

Duck Tracks

By NORRIS YATES

That crucial day—the opening day of the northern division conference season creeps closer and closer—and the Duck basketball squad gets readier and readier.

Monday night Coach Howard Hobson ran his boys through a strenuous workout pepped up by the fact that Wally Borrevik, "tall fir" center from Reedsport, who played here last two years, had returned to the squad. Borrevik reentered school at the beginning of this term.

The big boy is out of condition at present, but Hobson plans to work him into the lineup gradually in order to get him ready for action by the time Oregon state invades the campus January 15.

Another winter term reinforcement, Ernie Danner, of Eugene high, is expected to make forwards Bob Caviness and Bob Hamilton work in order to hold their positions. This lad has speed and is reputed to be pretty good at finding that hoop with his shots.

The team held intensive workouts Monday and Tuesday afternoons. Hobson will probably drill the boys hard again tonight, then taper off Thursday, in preparation for the initial game with Washington at Seattle Friday night. Saturday night the two teams will again vie. Washington is reputedly the strongest aggregation in the conference this year, so the Webfoots will get a taste of their toughest opposition right at the start.

CLASSIFIED ADS

For Sale

FOR SALE—Practically new tuxedo. Double-breasted. Size 39. Cost $55.00. Sell for $20.00. Call 3226-M.

Winter Term Changes In Ad Staff Announced

Roseann Leckie, freshman in liberal arts, has been appointed advertising manager of the Emerald for winter term, according to an announcement made by Elizabeth Edmunds, business manager.

With other new appointments, the business staff is now as follows: office manager, Alva Granquist, junior in journalism; assistant office manager, Mary Sherman, sophomore in liberal arts; layout manager, Jenelyn Gaston, junior in architecture and allied arts; promotion manager, Connie Fullmer, sophomore in liberal arts; national advertising manager, Arliss Boone, junior in journalism.

Day managers now include: Tuesday, Beverly Carroll, freshman in liberal arts; Wednesday, Annamae Winship, sophomore in journalism; Thursday, Jane Corkran, freshman in liberal arts; Friday, Gloria Malloy, sophomore in liberal arts; Saturday, Mary McClintic, freshman in journalism.

New mail clerk is Harold McDonald, and delivery boy is Jack Heintz.

Honorary Pledges Three

Anna Hegstrom and Jean Wallace, seniors in journalism, and Anne Craven, junior in journalism, were informally pledged to Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism honorary, December 10.

Selected on the basis of their scholastic record and their outstanding journalistic achievements, they will be formally pledged, Wednesday, January 12, at 7:30 p. m. in Gerlinger hall. Initiation will be held spring term.

Dean to Speak

Dr. Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, will address a group of community clubs in Portland Friday night, January 7. His subject will be post-war planning.

Oregana Aid Appointed

Betty Towe, freshman in liberal arts, has been appointed assistant managing editor of the Oregana, Helen Johnson, Oregana editor, announced Monday.

Girls' Basketball Starts

Practices for the girls' intramural basketball games will begin this week. A practice schedule is posted on the bulletin board near the cage in Gerlinger and all house athletic managers may sign for team practices on this schedule. Because there is such a short time before the games begin, houses are urged to start practicing immediately. First games are scheduled for Thursday, January 20.

UO's Pioneer Pop

(Continued from page one) plans for the new inductee, whether he will train for pilot of a P-39 or a B-19. Or then he may wash out and become a navigator.

ISA Mixer

(Continued from page one) ing will be from 9:30 to 12. A special feature will be offered for entertainment and cokes will be served.

'Dark Victory' to

(Continued from page one)

Janette Borden, young sophisticate; Barbara Huntington, freshman in liberal arts, as Connie Ewing; and Jean Lawrence, freshman in journalism, as Miss Wright, Dr. Steele's secretary.

Margie Robinson, senior in journalism, will assist Mr. Robinson in directing the play and will also appear in the part of Miss Jenny, elderly housekeeper for the doctor.

"Dark Victory" concerns a young society woman who is suffering from a serious brain affliction, and a brilliant brain surgeon who has grown tired of his Park Avenue clientele. They meet through a family physician who urges the doctor to try his skill in curing his patient. Their meeting, their love, and their final victory over the inevitable shattering of their happiness comprise a truly great drama.

We've all got to give our young champion '44 all the backing we can... to help him win this fight soon! Sure we've all got the will to win, but it takes a lot more than that alone! It takes tanks, guns, planes and bombs! And it takes the loan of your money to buy them. Remember, your brothers', sons' and husbands' lives depend on that equipment! It's up to us to get it to them... as much as they need... as quickly as possible... so they can black out the Gerries and the Japs, and make all our dreams of peace come true soon! Put every penny you can into that soundest of all investments... War Bonds and Stamps, and make '44 "the champ" of Victory!

beauty ration for life... yes, only one face in a lifetime. Cleanse it thoroughly, lubricate it gently.

Jacqueline Cochran Cleansing Cream does both. Highly emollient, "slippery" enough for perfect massage.

1.00, 1.75, 3.25, 5.00 plus tax

JACQUELINE COCHRAN

EXCLUSIVE AT

MILLER'S

OREGON  EMERALD