

HELLO, DADS!

$122,550 Mark Hit In Bond Girl Contest

Oregon's bond sales leaped to $122,550 Friday with only a half day left in the campus war bond drive held in conjunction with the national fourth war loan drive. Betty Sprague, Kappa Alpha Theta, is in the lead for the title of "Bonds Away Girl" with 15,750 votes.

Bond receipts may be turned in to the educational activities office up until noon today, Jean Fridger, campus war board chairman announced. The five finalists will be announced at the Hollywood calvacade program Saturday afternoon at 2 in the Igloo. All candidates should be in the audience by that time, Miss Fridger stated. They should wear short silks and heels. Ramsay Ames, national pin-up girl, Comedian Edgar Kennedy, and the five war heroes, Captain John S. Young, army, Sergeant Lloyd B. Seeney, army, boatswain mate 1st class J. P. Nixon, navy, Sergeant Edward J. Burmab, marine corps and seaman first class J. J. Roybol, navy, will judge the finalists during the program but announcement of the winner will not be made until half-time at the Oregon-Washington game in the evening. Ed Averill, president of the Dads, and J. M. Treece, secretary, have also been asked to serve as judges.

Civilian men students living in boarding houses may pick up their tickets for the show at the Co-op this morning. Living organizations who have not already sent a representative to the Co-op for their tickets should also do so by this noon. Servicemen are admitted free.

Two girls are in the 11,000 vote brackets. Sue Stater, Delta Gamma, is second with 11,750 and Thomasine Rundell, Alpha Gamma Delta, has 11,050. Laurel lodge's candidate, Nancy Heber, is fourth with 10,575 votes. Others in the higher brackets are Jean Villair, Alpha Delta Pi, with 10,275; Bette Lee Barnes, Chi Omega, 9775; and Jean Carkin, Alpha Omicron Pi, 8575.

Escorting the five finalists at the game Saturday night will be five representatives from the soldier students: George Douglas, air corps, Dick Maier, ROTC, Eugene L. Mulligan, engineers, Keith Van Dyck, SAE house, and Eugene F. Tuura, foreign area and language students.

At the half-time program of the game, the boy who bought the most bonds will be announced. He will receive a date with the "Bonds Away Girl" with all expenses paid for dinner and dancing at the Eugene hotel.

June Buckles Wins Annual AWS Award

The annual Associated Women Students' scholarship has been awarded, announced Marilyn Campbell, president of the group. The winner is June Buckles, senior in liberal arts.

Dads' Day Doings Open Today

READY TO MEET DADS . . .

. . . and do their best to entertain all parents on the campus today are Edith Newton, publicity chairman, Bob Hemphill, general chairman, Jean Taylor, luncheon chairman, and Arliss Boone, hospitality chairman, for Dads' day. Also on the committee, but not in the picture, is Marian Schaefer, registration chairman.

"Hi, Dad. Greetings from the campus," is the official cry today as dads arrive to celebrate the seventeenth annual Dads' day on the campus.

Special events for all day have been planned to keep dads entertained and still to give them time to visit with their children. First important thing on the schedule is registration at Johnson hall which will start at 10 a. m. and last until 12:30, moving then to the Eugene hotel lobby to accommodate fathers who arrive on the noon train from Portland and want to register before the luncheon.

Marian Schaefer, junior in business administration, is in charge of registration. Phi Theta Upsilon members, assisted by freshmen will register the fathers who will be given a tag to identify them.

Big event of the day will be the luncheon at the Eugene hotel at 1 o'clock with Ed Averill, president of the Oregon Dads' club, acting as toastmaster and Ernest Haycox as the featured speaker. Janet Marugg, official welcome girl for Dad's day will be introduced. All students and their parents are invited to this affair. Tickets are still available and should be called for immediately this morning at the dean of men's office in Johnson hall.

The business meeting of the dads following the luncheon will be in Guild theater, Johnson hall. Dads are asked to attend this if possible. Election of new officers will take place at this time.

After the business meeting there will be open house on the campus and dads are invited to visit the University library, the museum of art, the museum of natural history in Condon hall, the physical education building, the student health service and the various departments which will be open for inspection.

Dads will be guests of their sons and daughters for dinner at 6 in the living organizations and immediately afterwards can go to the basketball game in McArthur court between the University varsity team and the University of Washington.

At 9:30 the University play, "Dark Victory", will make its premier performance on the campus in the Guild theater with Ray Korn playing the leading role.

