

Purity Boys Defeat Campbell Club 38-0

Paced by speedy Spike Cordero, the Purity boys, playing with a star-studded lineup, throttled Campbell club in a hail of touchdowns, 38 to 0, in Tuesday's 5 o'clock football game.

The Purity boys opened the game with a lightning thrust for the first score as they sent Cordero around end to scamper into the end zone and chalk up six points. Shortly after the next kickoff, the Campbell seven started an aerial offensive, but one of the passes found its way into the arms of defensive halfback Bob Davis, who skirted down the sidelines for 50 yards and the second Purity score. Once more in the first half the Purity team resorted to ground work and halfback Browning Allen went wide around his own right end to ring up six more points for the winners.

The second half saw the Purity team score twice on end sweeps, as Cordero went the distance on both attempts. With the ball in their hands in the closing minutes of play, the Campbell club boys filled the air with a barrage of passes, but once more this ended in disaster as Jim Bartlett intercepted and put the ball in scoring position for an end run into pay dirt by Steve Dippel.

Ground work with a backfield full of speedy ball carriers was the main weapon of the Purity boys, but they relied on several passes for substantial gains, and converted on two occasions with passes.

Loves Horses

This Kwama executive is also an ardent equestrienne—that is, she rides horses, and is fairly good at it, too. She also goes in for canoeing, boating of any kind, and skiing. "But I despise swimming," she shuddered. "It's fun to be ON the water, but not IN it, if you know what I mean."

Last year Butch was also the owner of the gaudy yellow rattletrap which used to bound around the campus on two wheels with a dozen kids hanging on frantically. Now she is trying to pull a few strings to get her family to give her

There will be a Kwama meeting at 4 today at the Theta house.

Men? "Sure," Butch drawled. "One brother in the naval air corps, another brother married, and a step-brother overseas in the European theater." The situation seems to be well in hand.
