

In Her Stocking, Santa, Put Scuffies, Mittens

By GLORIA CARTOZIAN

As soon as that last bite of Thanksgiving turkey and pumpkin pie are taken, it's time to think about old Saint Nick, Christmas trees, and the friends you want to remember on Dec. 25.

At the top of the list will probably be a girl—whether she's your sister, just a good friend, or one of those numerous relatives. At any rate, she'll probably bear no malice against you if you remember her with something warm like a pair of lamb's wool mittens with suede palms. If she burns the midnight oil, a pair of fleece scuffs in bright colors will make her very happy and keep her toes warm.

Mmm!

Perfume's a "must" as a gift anytime. Latest trick is a "Red Letter" perfume done up in a tiny mailbox by Dorothy Gray.

Elizabeth Arden's popular "Blue Grass" comes not only as a cologne, but also as a soap, dusting powder, and little pillow sachets. Easy on the pocketbook, too.

For those brisk nights that Oregon seems to have everytime a house formal comes off, give her a cloud mist scarf of pure wool by Glensder. It comes in 17 lush colors—and every one is strictly feminine.

Special Gal

If she's some one special and your pocketbook can stand the extra pull, a Catalina sweater in the new "Acorn" pattern is always an essential in a coed's wardrobe. "Acorns" come in beige with brown and green, and brown with beige and green.

For a gift that she can always use in her room, tiny figurines of small animals—deer, rabbits, dogs, and most any specimen from the out-of-doors. Figurines can be purchased at any of the small gift shops in Eugene and right now the assortment is varied.

The one gift that's going to be the most popular this year as before is a war bond—one gift that you'll want to give and one that she'll be proud to receive.