Sunday morning will feature the breakfast meeting of the old and new members of the Oregon Dads' executive committee at the Eugene hotel.

Special Dad's day services will be held in all Eugene churches at 11 Sunday morning.

After dinner with sons and daughters, dads and mothers are invited to attend the 3 o'clock campus serenade by Owen Bailey's swing band in Gerlinger hall.

Assisting Bob Hemphill, general chairman of the event, were Marian Schaefer, registration chairman, Jean Taylor, luncheon chairman, Arliss Boone, housing chairman, and Edith Newton, publicity chairman.

Leon Williams Made President

With two-thirds of the freshmen voting, Independent Candidate Leon Williams was elected president of the freshman class Friday. Beverly Carroll, number one on the Greek ticket, was elected vice-president. Number three position was won by Alice Buckingham, independent, and number four went to Greek Florence Hintzen.

Although there are 660 members of the class of 1947, only 441 voted.

Army Lounge To Be Opened

Opening tonight, the ASUO Canteen on the third floor of Gerlinger hall will offer a place of recreation and relaxation for non-daters and dates from 7 until 12:30 p. m., Marty Beard, chairman, announced Friday.

A reading library, radio-phonograph, selection of magazines, cards, dance-floor, and six official hostesses will be provided, she said. Recreationers will be permitted to bring their own records or books, she added.

Hostesses assisting Miss Beard this Saturday will be Marjorie Leask and Betty Boyle, Laurel lodge; Mary Serman and Cecile Noreen, Delta Gamma; Joyce Clark and Phoebe Smith, Pi Beta Phi.

ASTU Quintet To Meet Willamette Navycats

The ASTU quintet will meet the Willamette U. Navycats at Salem tonight in a bid for their fourth win. A large crowd is expected to see the double-bill, pairing Willamette's "A" and "B" teams against ASTU and Tillamook naval training station for the Infantile Paralysis Benefit fund. The ASTU five will be out to get revenge for a 25-6 football defeat in September.

The Army-Duck crew was bolstered by the return of Bob Worth, stellar Minnesota cager, at guard.

Bailey's Band Beats Out At Sunday 'Swing Spree'

Owen Bailey, leader of the army dance band, has announced some of the numbers which will be played during Sunday's Campus Serenade. The band has recently obtained a large stock of tunes new to their repertoire, and several of them will be presented at their concert beginning at 3 p. m. in Gerlinger hall.

A new, and very full, arrangement of the famed "Anvil Chorus" will feature a hot drum break by "Whitey" White. When "Whitey" and the boys first ran through the number at a recent rehearsal, the drummer boy so impressed the group that they decided to feature his solo at their first opportunity.

The woodwind section will have a chance to show off its talents when the band plays "Down Under." Ace Fehlberg and Jack Blumenthal share clarinet and tenor sax honors in a couple of twelve bar "rides".

Bob Stottlar, first trumpeter, will shine as he does a take off on Harry James' "You Made Me Love You".

Four of the band's tunes Sunday will feature vocals. Sue Welch, the band's first lady of song, will sing "Blue Rain" and "My Ideal". George Barker, a performer of the last Serenade will sing "No Love, No Nothin'". As a contrast to the more modern tunes, Jimmie Kayes will be present to give a tender rendition of "Mother MacCree".

Bailey, pianist Ralph Sutton, and White have cooked up a novelty trio arrangement of an old tune. The opus will begin well-camouflaged by its old-fashioned garb. But midway, the three wise

Huskies Slap Ducks, 57-38

Washington's mighty Huskies rolled to a 57-38 victory over the fighting Webfoots of Oregon last night at McArthur court. The Huskies took a fast lead and held it throughout the game. They were never threatened by the Ducks although they had to fight hard to keep the contest under control.

The brilliant play of the Huskies on the floor was sparked by Codd, who besides his excellent floor work also scored 21 points to capture high-point honors for the evening.

Nichols of the Huskies was next with 12. High for Oregon was Phillips with 9.

At half-time the Huskies led 27-17.

The line-ups were for Oregon: Bray, F, 7; Mayther, F, 2; Borrevik, C, 6; Caviness, G, 6; Phillips, G, 9; Henwood, G, 1; Hamilton, G, 7; Koch, G, 0; and for Washington: Kretzler, F, 0; Mallory, F, 4; Sutherland, F, 2; O'Neil, F, 8; Peterson, F, 6; Nichols,
