

UO Enrollee Tally Rises

Student enrollment has increased by eight per cent over last year, according to figures released by the registrar's office this week. A total of 1,770 have registered, in contrast to last year's total of 1,654. This figure includes 1419 women and 380 men.

To date, there have been only five civilian withdrawals, and those for health, military, and miscellaneous reasons.

The freshman class claims the greatest number of students with 849 enrolled; the sophomores second with 574; and the junior and senior classes are 115 and 156, respectively. There are 31 students in special and auditor classes and 54 graduates. The liberal arts course has the greatest number of students, with a total of 960.

Saturday noon, October 7, is the last date of registration, according to C. L. Constance, assistant registrar.

A Slip Of The Lip

at the Theta's pink palace was the engagement of Alice Lockhart to Phi Kappa Tau Phil Vander. Alpha Gam Louise Fletcher is proudly displaying a diamond from fiancee Dick Landis.

Everyone please note the bars that Tri-Delt Pat Tague is sporting from fiancee Dick Storm—better watch that twosome for further developments. ADPi Marty Beard is anticipating a weekend visit from her fiancée—it looked sort of like Portland, particularly Grant high, had moved into town last weekend—to see Pi Phi pledges JoAnne Bush and Helen Hicks.

The marines really took over this summer as far as ADPi Dottie Maddox was concerned. Reports have it that Chi O Margery Skordahl and Raynor Morrison are definitely on the beam again. Two mighty happy girls are Kappas Bobbie Pearson and Nancy Baker—Bill Healy and Mac Bosch are due home in about two weeks, unless the army feels otherwise. It's a split-up for Gayle Nelson and Cliff Mallicoat—she's been seen everywhere with Bud Roscum—looks like a big affair in the offing—Cliff's been dating Phi Annabel MacArthur lately. . . .

What's this about the big birthday party that the Thetas had at the hotel this weekend? "We three make a wonderful couple"—as sung by Terry Carroll, Ron Peterson, and Gamma Phi Natalie Brown—seems that there was a little mixup this weekend—how about that? That Nancy Schmeer-Bill Elder steady deal is set for another year. . . . Theta Polly Chafe's one-and-only, Johnny Kroder, will be on the campus winter term—ditto brother Jim Kroder. Keith Murphy, last term yell leader, now in the merchant marine, will probably return winter term, much to the joy of Kappa fiancée, Marilyn Pollard.

Tri-Delt Phil Lehman is still in the same triangle—which is it going to be, air corps or the navy? We'd like to know. Eloise Mulhausen is sporting the sword and shield of Phi Delt Don Bridenstein these days. Guess Phi pledge Barbara Hessemer was kept mighty busy with her two navy men this weekend. Gamma Phi Anita Fernandez had two visitors the other day—namely, Loren Wood and Kenny Roberts. Bob Davis had been occupying a lot of Kappa pledge Marilyn Williams' time lately, it seems.

Alpha Phis are wondering who the anonymous character is who calls up regularly and asks for the Alice from California. Alyson Hales, Kappa house prexy, has been dividing her attention between two mysterious men lately, but it appears that she is most fascinated by the one named Elmer at present. On the subject of mysteries, it is promised that something is going to break up Tri-Delt way 'most any day now.

A weekend visitor who came down to see ADPi Lorraine Davidson was OSC Phi Delt Gordon Ekstrom, just returned from three years in the South Seas. The Sigma Chi pin that Chi O pledge Sally Anne Luke has been wearing, is from "Babe" Groshong—Theta pledge Gloria Grenfell is sporting Phi Psi brass from Bill Sagan—Tri Delt Dodie Frideger is all agog these days over the anticipated furlough of Don "Fat Man" Ruecker—that letter that Dodie received last week from Mario Beteta, the Mexican general's son, was really a masterpiece of Latin-American romance. . . .

The Beta badge on Theta pledge Nancy Rivenburgh belongs to George Walker. Hal White has been escorting Tri-Delt pledge JoAnne Merwin pretty steadily—and that goes for Bill O'Hearn and Gamma Phi pledge JoAnne Preble—Chi O Pat Smith is now the proud possessor of Paul Basche's Sigma Chi cross—Jack McCracken was on the campus last weekend to see Robbie Bowman—Wally Johnson, once more on the eligible list, has gone overboard for Kappa's Mary Fairchild—wonder if Phi pledge Sue Schoenfeldt accepted the charges on that collect call from San Diego?

That impromptu date between Treva Jane Parson and Kenny Geiger might lead to something—Louise Goodwin is expecting a visit soon from Beta, now second lieutenant, Ray Farmer. Looks like Ray "Frankenstein" Carter is number one on Betty Green's list at the present writing—wonder if Donnie Boylan and Dick Dahlstrom are going to make it a steady twosome?

The Tri-Delt house was pleasantly surprised at the announcement of Jane Corkran's betrothal to Lee Baugus of Camp Adair, the culmination of a very unusual romance—seems that Jane's mother met Lee on the train, liked him, and as a further friendly gesture, invited him to their home for dinner—well, Lee and Jane were introduced, and you know the rest! On this pleasant note we'll leave you then, until next week.

of a civilian college education, activities, and social contacts with hundreds of classmates. We are back in the lecture halls at old desks, beginning again where we left off.

Why then form a veterans' organization and set ourselves apart and distinct from the University civilian life we came here to enjoy and benefit from? Why further split up the meager male population to promote social activity. Why retract to a military organization? Better to be a part of an aggressive University life with the entire student body.
