

Series Speaker Native of Iran

Appearing at the ASUO assembly Thursday at 11 in McArthur court will be Dr. Paul S. Wright, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Portland. "Facts and Realities" will be the topic of his address.

Dr. Wright will also be featured speaker at the three Thursday sessions on the "Meaning of the Christian Faith" conference series sponsored by the Student Religious council.

Born in Iran of missionary parents, Dr. Wright came to America in 1910 when he was fourteen years old. At the beginning of World War I he enlisted in the army having graduated from Wooster college, Ohio.

Until 1919 he was overseas with the Buckeye division of Ohio, the 37th, and served as a member of the field hospital corps. After mustering out Wright was em-

AOPis Lead Houses For Rolling Bandages

Alpha Omicron Pi members chalked up the highest number of hours at the Red Cross surgical dressing room last week, said Dorothy Rasmussen, bandage chairman, in correcting the story in yesterday's Emerald.

The final count lists: Alpha Omicron Pi, 16 hours; Alpha Delta Pi, 14; Hilyard house, 12; Gamma Phi Beta, 11.

Versatile Tenor Sang With Grace Moore

All the glamor of the Metropolitan opera itself is in store for University students when Raoul Jobin, outstanding Metropolitan tenor, is presented in a concert at 8 p.m., Thursday, October 26, at McArthur court.

Mr. Jobin will sing such varying numbers as the classical "Aupres de Toi" by John Sebastian Bach, and the more modern "Claire de Lune" by Claude Debussy. A highlight of the evening will be his presentation of the romantic "Flower Song" from "Carmen," by George Bizet. Mr. Jobin is well known for his interpretation of Don Jose in the opera "Carmen." Also included on the program will be a Bucciari aria from the opera "Tosca"; "Carmen," by Jean Clergue; "Toujours" by Gabriel Faure, and other selections.

Mr. Jobin made his operatic debut in France in the role of the hot-tempered Tybalt in "Romeo and Juliet"—a role which he has repeated many times in Europe and South America. Following his debut, he toured the European continent where he made 111 appearances in fifteen months.

From Europe he went to South America, where he sang at the Teatro Municipal in Rio de Janeiro.

Since his debut in the United States, he has become one of the leading tenors of the country. One factor which has contributed to his success is his ability to play widely-varied roles—and enjoy them all, from Faust to Hoffman. Critics say that each performance Jobin makes brings to light new facets of his skill.

Twice he has sung opposite Grace Moore—the first time in Paris in 1935, where the two artists were starred in Charpentier's "Louise," and in 1940 in New York, where he made his debut at the Metropolitan opposite Miss Moore as Des Grieux in the opera "Mignon."

Mr. Jobin is being presented in Eugene by the Civic music association, newly-organized this year. All students are eligible for admission by presentation of ASUO cards. Eugene residents who purchased membership tickets during the pre-season sale may also attend. This is the first of the series of eight concerts scheduled for the 1944-45 season.

Antrobus Clan Has Exciting Life

Mrs. Antrobus possesses a letter which will change the course of the world if it is ever read. This letter contains all the things a woman knows, but, because she is a smart woman, Mrs. Antrobus throws the letter into the ocean.

She and Mr. Antrobus have two children. They've always had two children, although not the same two all the time, of course. She and Mr. Antrobus have been married 5,000 years and the children have changed off now and then, what with Ice Ages and floods and wars.

Mrs. Antrobus is president of the Excelsior mother's club, and is an excellent needlewoman. That useful article, the apron, is one of her inventions.

Meet this gracious and charming mammal, portrayed by Dorothy Weygandt, sophomore in music, at the opening performance of "The Skin of Our Teeth," 8 p.m., Friday, October 27, on the Guild hall stage. Other performances are scheduled for October 28, 31, and November 1. Phone extension 216 for reservations.

Is It Possible?

The present McDonald theater crowd,

Must choose Miss Lane County with pains,

For every contestant must be endowed,

With not only beauty but brains.

Theta Vocalist Wins In Second Contest Tuesday

Kappa Alpha Theta's Nancy Kirkpatrick last evening won the second of the nightly competitions sponsored by the Eugene junior chamber of commerce to determine Miss Lane County. Miss Kirkpatrick sang "One Kiss" by Romberg.

Nancy, together with the other nightly winners, will appear in the final elimination, to be staged Friday at 8 in the McDonald theater.

Four other University girls were on last night's program: Helen Webb, Hendricks hall, singing "With a Song in My Heart," by Rodgers; Gayle Nelson, Kappa Kappa Gamma, who delivered a monologue by Hare, "A Leap Year Leap"; De Lu Simonsen, Susan Campbell, singing Youman's "Without a Song"; and Anna Belle Wilkerson, Hilyard house, who dramatized a scene from Ferber and Kaufman's "Stagedoor."

Rose Zena Latta, Alpha Gamma Delta; Donna Wilbanks and Frances Olsson, Gamma hall; Noreene Kay Sauve, Zeta hall; and Nikki John, Omega hall, will appear at 8 p.m. on the stage of the theater for their auditions.

Miss Lane County, to be chosen by anonymous judges among the audience Friday, will be sent to Portland by the Eugene junior chamber of commerce, sponsors of this contest, where she will compete for the title of Miss Oregon.

War Bond Campaign Plans Set

Publicity and correspondence committee heads were appointed Tuesday by co-chairmen of the war bond drive, Ed Allen and Bob Moran. Beverly Carroll will be in charge of publicity, and Cay Shea and Gloria Cloud will handle correspondence.

This year's drive will be held as a competition between Oregon State college and the University, and is scheduled for November 12 to December 2. Exchange programs will take place at both schools and the U. of O. rally squad will appear at OSC for a pep assembly.

At the representative meeting held yesterday, the chairman stressed that in order to beat the rival school, a great effort must be put forth in canvassing for bonds not only in homes and living organizations, but also in the neighborhood and downtown areas.

A $5 prize in war stamps will be offered for a slogan of five words or less to be used for the drive. All entries must be submitted to Bob Moran at the Phi Gamma Delta house by Thursday, October 26, rather than Wednesday, October 25, as stated in yesterday's paper.

Military Training During Peacetime Discussion Topic

Donald Calhoun, Seattle, head of the peace section of the American Friends service committee of the Pacific Northwest, will take the negative side in a discussion on "Shall We Have Peacetime Conscription?" tonight at Wesley house. Speaking in favor of peacetime conscription will be Kenneth Shumaker, director, lower division advisory group.

The meeting, under the sponsorship of various religious groups in Eugene, will begin at 8 p.m., and the public is invited. After the formal program, the audience may enter into the discussion.

Mr. Calhoun will arrive on the campus earlier in the day, and will be at Westminster house between 5 and 6 p.m. During that hour students may meet him and learn about the peace program in which he is interested. He has been making a special study of conscription and the Four Freedoms.

Ex-YMCA Prexy Visits UO Campus On Leave

Seen on the campus early this week on an eight-day leave from navy training at Willamette university was Don "Sleek" Jeppesen, YMCA president 1943-44. "It's not half bad after you get used to it," Don remarked "but I'd much rather be right here at Ol' Oregon," he added after a moment's thought.

With his training period good for at least another year, Jeppesen leaves to get back to the well-known "grind" Sunday evening.

Veteran Aide Available For Advising Thursday

To discuss problems with the returned veteran students on the campus, Lester E. Coggins, chief of the training and education division, will be in Dean Virgil Earl's office Thursday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Dean Earl said that more time can be arranged if these hours are not sufficient.
