

Instructors Appointed To University Faculty

With the appointment of several new instructors, the UO faculty is now complete, Acting President Orlando J. Hollis announced Wednesday.

Manuel Lopez, instructor in romance languages, arrived this week to teach several Spanish classes. Mr. Lopez comes from the University of Arizona, but received his B.A. degree at Ohio Wesleyan university, and his M.A. degree at the University of Illinois. He was born in Granada, Spain, and has traveled in South America.

For the past several years Mr. Lopez has been in charge of all Spanish courses of the extension division of the University of Arizona, and he has done transcription work for the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. He is a member of the Modern Language Association of America and the American Association of Teachers of Spanish. He has gained additional experience at the University of Illinois, Duke University, Ohio Wesleyan university, and Florida State college for women.

Mr. Hollis announced that Stacey L. Green, who arrived on the campus this week, and Mrs. Naomi Kellis are additions to the music school faculty. Mrs. Kellis, instructor in voice, has had a private studio in Eugene. She received a diploma from Arizona State Teachers college, and studied voice, piano, and violin at the Arizona Conservatory of Music.

Mr. Green, instructor in piano, last taught at Valparaiso university, Valparaiso, Indiana from 1930 to 1942. He received his B.A. degree in 1922 from Northland college, Ashland, Wisconsin, and was an instructor there until 1930. While in Oslo, Norway, in 1922-23, he studied under Mme. Dagmar Walle-Hansen. His travels included a visit to England in 1923. He made further study at Northwestern university, and under Howard Wells in Chicago.

Several appointments in the law school were also announced by Mr. Hollis. Leon L. Ray, a special lecturer in law, is giving the course in criminal law, while Dr. James Duff Barnett, professor emeritus of political science, will teach the course in constitutional law this term. Stanley R. Darling, a recently appointed special lecturer, is giving the course in wills.

Mr. Darling received his B.S. degree from Oregon in 1935; his J.D. in 1939. Prior to beginning a private practice in Eugene, his experience was with the Bonneville power administration and the U. S. department of justice, and association with a Dallas, Oregon, lawyer.

Also revealed by Mr. Hollis was the appointment of Miss Catherine Jones as instructor in physical education. She was a graduate assistant last year.

Catholic colleges and universities sold more than $12,000,000 worth of war bonds during 1943-44.

MARINE PRIVATE CONRAD A. SCHULTZ
Formerly U. of O. student, is shown being congratulated by Colonel John Groff, commanding officer of the recruit depot at San Diego, after being selected the honor man of the week. He was presented with the honor badge of efficiency, one of the most coveted awards of recruit training.

Hendricks Trims Sigma Kappa Girls

Capt. Nancy Steele, Elaine Taylor, and Barbara Borvick teamed up as "the unbeatable three" again yesterday afternoon on the Hendricks hall side to defeat the Sigma Kappas, headed by Corky Fadin, 41 to 18. Besides their captain, the Sigma Kappas had Elsie Ball and Elizabeth Howes doing a good job of serving and playing.

The Chi Omegas defeated Alpha Omicron Pi under the head of acting captain Barbara Radmoor, with a score of 39 to 22. Captain Dorothy Shepherd and Marilyn Holden did a good job for the Chi Omegas.

The closest game of the day was between the Alpha Delta Pi team, captained by Evelyn Stephens, and Highland house, headed by Doris Craig. In the first half the ADPis were ahead 16 to 14 with Bobby Edwards, Barbara and Evelyn Stephens, and Connie Walters chalking up the points. But in the second half Evelyn Woodward and Captain Craig rolled up a few points for Highland to even up the score. From then on it was all a matter of time to see which team would come out on top, and Highland consistently played a good game to put the team out in front by the final score of 30 to 25 for Highland.

Since the start of the tournament Ruth Skippler has been rounding up referees for each game, and her steadiest list consists of Shirley Krueger, Shirley Cox, Marianne Blinkensop, Janice Thompson, and Miss Catherine Jones and Miss Dorothea Moore, instructors in physical education.

Former Belgian Doctor Will Address Seminar

Dr. Daniel Rosenthal, formerly of the school of engineering, Brussels, will address a meeting of the chemistry seminar, November 3. Dr. Pierre Van Ryselberghe, associate professor of chemistry, has announced.

Dr. Rosenthal, now a staff member of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will speak on radiographic and other methods for the testing of materials.

UO Graduate Awarded DFC for Pacific Action

Lt. Robert Hendershott, '43, has been awarded the distinguished flying cross for action in the western Pacific in which, as pilot of an observation plane, he battled three Japanese Zeroes over Iwo Jima island.

Now stationed at the Pasco naval air station, Lt. Hendershott was presented with the D.F.C. at a special ceremony.

The original booby trap was mistletoe.

Dr. Larsell to Address Faculty and Students

Dr. Olof Larsell, professor of anatomy, University of Oregon Medical school, and dean of the graduate division, will deliver a lecture on "Development of the Cochlea in Relation to the Inception of Hearing," at 8:15 p.m. Monday, November 6, in Room 165, McClure hall. All faculty members and students are invited to attend.

Preceding the lecture, a business meeting of the University chapter of Sigma Xi will be held at 7:30 p.m. in 103 McClure hall.
