

Greek, Independent Nominees Announced for Frosh Election

Freshmen will get their first taste of Oregon politics when they meet tonight in Gerlinger hall to nominate officers and adopt a constitution. The meeting will be held in the women's gym at 7:30 p. m.

No nominations have been turned in to Harry Skerry, vice-president of the ASUO, but Jean Taylor, Greek bloc leader, has announced that Beverly Carroll, last term's chairman of the Christmas Seal drive, will run for number one position and Florence Hintzen, lately appointed co-chairman of the salvage committee, will run for number two position on the Greek ticket.

Odeon Show Set for April 6

Saturday, April 6, will be the date of Odeon, the annual creative art show, it was decided at a meeting of the Odeon committee Tuesday night in Friendly hall.

Material to be read, played, sung, or exhibited, may be submitted to judges now, according to Norris Yates, student chairman of the event. Deadlines will be announced later.

Judging will not be in the nature of a contest, Yates declared, but its purpose is to insure a reasonable high quality among the exhibits.

Among the examples of creative art expected to be submitted are original short stories, essays, poems, and plays; songs, and instrumental musical compositions; fashion designs and patterns; examples of painting, sculpture, and ceramics; and master dance routines.

The judging committee will consist of groups of students, each headed by a faculty member. An over-all faculty committee tentatively composed of Mrs. A. H. Ernst, Dr. Robert Horn, W. F. G. Thacher, George Hopkins, and Arnold Elston will have charge of the final selection of exhibits.

The heads of the student judging committees will be: Dr. Robert Horn, essays; W. F. G. Thacher, short stories; Mrs. A. H. Ernst, plays and poetry, and as yet unnamed.

(Please turn to page four)

Doris Jones, ISA president, stated that the independent candidates would be Leon Williams, freshman in liberal arts, and Alice Buckingham, freshman representative to the ISA cabinet.

The Greek bloc was planning to run Jocelyn Fancher and Marilyn Sage for number three and four positions but changed their minds when Harry Skerry, in charge of elections, advised Miss Taylor that with that many candidates running no one would get a majority vote through the preferential voting system.

Both political leaders stated that nominations were strictly on a merit basis.

Skerry will be chairman of the meeting tonight and the nominees will be introduced.

Skerry advised that a clean-up committee made up of the freshman class would be employed to remove all traces of the meeting afterwards so that gym classes could go on as usual Friday morning. Gerlinger hall had to be used because the soldiers occupy Villard hall, traditional meeting place of the freshmen, in the evening.

Elections will be held Friday from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. An announcement of the place will be made at the nomination assembly.

The constitution to be presented to the class is on the recommendation of the ASUO executive council. Amendments may be made at the meeting except for the section on preferential voting which is required for all classes.

Lt. Treadgold, Senior Six '43, Visits Campus

Lieutenant Donald Treadgold, who was graduated with honors in history in '43, is back in Eugene on a 10-day leave from Fort Benning, Georgia, where he recently graduated from officers training.

"Nelson, Peck and I, and a boy from Montana came all the way across country by plane," reported Treadgold, former Emerald man, referring to Jim Nelson, '43, and Harrison Peck, sophomore on the campus last year. "Had quite a time, too; we were grounded by weather once, but were pretty lucky and made it here in two days."

While at Oregon, Treadgold was a member of the Senior Six of Phi Beta Kappa, Cadet Lieutenant Colonel in the ROTC, and a

(Please turn to page four)

Jive, Books Both on Tap At Canteen

Jive hounds are asked to bring their record collections and join the crowd at the ASUO Canteen opening this Saturday at 7 p. m., third floor, Gerlinger hall, Nancy Ames, ASUO president, said Wednesday in announcing the opening of the canteen.

Marty Beard, junior in liberal arts, is in charge of the canteen. She will be assisted each Saturday by six official coed hostesses. This Saturday's hostesses will be Marjorie Leask, sophomore in liberal arts, and Betty Boyle, freshman in liberal arts, from Laurel lodge; Mary Sherman and Cecile Noreen, sophomores in liberal arts, Delta Gamma; Joyce Clark, sophomore in liberal arts, and Phoebe Smith, junior in liberal arts, from Phi Beta Pi.

A reading library and current magazine selection as well as the radio-phonograph will be supplied. The canteen is open to all soldiers and civilians on the campus.

Weekend Tilts May Avenge UO Defeats

Oregon's Webfoots will be out to avenge the twin defeats they suffered at the hands of the Washington Huskies when the Huskies arrive on the campus tomorrow for the final two games of their annual four game series. These final games will be played Friday and Saturday nights.

