

'Purity's' Beat Alder; Hold Lead

Marion Huff's Purity boys continue to maintain a strong foothold on first place honors after defeating Alder hall 7-0 in the first game of a double header Saturday. In the nightcap, Boyd's eked out a 1-0 victory over Kappa Sigma in overtime play after both teams had played scoreless ball for four quarters.

In another overtime game, Tuesday, Sigma Nu defeated Campbell club 7-6. Campbell club scored in the last ten seconds of the first half with Forrest Miller racing down the sidelines for 40 yards and a touchdown. In the last quarter Sigma Nu unleashed a powerful aerial attack with Ben Barton in the tailback spot.

Excellent interference enabled Bill O'Hearn to cut his way through the Campbell club's defense and continue on for a touch-

Sororities Initiate Five New Pledges

Five newly-initiated girls have been seen "all smiles" on the campus this week. They are: Alpha Chi Omega's Charlotte Kaufman, and Alpha Phi's Mimi Hoover, and Annabelle McArthur.

Sigma Kappa's Pat Gentry, and Elizabeth Howes were initiated the weekend of October 6.

All pressing and re-tying of ribbons has ceased, except for the Delta Gamma pledges, who will soon add the missing link to the chain. Chi Omega was the first house to hold formal pledging. The rest followed suit, ending Tuesday night, with the Gamma Phi pledges, whose ribbons were actually frayed.

pected to contribute some time to this work each week, following last year's tradition begun by Carol Wicke, former Red Cross head. Girls are urged to begin work Saturday, and their houses will receive credit for each hour spent making handages.

According to Miss Rasmussen, all workers must abide by the annual Red Cross rules. These are: each girl must bring something with which to cover the hair; a fresh dress or clean blouse, other than that worn on the campus, must be brought to wear only while working; and each worker must wash her hands before work.
