

Volleyball Tournament Led by Sigma Kappas

Volleyball hits the print again this year with the playing of the first games of the season last Wednesday and Thursday nights. The games were early season games, but still did not lack the spirit and fight of the best games. All the teams have been practicing and working in the gyms for the past two or three weeks.

Sigma Kappa started out the season with two wins in a row. Playing both Thursday and Friday nights, the Sigma Kappas beat University house and the Alpha Phis. Both games were won by large margins of 48 to 24 and 55 to 14. Their team showed real teamwork that only comes from hard practice. They played rotation volleyball throughout the game, which showed each player to be versatile in every position. Such excellent players as Elsie Ball, Elizabeth Howe, June Rogers, and Crin Fadden are the reasons for Sigma Kappa's top team.

Another high score was piled up by the Alpha O players when they trimmed the Tri Delt team, 40 to 27. The Alpha O team is another that shows excellent teamwork and lots of spirit. This good spirit which prevails among all of the teams is one of the things that makes the volleyball tournament the hit it is. The Alpha O players were led by their stars Ester Quegr, Martha Lance, Barbara Radmore, and Barbara Fullmere.

No doubt the hottest game of the week was played between the ADPis and the Gamma Phis. At the quarter the Gamma Phis led by 14 to 7, at the half by 16 to 15 but in the third quarter the score was even and by the end of the game the ADPis were ahead 32 to 26. Every point in the game was hotly contested by the excellent playing on both sides. Sally Spiess, playing for the Gamma Phis foiled the swift spike shots put over by ADPi, Evelyn Stephens, with her agile interception in the center position. The ADPi team put over hard fast balls to the Gamma Phis, but their team showed a remarkable ability to return the hardest balls hit.

Some of the Gamma Phis particularly able in this field were Janet Thompson and Elizabeth Gilmore. The ADPis showed beautiful teamwork with handling the ball from the back line and setting it up to the front with the able assistance of their center player, Bobby Edwards. Another threat on that team was the hard, fast serving of Ruth Hanson.

Bill Buell, Sinnott

(Continued from page one) he averred, would relieve overproduction and speculation. It should: replace competition with the cooperative motive, remove profit as an incentive and distribute income more equitably, provide for social security, socialized medicine, full employment, and decrease the possibilities of war.

Arguing for free enterprise, Bill Sinnott countered: "Free enterprise, when free of monopoly, trade agreements, and government control, develops initiative, sportsmanship, and freedom of opportunity, as well as freedom from want."

Man is dependent upon competition and profit as an incentive, he maintained. It provides an element of balance and allows individuals to move as they want.

"Can any planned economy hope to maintain the dynamic drive evident under free enterprise?" he asked.

Informal discussion, among 50 students and faculty members who attended the debate, followed.

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

Night Staff:

Mary McClintic, night editor.
Pam Williams.

Advertising Staff:

Mary McClintic, day manager
Pat Johnson
Martha Berg
Marilyn Stratton

Office Staff:

Virginia Peterson
Helen Hicks
Marcia Mills
Becky Fish
Ann Stevensen

Layout Staff:

Bonnie Lee Hicks
Pat Keck
Nancy Williamson
Joan Meyers

CAMPUS CALENDAR

War board representatives will meet at 4 o'clock in the back part of the Side today.

* * *

The Christian Science organization on the campus will meet every Tuesday night at 7:30 in Gerlinger hall, third floor.

* * *

All pledges of Phi Chi Theta, business women's honorary, will meet today at 5, in 105 Commerce.

* * *

There will be an important meeting of the Emerald staff in the managing editor's office Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. All newswriters, sportswriters, and headline writers should attend.

* * *

Kwama meeting at 4:30 at the Delta Gamma house today.

Sue Welch Wins

(Continued from page two) chosen Friday night from the finalists, will be sent to Portland on November 2 to participate in the statewide competition for the title of Miss Oregon. She will be sent to Portland by the Eugene Junior Chamber of Commerce, and while there will be a guest of the Congress hotel, Jack Matlack, advising director and manager of the Broadway theater, Portland, will be host to Miss Lane County during her stay in the city. The final Lane county winner also will be interviewed by a Hollywood motion picture actor on the stage of the Broadway theater, and KGW, Portland radio station, will broadcast the interview.

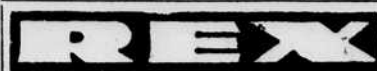

Art School

(Continued from page one) mer years, during winter term, and is planning an annual picnic for next spring. The art league will also exhibit work from each division of the art school at Odeon, creative arts festival usually held in Gerlinger hall during spring term.

Gold is not always yellow. When ground to a fine powder, it is dark red or black.

Steven Crane in
"Cry of the
Were-Wolf"
— and —
"Soul of a Monster"

Dorothy Lamour in
"Moon Over Burma"
— and —
"Hudson Bay"

$5 Offered Entrant Of Winning Slogan

A prize of $5 in war stamps will be given to any person or living organization who submits the best slogan for this year's war bond drive, Ed Allen and Bob Moran, co-chairmen of the drive, announced Monday.

The title must contain five words or less and all suggestions must be submitted to Bob Moran at the Phi Gamma Delta house before October 25. The drive will feature a competition between Oregon and Oregon State

Howdy Doody's Dood

The students, now, are quite at ease, And chatter as they go. The weekend dance has cracked the freeze; At last they've said "Hello."
—D.F.S.

Dr. Wright to Keynote

(Continued from page one) 5:30 p.m. Thursday to chat informally with all students who have subjects they wish to discuss with him.

The evening silver dessert in Alumni hall will be open to the public. Dr. Wright will lecture on "Looking for a Master."

The campus religious council is an interfaith organization of students, for the promotion and coordination of University religious activities.

Lois Clause, chairman of the council, extends credit for help and direction in the planning of the conference to the following campus religious directors: Mrs. James Eryant, Westminster houses; Miss Bryant, Westminster house; Miss Mary Beth Carpenter, Wesley

Look your best with a hair cut from the

KAMPUS BARBER
Next to Side

Right out of a fashion model's dreams . . .

Stunning and feminine . . . To complete your school wardrobe

MATTHEW'S FUR SHOP

111 7th W. Ph. 3567

CLASSIFIED ADS

For Sale

FINE OLD VIOLINS and bows. 1339 Oak St.

Hi, Webfoots!

For those rainy days just head have your raincoat water-proofed and cleaned today

EUGENE CLEANERS

245 E. Broadway

Phone 75

'The Skin of Our Teeth'

By Thornton Wilder

presented by the
UNIVERSITY THEATER

directed by
HORACE W. ROBINSON

FIRST PLAY OF THE SEASON

FRIDAY and SATURDAY
8:00 P.M.

UNIVERSITY THEATER
JOHNSON HALL

All Seats Reserved
Admission 60c
(including tax)
Phone 3300
Ext. 216