Initiation On Tap For Today

This afternoon at 4:15 WAA will hold its fall term initiation in the Alumni room of Gerlinger hall.

All girls eligible should contact the volleyball or WAA representative in their house.

Girls who are already members of WAA are urged to attend as a short meeting will be held after the initiation. Reports of the volleyball tournament and of the coming basketball tournament will be given.

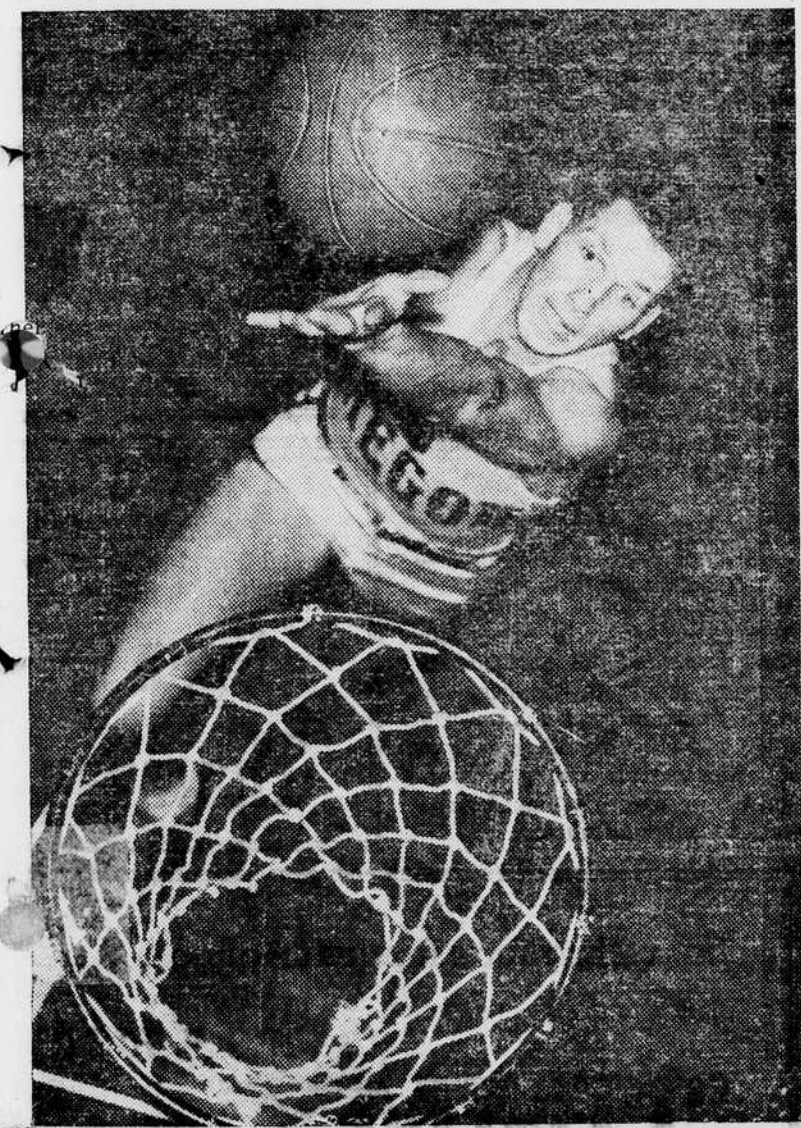

At the conclusion of the initiation and meeting all girls are invited to attend the all-star basketball game, which will begin at 5 p. m.

To be eligible a girl must have at least one check, which is given for participation in every game and four practices of one sport. Those who have earned their check from the just-concluded volleyball tournament will be included in this initiation.

ARMYDUCK FOOTBALL . . .

The collegiate-star-studded Salt Lake City air base team pushed the Oregon ASTU eleven all over the field Saturday in winning a 13-to-0 victory. Bill McCrary, who starred for the visitors, here cuts through a small opening during the first quarter. Quarterback Harold Johnson (43) of the Webfoots is about to nail him. Making a frantic dive for the ball carrier is Tackle George Pedersen. Others identifiable are Ed Dusek (16), fullback, and Bob Perugini (28), chunky air base guard, also end Bob Friang of the ASTU. McCrary scored the first touchdown of the game for the visitors in the third period. Oregon scored in the last two minutes of play.