Conditions will be different for these games when the Webfoots

(Please turn to page three)

First Oregon Chinese, Alum, Enlists in Waves

Two wave "firsts" are in the record of Nymphia Lam, 1943 graduate of University of Oregon. She is the first Chinese woman to be enlisted in the waves in Oregon and is the first young woman of Chinese ancestry to join the waves from the entire Pacific Northwest.

NYMPHIA LAM

Miss Lam graduated from the University of Oregon in 1943 with a bachelor of arts degree in music. She served as treasurer of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary; as accompanist for music students and vocal professors; and as a member of the chorus. Previous to coming to the University, she attended Stanford university from 1939 to 1941, majoring in education.

Active in Chinese-American organizations, Miss Lam is a member of the Chinese Students' Christian association, the American-Chinese Women's league, and the Nation Reconstruction Forum chapter in Oregon. She has been active in war work as a member of the Red Cross Motor corps in

(Please turn to page three)

RAMSAY AMES . . .

. . . national pin-up girl, shown above, and Edgar Kennedy, famous comedian, at the right, who will headline the Hollywood Bond battalion program to be presented in McArthur court Saturday. They will be accompanied by five war heroes who will tell of their experiences.

Nancy Schmeer Out Ahead In 'Bonds Away' Competition

Forging way ahead of the other contestants, Nancy Schmeer, Gamma Phi Beta, has 3475 votes towards the title of "Bonds Away Girl" in the campus bond drive.

Running second is Irene Greshman, Delta Delta Delta, with 1900 votes and third is Joan Van Doren, Alpha Xi Delta, with 1425 votes. Running a close fourth is Lois McDonald, Birch lodge, whose score shot up to 1050 today.

Other candidates whose votes total more than 250 are: Sue Stater, Delta Gamma, 925; Bette Lee Barnes, Chi Omega, 900; Thomasine Rundell, Alpha Gamma, 825; Nancy Heber, Laurel lodge, 775; Annabel McArthur, Alpha Phi, 700; Marilyn Sage, Pi Beta Phi, 350; Betty Sprague, Kappa Alpha Theta, 275; and Nanette Holmes, Kappa Kappa Gamma, 250.

Total receipts turned in are $13,525 in maturity value and $15,100 in Co-op reports that so far $15,100 bonds have been bought.

'Cellist Thrills Igloo Audience

By ELIZABETH HAUGEN

Playing to a crowd of approximately 500 students, soldiers, and townspeople, Gregor Piatigorsky, world-renowned 'cellist, presented a richly varied program at McArthur court last night. The colorful tones of his fabulous Montagnana 'cello thrilled his audience, who called for several encores.

The first half of the program consisted of works by Mozart, Beethoven and Tchaikowsky. He played an encore of the Prelude in C Major by Bach, a stirring rhythmic number. The climax was reached in Prokofieff's "Music for Children", a Piatigorsky arrangement, followed by Fantasie-Stucke by Schumann.

The audience encored the virtuoso's final selection, and he returned with the "Swan" by Saint-Saean, "Horra Staccato" by Dinco, and "Rondo" by Vaber.

Asked why he had continued to play this instrument, although it was not as well-known as others, he explained:

(Please turn to page four)

AWS Answers Campbell Co-op

Dear Editor:

This letter is written to deny the accusations which appeared in yesterday's Emerald, of "inefficiency and manipulation of tickets" in the AWS Nickel Hop.

The charges expounded in the letter from Campbell club neglected to reveal considerations which cast a different light on the affair.

We contacted the members of Campbell club after it was learned that there were only eight men residing in the co-op. The following facts were presented to them. Because they had eight members, and since the winner is chosen on a percentage basis, it was obvious that they would win, even if they didn't turn out one hundred per cent. While other groups wouldn't stand a chance, because of the difficulty of contacting their members.

The boys were then requested to combine with Steiwer hall in taking part in the competition. The project was rejected our request. This adds up to one fact: Campbell club knew ahead of time what was going to happen. Still they condemned AWS as an inefficient organization, and go as far as to suggest that we disband.

Suffice it to say that we feel that we were unjustly accused, and deem it unnecessary to extend our reply further.

Sincerely,
The AWS Cabinet

Play Tickets on Sale Beginning Today

"Dark Victory" box office opens today, 10 a. m. Johnson hall. Phone 3300—extension 216 for reservations.