In the conference games Washington State was knocked from the ranks of the undefeated by Idaho as they broke into the win column with a 49-43 victory over the Staters. Washington still holds the lead as they drew a bye over the weekend. In other games Oregon defeated Oregon State, 52-33, to score their first victory of the current conference season.

In the civilian league Oregon holds the lead with 1 win as against 0 defeats, being followed by Washington State, Oregon State and Idaho respectively.

If A Buddy

Jackson Cramer is finishing basic flying training at Garner Field, California, while brother Bill is in AMGOT training at Princeton. Phi Delt's Howdy Hall, '46, is now learning the "cut throat business" of the U. S. Rangers somewhere in Tennessee. (Thanks lots, for the tip, Gordon.)

John Windall Gilfry, '49, major in business administration, received his commission from Amarillo, Texas, last month. He is now safety inspection officer in the 302nd technical school at Keesler field, Mississippi.

A very unusual V-mail letter was received at the Emerald from Pfc. John J. Mathews, now serving with the Air Transport Command. His whereabouts was revealed in a very interesting way. In banner lines at the top, "SHACK-RAT DISCOVERED" while underneath read, "John J.

Mathews, onetime associate editor, reveals self in Australia". Rather novel, don't you think!

Tau pledge Pete Miller is stationed at Ryan Field, Hamet, California. Pete will graduate from pre-flight training in two weeks and from there he will go on into basic.

There was a regular homecoming in the Side yesterday. Don Treadgold, Phi Beta Kappa, and a member of last year's Senior Six, sports a gold bar now. He was seen sipping coke with Edie Onthank. Also in on furlough and appearing at the old hang-out was 2nd Lt. Don Campbell of the Marines. Just out of school in California, he will go from here to South Carolina. And, too, looking very neat and trim was 1st Lt. Paul Bocci. He's been stationed at Camp Shelby, Mississippi.

Weekend Tilts May

(Continued from page one) take the floor against the Huskies. The team that will be travelling with Her Edmundson will be a civilian team, and not one that is reinforced by navy-marine trainees.

Washington boasts a strong starting team with Haug and Mallory at forward, Mar and O'Neil as guards, and Nichols in the pivot position.

Five out of every six members of the 1943 graduating class in the agriculture at Washington State college are in the armed service. Of those who are not in uniform three are working for state governments or institutions, one is teaching vocational agriculture and two are farming.

Houses to Compete For Badminton Title

The annual badminton tournament between houses will begin Tuesday, January 25, at 4 p. m. Entry blanks are being delivered now to all houses and should be returned as quickly as possible. The deadline for entering is January 21 at 5 p. m.

Teams may start practicing Wednesday. Other practice times will be Wednesday evening at 7:30, Thursday at 4 p. m. or Saturday at 9 a. m.

Schedule of matches will be posted on the bulletin board at the entrance to the women's dressing room in Gerlinger, Monday, January 24.

Each team will consist of four players. The top two ranking will play on the number one doubles team, while the last two will play on the number two doubles team. All four players will be scheduled to play singles. Equipment must be furnished by each team, including rackets and one shuttle for each match.

First Oregon Chinese

(Continued from page one) Portland. For eight years she was accompanist for professional and amateur soloists in Portland and San Francisco and at the University of California, Stanford university and University of Oregon.

She has traveled in both China and Japan. And with her knowledge of Chinese, which she speaks fluently, she is scheduled for a vital job for the U. S. Navy.

Before joining the waves, she was a stenographer-bookkeeper for the Professional Credit Service at Eugene.

Proposed Freshman Class Constitution

(Editor's Note: Following is the proposed class constitution for the Class of 1947, published at the request of the ASUO executive council.)

CONSTITUTION
