Relay Opener Parade Sparks Hayward Meet

Parading with high school track teams at the start of the annual Hayward relays Saturday afternoon at Hayward field will be the University men students, faculty, and outsiders who act as officials for the event. These officials must be at McArthur court by 12:45 Saturday in order to don their white pants.

Coach John A. Warren will be starter; Harry Hargreaves, referee; George Wilson, head field judge; W. R. Baker, announcer; and Richard K. Strite, scorer. The latter three men are assistant professors of physical education.

At the close of the meet, attention will be on William L. "Bill" Hayward, track coach at the University, for he will present awards.

Judges on duty for the finish will include Ross Carter, Anson B. Cornell (athletic manager at McArthur court), "Skeet" Manerud, Dr. Glenn Morgan, and Curtis Butterfield. Most of the field judges are students, as follows: Lynnton Elwell, Marion Huff, Jerry Mosby, Nick Weddle, Nish Chapman, Milton Surface, Robert Gibson, Donald Ruecker, Gilbert Roberts, and Irvin Schulz.

Acting as timers will be Art Morris, P. O. Sigereth, G. W. Tompkins, Dr. George Guldager, and Ruben Ross. Working with Coach Howard Hobson as clerks of the course will be three students: Evans Cantrell, Browning Allen, and Lewis Vogler. Students Robert Johnson, Robert Hamilton, Robert Mueller, and Edwin Allen are to be zone inspectors.

On the officials list as block setters are R. M. Paine, Allan Hagland, Al Ford, Milton Sparks, and Dick Davis. Lowell Burr is a finish tender, while baton tenders are Russell Monahan, John Weisel, and Dick Reich. Michael M. Steddom is superintendent of the grounds.