Warren Taylor, last year's sharpshooting forward for John Warren's Oregonians, now does what playing, if any, that he can manage, for Uncle Sam's fleet. He's an ensign in the naval reserve.

Basketball Tussle Now Cancelled

According to a last-minute statement by Coach Howard Hobson, the basketball game scheduled with the independent Portland Pacific Packard team has been cancelled. No reason for the cancellation could be learned at this time.

Friday and Saturday the Webfoots will play the strong Albina Hellship five of Portland at McArthur court. The Albina boys are the scourge of Portland independent basketball circles, having cleaned up almost all opposition.

An extra game has been scheduled for December 1 with the Tillamook air base quintet.

All-Star Squads Formed from Volleyball Teams

This afternoon Miss Helen Petroskey released the names of the players on the all-star girls' volleyball team. Playoffs will be held Wednesday afternoon at 5 p. m. Players were selected from all of the competing teams.

The selections are:

Team I—Helen Johns, captain, Delta Gamma; Doris Craig, Highland House; Mary Ann Delsman, Hillcrest Lodge; Marge Cordon, Pi Phi; Jean Brader, Alder Lodge; Marianne Blenkinsop, University House; Eliza Houston, Delta Gamma; Janice Thompson, independent; Margaret Hughes, Alpha Gamma Delta; Grace Edwards, Rebec House; Connie Walters, Alpha Delta Pi.

Team II—Mary Riley, captain, Theta; Bev. Goetz, Orides; Betty Crabb, Hillcrest; Alyson Hales, Kappa; Anita Young, Pi Phi; Evelyn Marshall, Hawthorne; Betty Strauss, Birch; Jo Reginato, Hillyard; Mary A Lawson, independent; Pat Short, Orides; Martha Hock, Theta.

The best record of the season so far has been piled up by the Thetas, who have won every game they have played. They will meet the winner of the semi-final Birch-Hillcrest tiff tonight.

From up north comes word that Coach Pest Welch is readying his Rose Bowl squad for the big Pacific coast game this year, and once again we are reminded that the big game is just around the corner.

It's still big this year, despite the loss of players, but it will probably be a mighty poor imitation of the real thing. Latest blow to the Washington outfit is the loss of star quarterback

Jay Stoves, who has been called to duty with the U.S. marines at Parris Island, S.C. Replacing him in the Huskies' lineup will be Sam Robinson, who will share the work with Gerry Austin, another quarterback.

Benefit Planned

Amos Alonzo Stagg's College of the Pacific team is slated to meet the March Field 4th airforce fliers Saturday, December 11, under the auspices of the All-Pacific Recreation fund, headed by comedian Joe E. Brown. Both teams have won seven out of eight played this season, making this one of the best games on the grid docket for the coming weekend.

Sunday (yes, Sunday) will feature a thrill contest between the March Field 4th airforce fliers and the San Diego naval training station for the Pacific Coast Service championship. The fliers will come into the game fresh from a 35-0 victory over the University of Southern California.

Another contest slated for Saturday is the tilt between the California Bears and the rugged Del Monte Pre-flight team. Two outstanding players on the team, Craig Ortlieb and Toby Freedman, will be absent from the California starting lineup due to injuries, which should make it tough going for the Bears against the tough Del Monte squad.

Yep, the draft board beckons and the casualties grow, and it looks like about time to ring down the curtain on the Pacific Coast conference, ersatz edition.

Future Teachers Called To Placement Meeting

All prospective teachers who plan to avail themselves of the services of the University teacher placement service in obtaining teaching positions for next year are asked to meet Wednesday, December 1 at 4 p. m. in room 2 of the education building, according to C. L. Huffaker, acting director of the teachers placement service.

Those interested are asked to enroll and file their records with the office in the near future as the available clerical help for copying these records is very limited.

Formal dental education began in the East 104 years ago.
