Faculty Set For Auction

Introduced by Jim Montagne's trumpet fanfare, services of four and possibly more faculty members will be auctioned to the student body at the World Student Service fund assembly Thursday in McArthur court, at 11 a.m.

Hoyt Franchere, professor of English; Bob Horn, professor of English; Horace Robinson, educational activities manager; and W. A. Dahlberg, director of speech and dramatic arts, are scheduled to appear to "raise cain, and raise money for the WSSF," according to Marguerite Wittwer, chairman.

Mr. Franchere will organize an orchestra to play at a house dance or fireside for the house which bids highest for him.

Mr. Horn and Mr. Dahlberg have plans which will be kept secret until the assembly.

Mr. Robinson will "jerk sodas" at the College Side Inn for an hour one evening. Ten per cent of his sales will be donated by the managers of the Side to the WSSF, and the house which bids highest will be treated to free cokes.

Bishop Benjamin D. Dagwell of Portland, and Mr. J. Paul Snyder, recently returned from a Japanese prison camp, will speak.

The four finalists who competed for the title of Miss Lane County are on the musical program: Barbara Bentley, winner of the contest; Betty Ditto, Nancy Kirkpatrick, and Sue Welch.

Evans Cantrell, and two new stars appearing for the first time in McArthur court, Floyd Stapp and Phyllis Perkins are scheduled to sing. The University band and the rally squad will provide additional pep.

The original theme of this Friday's Frosh Mixer has been let out of the bag, but the decoration committee has thought of a "new and better" one. This will be carefully kept secret until the freshmen see for themselves at 7:30 till 10:30 p.m. in Gerlinger hall.

"If you haven't a date, come to the Frosh Mixer anyway," emphasized Signe Eklund, president of Phi Theta Upsilon, who is arranging the event.

The mixer, in honor of all freshmen, is for upperclassmen as well as freshmen.

An all-freshmen committee has been appointed by Phi Theta to arrange the dance, Miss Eklund announced. "We are proud of this committee, for they have worked hard to make the mixer a success. They are using a novel theme and have provided clever entertainment," she added.

Committee members are: Bobbie Fulmer and Orin Weir, co-chairmen; Barbara Johns and Nancy Bedingfield, publicity; Mary Ellen

Fun Calls; Girls Date En Masse

Tonight the women's living organizations will open their doors to guests of the weekly exchange dinners under the sponsorship of the AWS.

"Most of the houses like the idea of having exchange dinners," Lois McConkey, scheduling chairman, announced. "The idea is that an equal number of girls go to each house so there won't be any mixup on ration points."

Those who will exchange dinners this evening are: Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Delta Pi; Rebec house, Sigma Kappa; Sherry Ross, Pi Beta Phi; Sigma hall, Alpha Gamma Delta; Omega hall, Chi Omega; and Zeta hall, Gamma Phi Beta.

The larger halls, Susan Campbell and Hendricks, will exchange with Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, and Kappa Alpha Theta.

Because Alpha Xi Delta had a national officer visiting the house, their exchange with Highland house was called off. Hendricks hall will hold its exchange dinner, even though the meal is served cafeteria style and eaten with the soldiers.
