

Nominations Run According To Schedule

Candidates Tell Need For Student Activity

"Because of her interest in the many phases of student life," Phyllis Horstman, Greek candidate, was nominated for ASUO president by Sue Sawyer; and "because of her wide experience in student government," Audrey Holliday, ISA-backed candidate, was nominated for the same position by Marianne Blenkinsop at the ASUO nomination assembly Thursday afternoon.

Barbara Younger nominated Jean Taylor, unavoidably detained in the infirmary with the chicken pox, as the Greek candidate for the number two spot, and Adele Riggs, ISA nominee for that position was nominated by Marjorie Major Goodwin.

Fay Rice nominated Ruth Van Buskirk, Greek candidate for the third position.

The rest of the nominations were just as cut and dried with Anne Craven and Alyson Hales nominated.

Sophs Make Nominations

Aside from a discussion on their financial condition, the sophomore class meeting Thursday night was devoted to the nomination of previously-announced candidates for junior class offices.

For number one position the Greeks nominated Virginia Wright; and the independents, Esther Griffiths, Marilyn Holden, Greek, and Charlotte Calder, independent, are candidates for the number two position.

Miss Krieg to Take Over Post of Acting Librarian

Miss Clarice Krieg, cataloguing librarian, has been named acting librarian for the remainder of the fiscal year ending June 30, Orlando John Hollis, acting president of the University, announced Thursday.

The appointment, subject to the approval of the state board of higher education, fills the vacancy left by Willis C. Warren, acting librarian since 1942, who has entered the United States naval reserve as a lieutenant (j.g.) on leave of absence from the University. Mr. Warren was graduated from the University of Oregon with both a bachelor of arts and master of arts degree, and holds a certificate in librarianship from the University of California. He has been on the University staff from 1930 to 1934 and since 1935 in various capacities. He left Wednesday for naval training school indoctrination at Tucson, Arizona.

Miss Krieg, a graduate of the University of Iowa in 1932, received her bachelor of library science and her master of arts from the University of Illinois. She came to the campus in 1941.

Restless Coupe Goes Exploring

Even automobiles are affected by an election year. At least the one owned by Margaret E. Meier, Junction City, seemed to have been. The car couldn't stand the inactivity of being parked in front of Gerlinger hall on the campus Wednesday while its mistress was inside, became impatient in the pest political tradition it decided to "take a walk."

The restless coupe rolled out of the circular driveway, wandered down University street for half a block. Thereupon it felt the urge to explore the realms of nature, did a rounded right turn, and tripped on rubber tiptoes across two lawns, through a hedge, and ended up in communion with a rather stubborn oak at 1433 University.

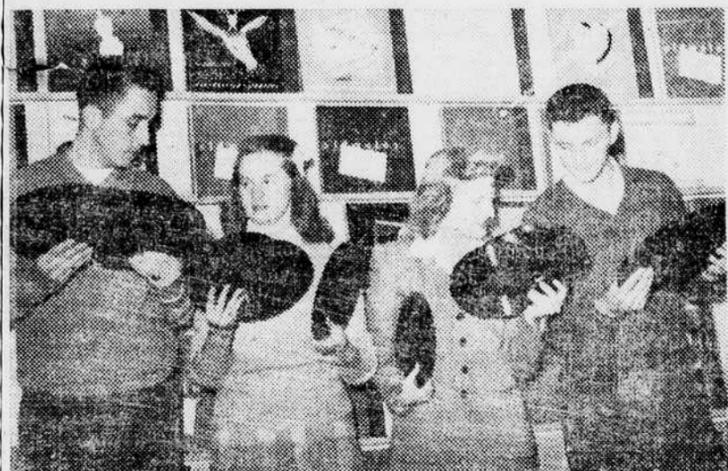

Police who were summoned to the scene returned the travel-weary car to its owner. Rewards of a globe-trotter—two broken headlights and memories to tell generations of new batteries and carburetors.

Mothers' Fund Nears $5000

Nearly $2000 has been raised by the Oregon Mother's association this year. This total is the largest amount collected in the history of that organization. The Mothers' goal for their revolving fund is $10,000; the present fund totals nearly $5000, $500 of which was given by the University Mothers in 1944.

The University of Oregon branch sponsors three scholarships totaling $500, and an equal amount will be given to worthy students in smaller scholarships of approximately $50 to $75 each. Last year the scholarship money was awarded to pre-nursing students. Mrs. Ralph R. Huestis, a member of the state executive board, was enthusiastic about the present plan of awarding small scholarships to many people since, she stated, it often made it possible for some records wondering which three tunes will win for the annual Frosh Glee Saturday. Above are Russ Monahan, co-chairman, Nancy Sampson, publicity, Nadyne Neet, co-chairman, and Leon Williams, president.

Melody Mood to Feature Skull and Dagger Tapping

Adding to the excitement of the Frosh Glee Saturday night will be the tapping of seven Skull and Dagger pledges from members of the freshman class. Tapping at the Glee is a tradition with the sophomore men's honorary and this year's members plan to uphold the tradition, according to Bob Mueller, president.

Junior Queen Selection Set For Today

All students on the campus, including air corps and pre-med students, are eligible to vote today for Junior Weekend queen candidates. Polls will be open in the Co-op from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Civilian students must present their University registration cards.

Of the eight names on the ballots, voters will mark the five they believe would make the best court to rule over Junior Weekend festivities. The coed receiving the most votes will be queen, while the four runners-up will complete the court. In case of a tie, the Junior Weekend directorate, which is composed of the top committee chairmen, will decide.

For the first time since the army band left, there will be a band to play on the campus. Leonard Ray and his seven-piece orchestra will feature the three top tunes chosen by the students, which will be sung by Sue Welch. Ray's crew is made up of civilian men on the campus and promises to be one of the best, Russ Monahan, general chairman of the dance, said.

All living organizations are asked by Nancy Sampson, publicity chairman, to remember to vote on their favorite song before Friday afternoon. Each house is to handle its own voting and to be sure to have the names ready to give to a representative who will call for them Friday afternoon. At noon today a poll will be taken of the air corps and pre-med students to determine their favorites.

Time for the dance has been changed to 8 p.m. which is more convenient for the air corps men.
