

Twenty-One Coeds Enter Bond Contest

(Continued from page one) their parents suggesting that they send them the money they were going to use to purchase bonds. This month so that the bonds this month so that the co-op and count for one of the candidates. Letters to be sent to the parents will be distributed tomorrow.

Following is the list of girls entered in the contest: Virginia Harris, Hawthorne lodge; Betty Sprague, Kappa Alpha Theta; Lois McConkey, Alpha Chi Omega; Sue Stater, Delta Gamma; Joan Van Doren, Alpha Xi Delta; Nancy Heber, Laurel lodge; An-nabel MacArthur, Alpha Phi; Thomasine Rundell, Alpha Gamma Delta;

Peggy Hoard, Sigma Kappa; Shirley McKenzie, Alder lodge; Betty Lee Barnes, Chi Omega; Margaret Murphy, Casablanca lodge; Lois McDonald, Birch lodge; Irene Gresham, Delta Delta Delta; Jean Corkin, Alpha Omicron Pi; Nancy Schmeer, Gamma Phi Beta; June Spor, coed cooperatives; Beverly Eckert, Mill lodge; Jeanne Villair, Alpha Delta Pi and Nanette Holmes, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Infirmary Space

(Continued from page one) army went to the expense of fixing the basement for patients, Dr. Miller stated. However, maintaining a staff for it is impossible.

Dr. Miller advises those who feel the need for hospitalization to come in during the morning so that an attempt may be made to select those who are in the most need of care.

Doctors will see civilian students between 8 a. m. and 3 p. m. and those who come in at other times cause the staff to work overtime. Excuses from class can be given for anything serious if the student cannot come during regular hours.

"Most people find that a cold is made worse by sleeping on sleeping porches. They should get a bed inside, at least during the time they are suffering from a cold," Dr. Miller said.

Personal judgment was suggested in determining whether or not to attend class. Anyone with

Only Four Houses Hold Dime Digging Dinners

Dime Digging Dinners, back on the campus dinner "menu" for winter term, resulted in only three living organizations going 100 per cent. They are Hawthorne lodge, $4.30; Delta Delta Delta, $4.70; and Alpha Xi Delta, $3.60, a survey revealed Tuesday night.

The only other house taking part in the drive this week, Chi Omega, collected $3.10.

These defense dinners will be held each Tuesday night, announced Mary Bentley, chairman of bonds and stamps sales. She added that it is hoped all civilian living organizations will take part in the drive each week this term.

GI Dramatists Plan Meeting for Tonight

A special meeting will be held tonight at 9:30 at the drama studio for all army trainees interested in drama, Horace W. Robinson, acting head of drama has announced.

This meeting is particularly for the benefit of all newcomers so they can get acquainted with the group and get started on the army program.

The GI shows, under the direction of Frank S. Krasnowsky, physics instructor, are well in progress, Mr. Robinson stated, and rehearsals have been going on for some time. The plan is to incorporate the skits and scenes into a full evening's entertainment later on in the term.

a mild cold need not stay home, it was stated, but anyone who feels chilled or ill should stay in bed. Coughs are a danger to others, and should also keep the victim home.

Episcopal Youth

(Continued from page one) Movement of the Church's Youth." Miss Conner is a student at the University of California.

Delegates from represented campuses will chairmen the various sessions. Speakers for the conference are Maj. Worth Wick-er of Camp Adair, Dean Charles N. Guilbert of Portland, the Rev. Charles Neville of Corvallis, the Rev. J. Tom Lewis of Marshfield, the Rev. George Turney of Medford, and the Rev. E. S. Bartlam of Eugene.

Norwegian Books, Art Shown at Library

National objects of Norway are now on display in the University library. Two cases are devoted to the Norwegian display which consists of books, paintings and needlework and Norwegian music is also shown. Most of the items were loaned by Mrs. F. J. Crafts, while some of the needlework is the property of Mrs. S. F. Martilla. Plans are being made by the library to present each of the occupied countries in this manner.

Also on display are a group of books put out by the limited editions club and some volumes from the Teal collection. In the latter collection, some of the books exhibited are "Imitation of Christ", "Love Sonnets of Elizabeth Barrett Browning" and the poetical works of Robert Burns.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

The YWCA frosh commission will meet at 4:30 today in the YWCA bungalow.

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

Day Staff

Jane Corkron, day mgr.

Patsy Maloney

Sue Welch

City Desk Staff

Fred Weber, city editor

Grace Edwards

Mary Howard

Anne Craven

Personnel Photos Due

Final personnel photo-makeup will be held today from 2 to 5 p. m. in Room 3, Johnson hall.

Record Order Spurs

(Continued from page one) Other scrap, tin cans and waste fats, should not be neglected this week, either, they said, despite the fact that paper is being emphasized in cooperation with Eugene's special paper drive.

Flowers

for Initiation

Make her initiation day one she will always remember . . . with flowers.

A lovely assortment of cut flowers for the initiation banquet table, too

Chase Gardens

58 East Broadway

Phone 4240

REX Theatre

Double Bill—Thrills

"SOULS AT SEA"

with

FRANCES DEE

GARY COOPER

and

"SILVER SPURS"

ROY ROGERS

MCDONALD

A Stirring Story

"LASSIE COME HOME"

with

RODDY McDOWELL

ELSA LANCHESTER

DONALD CRISP

THE BROADWAY

Presents in

The Passing Parade
A Spring Revue of
those scintillating,
Whistle up—

DORIS DODSON JUNIOR FROCKS

for

College Co-eds in the Know

Price 6.50 to 12.85

The BROADWAY

20 and 30 East Broadway

HELP LAUNCH THE VICTORY SHIP FOR SMOOTH, PEACEFUL
SAILING IN '44!

Baby '44 is all set to go! . . . sending the good ship Victory straight down the line! But he'll need our help . . . so don't let down for a second in your working, saving and fighting on the home front to make possible that grand, glorious launching! Our promise to you of continued cooperation . . . and our very best wishes for a Victorious New Year!

OREGON DAILY EMERALD