

Psychologist Gives Tests

Maria Rickers-Ovsiankina, a Russian psychologist who taught at the University summer quarter, conducted a seminar in the administration, scoring, and interpretation of the Rorschach test for identifying differences in personality, in both the first and second sessions as well as teaching general and abnormal psychology.

Although she has been in the United States since 1931 Miss Rickers-Ovsiankina had never been west of Chicago until this summer. Her first position in America was at the Worcester state hospital, Worcester, Mass., doing research. In 1936 she accepted a position teaching psychology at Wheaton college, Norton, Mass., where she is now an associate professor.

Miss Rickers did most of her university work in Europe studying at the Universities of Berlin, Giessen and Heidelberg, and received both a master's and doctor's degree in psychology with minors in philosophy and art.

New President Promised

(Continued from page one)

of the State System of Higher Education.

"Under consideration at present are 30 leading scholars and eminent administrators, four of whom are presidents of other institutions, 17 are vice-presidents, deans and men of similar rank, and the remainder heads of departments and leaders in academic fields. A number of these are temporarily in military service.

"These nominations were made by Chancellor Hunter after consultation with University faculty groups and members of the State Board of Higher Education. Most of the nominees have been recommended by such eminent institutions as the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the United States Office of Education, and leading universities through their respective presidents.

"Under consideration, in addition to the 30 above mentioned, are prominent local educational leaders. The present trend seems to be toward a young man. Dr. Orlando Hollis, acting president, is being considered for the position.

"In appointing an acting presi-

RECEIVING THE PURPLE HEART . . .

. . . is Marine Second Lieutenant Howard A. Leggett, former University of Oregon student. He was wounded by a Jap sniper on Tarawa. The presentation was made by Major General Julian C. Smith, who commanded the second marine division at Tarawa. Lt. Leggett went to the University from 1941 to 1933 and studied business administration. He was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

dent the board expected to spend a year in finding a suitable person to fill the vacancy permanently. Groups of nominees under consideration for the position are being invited to come to Oregon to confer with board members, the chancellor and faculty groups."

"Frederick M. Hunter, Chancellor State System of Higher Education"

Former UO Student Hurt in South Pacific

Marine Corporal Martin Feldman was wounded during the invasion of the Marshalls and is now recuperating at a United States naval hospital in California.

Feldman went to the University in 1941-42.

Historical Monograph On Railroads Written

A 100-page book on the early railroads in Oregon, written by Henry Villard and edited by Oswald Garrison Villard, is just off the University press.

The book, entitled "The Early History of Transportation in Oregon," was completed before Henry Villard's death in 1900, but at his own request its publication was delayed for many years until its appearance in serial form in the Oregonian in 1926.

Hello Students!

Welcome back to Eugene, and a special welcome to all of you new students.

This year as last we offer you the same fine services that you received last year.

Remember—for extra vitality eat William's Enriched Bread and rolls, call . . .

Williams Bakery

1760 E. 13th

Phone 914-J

Look Your Best!!

Make a good first impression on the campus!

IF you're a new fellow on the campus be sure you look your best. Have your clothes cleaned scientifically by a firm that has been established in Eugene for years. Send us your slack suits, suits, sport jackets and all of your college wear. Call us for quick, efficient cleaning and service.

WHAT A PRETTY BLOUSE! . . .

Keep it lovely by having it cleaned properly. Don't waste in war-time. Do as other co-eds do, have it cleaned at . . .

EUGENE CLEANERS

FOR QUALITY CLEANING

245 E. Broadway

Phone 75

Arrive in Eugene
Go see the dean.

Next to unpack
Your clothes on a rack.

Then come and see us,
No bother or fuss.

We love serving you,
We always do;
So come when you can
And meet your man

at . . .

Lemon-O

Corner of 13th and Alder

Phone 2717