

Queen Anita to Rule Prom

THE ROYAL COURT . . .

. . . makes ready for an entrance today at the Campus Picnic, when Queen Anita Fernandez will be crowned. In the picture, from left to right: Princesses Pegge Klepper, Phyllis Horstman, Queen Anita, Elaine Wilson, and Frances Colton.

NEW PRIME MINISTER . . .

. . . Bob Kirby sits with his running mates from the air corps. From left to right: Harlowe Bohn, Bill O'Beirne, George Wilson, Kirby, Dick Foss.

PICNIC PREPARATIONS . . .

. . . are being made by Flora Kibler, left, and Sally Spiess, co-chairmen of the Campus Picnic for today.

WHO? ME . . .

. . . says a member of Asklepiads to the skeleton practicing tapping for the picnic today. Both the medical honorary, right, and Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, left, will tap their new pledges at that time.

Mother Goose to Appear With Dancers Tonight At Junior Prom in Igloo

Mother Goose characters will come alive on the walls of McArthur court tonight in a new wartime guise, when "Mother Goose Goes to War" at the Junior Prom—the last dance of the year. The ball room of the Igloo will be ringed with large colorful prints of fairy-tale people in their new capacities.

Phyllis Horstman, chairman of the Prom, has announced that dancing will begin at 9 p.m., to the music of Bill Fisher's band from Portland, and it will last till midnight. Flowers, formals, soft lights and all the glamour of years gone by will be in order for the climax of the Junior Weekend celebration.

Honored guests for the Prom will be her majesty, Queen Anita Fernandez, and her court, Elaine Wilson, Phyllis Horstman, Frances Colton, and Pegge Klepper. The royal court will be presented to the audience during intermission by Marion Gage, president of the junior class.

Also to take place during intermission is the presentation of the Gerlinger and Koyl cups to the outstanding junior woman and the outstanding junior man.

The Burt Brown Barker award to the women's house with the highest scholastic achievement for the year, will also be made at the Prom. The award which usually goes to the men's house with the finest record has been discontinued until after the war.

Refreshments will be served during intermission to the patrons and patronesses on the floor. Mothers and fathers watching the Prom from the balcony above will be served by members of the Eugene Oregon Mothers' club.

Campus Picnic To Feature Food, Canoe Fete

The green lawn of the lower campus will be the focus of attention of students and visiting parents alike today at 5:30 p.m., for the all-campus picnic.

Lunches are to be brought by the various living organizations. Soldiers are instructed to pick up their lunches at Hendricks hall on their way from the Terrace Dance. The lunches for the army will be made up by Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, director of dormitories. Coffee and ice cream, supplied by the junior class, will add the final touches to the supper brought from home.

At about 6 p.m. the strains "Pomp and Circumstance" will usher in her majesty, Queen Anita Fernandez, the newly-elected prime minister, Bob Kirby, and her court, Princesses Elaine Wilson, Phyllis Horstman, Pegge Klepper, and Frances Colton, accompanied by their escorts, the aides to the prime minister, George

(Please turn to page four)

