

Prime Minister Election Today

All those holding tickets to the Junior Prom are reminded to be sure to vote today from 9 to 1 and 4 to 5 in the Co-op for prime minister of Junior Weekend.

Pictures of the five finalists will be on display. They are George Wilson, Harlowe Bohn, Dick Foss, William O'Bierne, and Bob Kirby.

The prime minister will crown her majesty, Queen Anita Fernandez, at the campus picnic, tomorrow afternoon.

Bang-up Cleanup Job Reported

"Looks pretty good, doesn't it?" commented Dean Karl Onthank to Gloria Malloy, co-chairman of the clean-up campaign, when he briefly surveyed the results of yesterday's afternoon of paper-picking and sidewalk-sweeping.

"'Pretty good' isn't the word," added Gloria. "I think the kids have done a marvelous job, really marvelous! They even got out there and swept the streets until we told them it wasn't necessary to go quite that far."

From the looks of things the campus has brightened up; no more empty weed packages, no more soggy lipsticked cig ends, no more pink kleenex scattered over the lawns. And Saturday afternoon at the all-campus picnic the house which has done the best clean-up job will be announced and awarded their mysterious prize.

Phi Betes Elect

(Continued from page 1)
gustus Spoehr, chairman of the division of plant biology and biological research of the Carnegie Institution of Washington, D.C., will deliver the lecture at 8:15 in Alumni hall.

Mr. Turnbull Named

(Continued from page 1)
did not know specific details. The committee is one of several appointed by Professor Frederic E. Merwin of Rutgers college, New Brunswick, N. J., president of the association, to look into the future of journalism teaching.

Politz Appointed

(Continued from page 1)
come book features with more specific details about life at Oregon. It will be free to everyone on the campus.

In pocket size with 100 or 150 pages, the book will have a colored, hand-drawn cover and will contain drawings and pictures illustrating its material.

All yells, traditions, songs, a copy of the ASUO constitution and bylaws, description of the departments of student government and of the function of committees and boards will be printed in it.

The committee in charge of the handbook is composed of Dean Karl W. Onthank, Horace Robinson, Mary Riley, and Nancy Ames.

Some specific ideas for the book's contents are the traditions of Junior Weekend, etiquette at the Side, campus clothes, study habits, student-professor relationships, and explanation of such affairs as the Nickel Hop.

Plans for the handbook are not yet definitely formulated. The last book of this type was put out by the University in 1932.

Swimmers Tell

(Continued from page one)
her career, will be told in true aquacade style by all members of the swimming group, according to Charlene Browne, chairman of the presentation committee.

Other members of the group who are assisting Miss Browne in the program are Doris Trask and Pat Ferguson.

From 1 until 3 this afternoon, all chemistry labs will be open. Soldier classes will be in session, and there will be civilian students at work on experiments, although there will be set demonstrations.

An opportunity to see the "inside story" of a chemistry lab is offered to the public.

Special diving exhibitions by individual members of the group will be featured, and group swimming acts will be presented between the acts of the "Lifeguardess' Life," announced Milo Woodward, president of the honorary.

The Amphibian show is planned as part of the campus-wide program of entertainment being presented for Junior and Mothers' Weekend. Although the program is especially for the pleasure of visiting parents, the public is invited and no admission will be charged.

A definite description of the

Wanted

WOMEN STUDENTS for lunch and dinner hour help at the Anchorage.

exact content of the entertainment is lacking—it is shrouded in secrecy, but Dame Rumor has it that two bathing suits are being used by each of the participants in one scene.

GLAD YOU'RE WITH US, MOTHER

We hope you'll enjoy a well-earned weekend with your daughter. If you've a little time, why not drop in . . . daughter might like to talk over a new dress while you're here to give her your advice.

GORDON'S

owned, operated by Edgar L. Rice . . . known for its young fashions

REX
"DESTINATION TOKYO"
— and —
"NOBODY'S DARLING"

MAYFLOWER
ELEVENTH AT ALGER
"THE IMPOSTER"
JEAN GABIN
ALLEN JOSLYN

HEILIG
"NONE SHALL ESCAPE"
MARSHA HUNT
ALEXANDER KNOX

Flowers

A Sentimental GIFT for Mother

Will make her long remember this Mother's Weekend

A Lovely Corsage for the Prom will thrill her too!

FLOWERS BY WIRE

CHASE GARDENS
58 E. Broadway Phone 4240

Fine Color Prints

Reproductions of famous paintings, mostly moderns, in a wide variety of subjects, by many great painters.

Now on

Exhibition and Sale

No better showing on west coast north of Los Angeles.

|| One of these fine prints will add greatly to the home or college room and be a joy forever. ||

MOTHER SHOULD SEE THEM

University 'CO-OP' Store