George Carey Orchestra Highlights Spook Dance

Couples will swing out to the music of George Carey and his orchestra at the Hallowe'en dance, Saturday, October 28 at Gerlinger hall from 9 p.m. to 12. The dance, second of the all-campus affairs this year, is sponsored by the social chairmen of the living organizations on the campus.

In addition to the dancing will be a carnival, with concessions operated by living organizations. Refreshments to fit the occasion will be served by Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary.

New Senators Push Activity In ISA Council

A number of new issues and controversies were presented by the ISA senate to Chairman Gene Conklin Tuesday evening. A group of new senators added to the liveliness of the meeting by demanding some kind of action from the independent group. They suggested ISA afternoon mixers and a progressive student forum to start the ball rolling.

Alice Harter, president of the ISA, introduced the newly-elected members of her council to the senate and promised the group that the ISA would go far during the coming year.

The next meeting of the ISA senate promises to be lively, for a number of revolutionary issues will be presented to the body. A strong movement is in motion to amend the constitution and thus enable members of the executive council to have a voice in ISA meetings, and to promote a greater unity in the body.

Several senators voiced the opinion that speakers from the ISA senate should be circulated among the independent houses and living organizations to explain more fully the moral and practical purposes of the ISA to students who are new to the University.

Tickets are now on sale at the men's living organizations and may also be purchased at the door. Admission is $1.20 a couple.

All arrangements for the dance will be made by the following committees:

Mexican View Slated

"What Mexicans Think of Us" will be revealed by Dr. L. O. Wright, professor of Spanish, in an address to the Town and Campus group of the First Christian church, Sunday, October 20 at 6 p.m. at the YMCA.

Notice

All Student Union committee members and representatives are requested by Chairman Gene Conklin to attend the important meeting tonight in 6 Friendly at 7:30 o'clock.

UO Assembly Today

All Campus Dessert Session Precedes Main Address Of Initial SRC Conference

Launching the first conference series of this type to be held at the University, Dr. Paul S. Wright of Portland will give his main address at the evening session, 6:30, in Alumni hall.

"Looking for a Master" will be the topic discussed tonight by Dr. Wright, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in connection with the general theme of the conference: "The Meaning of the Christian Faith."

Allied Art League Sponsors Mixer Set For Friday

Gordon Bennett, president of the Allied Art league, has urged that all art students, especially freshmen, attend the Hallowe'en mixer sponsored by the league, at the art school court, Friday, October 27 from 8 to 10 p.m.

Cider, dancing, entertainment, and an art exhibit are in store for those attending. A program, entitled "Art in Action" is being arranged by Drusilla Johnson, general chairman for the affair.

An active year for the league is being planned by Bennett. Plans are already underway for the annual art bazaar, which will be held either December 7 or 8. At this time the art students' fall term work will be exhibited and many pieces will be offered for sale.

Revival of the Beaux Arts ball winter term and an annual picnic spring term, also are planned by the league.

All students and townspeople are invited to the evening session which will be preceded by a silver dessert open to the public.

"This conference, which is the first time anything like this has been attempted on the campus, should not be considered as another religious activity. The purpose of the series is to clear up the confusion which exists concerning many details in the meaning and significance of the Christian faith," said Marty Beard, chairman of the conference.

Luncheon, Forum

Dr. Wright's first address today will be at the assembly in McArthur court at 11 a.m. "What Are We" is scheduled to be his topic at the invitational luncheon in Alumni hall at noon today. A hundred campus leaders and faculty members have been invited to attend the luncheon, according to Charlotte Calder, noon chairman.

The Kappa Alpha Theta house will receive students from 4:30 to 5:30 this afternoon for an informal forum. Dr. Wright will lead the discussion and all students are in the luncheon.

Speaker To Discuss 'Realities'

Following the modern trend toward facing reality, Dr. Paul S. Wright will speak on "Facts and Realities" at the all-campus assembly in McArthur court today at 11.

Dr. Wright, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Portland, will be presented to the student body by President Orlando John Hollis.

In urging all students to attend the assembly and the Christian Faith conference series sessions, Audrey Holliday, ASUO president, said, "All the speakers chosen to lead these conferences are well-known men who are authorities in their field. Every student will find something of personal interest in some phase of the series and should consider it a privilege to be able to avail himself of factual information on the problem under discussion."

Lois Clause, chairman of the Student Religious council, revealed that a surprise violin solo will complete the program at today's assembly.

Phi Theta Initiates Six

Six alternates were initiated Tuesday by members of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's service honorary. The new members are: Betty Butler, Dorothy Frideger, Louise Goodwin, Dorothy Lu Simonson, Joan Holstad and Betty Bennett.

MEET SABINA

Sabina is the girl whose face inspired the multiplication tables. Of course, Mr. Antrobus thinks a lot of his wife, but Sabina has been his inspiration for quite a few centuries now.

The slavey of the Antrobus household, Sabina represents the voice of the people. She's perfectly happy as long as she can see a movie on Saturdays. As she says, "Enjoy your ice cream while it's on your plate, that's my philosophy."

Beginning and ending her career in the kitchen, Sabina appears in intervening centuries as Miss Fairweather, winner of an Atlantic City bathing beauty contest and a Phi Beta Kappa! She is also known as the mysterious Miss Somerset, an actress who has played in "Rain," "The Barrets of Wimpole Street," and "First Lady," and has now sunk so low as to be playing Sabina in "The Skin of Our Teeth."

Meet Sabina in the University theater production of this craziest of all Wilder concoctions, "The Skin of Our Teeth" Friday, October 27, on the Guild hall stage. Sabina is played by Beverly Brunton. Other performances are scheduled for October 28, 31, and November 1. Phone extension 216 for reservations.

Famous Tenor Here

Highlight of the musical events of the week will be the presentation tonight in McArthur court of Metropolitan tenor Raoul Jobin, in a concert open to all University students. The performance, sponsored by the civic music association of Eugene in conjunction with the University, is scheduled to begin at 8:15.

Mr. Jobin has been well received wherever he has appeared, both in the United States, South America, and in Europe. He is especially well known for his ability to portray widely contrasting roles, a characteristic which will be demonstrated in tonight's concert.

Mr. Jobin's program for the evening will be:
