Whiskerino Scheduled Tonight

U. OF O. BEAUTY

ON THE CAMPUS—
Marie Rogndahl, acclaimed last summer as the possessor of the "Undiscovered Voice of America," will be featured as guest artist at the fall concert of the Apollo club in Portland December 8

IN THE SERVICE—
Sergeant-Major Charlotte Plummer will celebrate a year as director of the marine corps women's reserve band this Christmas. She recently announced her engagement to Charles Owen, marine corps band.

Today's World

Plunging to within 2½ miles of the German border, General Patton's 2nd army strengthened its Moselle river bridgehead north of Metz.

The Po valley communications center of Forli, 38 miles southeast of Bologna, has been captured by British troops.

Though 35,000 fresh Jap troops have been sent to reinforce the almost annihilated 16th Jap division on Leyte, Lt. Gen. Walter Krueger's headquarters announced that U. S. forces continued to make "substantial gains on a wide front."

Liuchow, the last known U. S. air base in southeast China, and the key city of Kweilin have fallen to the Japanese.

Moscow reports that massed Red artillery has opened bombardment on the eastern front as a prelude to a major winter offensive.

Late Per Given for 'Hair Hop'

Tonight is "the" night! After a week of plotting by sophomores and razor boycotting by men, the annual Sophomore Whiskerino will swing into action at 9 p.m. at Gerlinger hall.

Violators of the "No Shaving" rule have been publicly dunked in punishment, and tonight the Duck with the most notable, distinctive, and sizeable chin growth will receive reward for his efforts. In addition to a prize, the winner will be shaved at the dance by Harry Hinton of the Varsity barber shop.

Kwama members will carry out their plans in offering hot dogs and cokes for sale, as well as announcing the winners of the three cartons of "leading brand" cigarets. The decoration chairmen are summoning forces to carry out the theme of the affair in true Oregon Whiskerino fashion.

Every sophomore with an eager hand and a willing heart is urged to render his or her services this morning at Gerlinger hall in preparation for the dance. As at the last Whiskerino, couples will dance to the music of George Carey's orchestra.

Of special interest to Webfest will be the fact that 1 o'clock permission has been granted coeds by the dean of women's office. Admission to the Whiskerino will be $1.20 per couple, including tax.

Symposium Head Discloses Topics

The University symposium, under the direction of W. D. Clark, assistant speech and dramatic arts director, has announced its topics for the year. They are "Post War Relations Between the United States and Russia" and "The United Nations Plan for World Cooperation."

Professor W. B. Merriam, assistant professor of geology and geography, will speak to the group at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, November 21. He will discuss the current aspects of Russia.

Each student member has chosen a topic which he will prepare during fall term to present on a speaking tour winter and spring terms.

Speakers are: "U.S.-Russian Postwar Relations": Winston Carl, Beverly Carroll, Carolyn Martin, Mary Landry, Wilma Foster, Gloria Cartozian, Ted Shay, Patricia MacCormack, Marjorie Selvie, and Sue Stater.

"United Nations Plan for World Cooperation": Floyd Hinton, Louise Fletcher, Alice Harter, Della Jones, Mary Lawson, Barbara Bozorth, Eigne Eklund, Marjory Skordahl, Carolyn Jacobs, Esther Quier, and Barbara Weisz.

Last year symposium members spoke to more than 8,000 people in 65 engagements.

GIs Will Get This Edition

Today's Emerald was made up with an eye to servicemen's interests, and will be mailed to all former Webfeet stationed in the United States.

The war board's service correspondence committee, under Marilyn Olson and Dorothy Davis, is in charge of addressing and mailing this issue.

The committee had hoped to publish a book of servicemen's addresses, but abandoned the idea because of financial and other difficulties.

YWCA Members To Sell 'Twisties'

"Twisties," a pastry confection, will be sold for 5 cents each by the YWCA Wednesday, November 15, Sallie Bosch, chairman of the sales, announced.

Booths will be located in front of Friendly hall, Oregon hall, the Co-op, and the library. The sale will begin at 7:45 a.m., and will continue until 5 p.m. They will also be sold for dinner in all the living organizations.

Students are urged by Miss Bosch to buy as many as they can possibly eat or afford. Money obtained from the sale will be used for further projects.

War Contest Open

Five dollars will be awarded by the War Board for the most appropriate slogan of five words or less for the "Bonds Away Girl" contest. Slogans will be submitted to representatives who will visit the living organizations Tuesday noon, November 14.

Dodd Will Lead Evening Rites

The music building will be the scene of the vesper service at 5 p.m. Sunday. Donald D. Dodd, pastor of the Fairmount Presbyterian church will lead the meditations, and the vesper choir, under the direction of Helen Luvaas, will sing.

Mr. Dodd, assistant in chemistry, received his bachelor of arts degree at the University of California, and graduated from the San Francisco Theological seminary at San Anselmo, California.

The choir selections are: "Let Thy Holy Presence" by Tschesnokeft; "Bless the Lord, O My Soul" by Ippolitof-Ivanof, and "Nunc Dimittis" by A. Gretchanenoff. Barbara Tripp will play the organ selections: "Piece Heroique" by Cesar Franck, "Dream" by Alexander Kopyloff, and "Prelude in C sharp minor" by Vodorin ki.

'Miss Lane' Comes Back

Winning a beauty and talent contest is an exciting and thrilling experience, declared Barbara Bentley, winner of the Miss Lane County title.

Miss Bentley, finalist from a field of 17 University coeds, returned recently from Portland, where she was auditioned for the Miss Oregon title.

Barbara was sent to Portland by the Eugene junior chamber of commerce, sponsors of the contest, and placed her bid for the higher title from the Broadway theater of that city, singing "Siboney," by Lecuona.

Miss Bentley explained that three county winners appear each week on the stage of the Broadway and the final winner will be chosen from among these contestants before November 20. The two other finalists who appeared with Miss Bentley were Jean Bolin and Janey Allen, Klamath and Josephine counties.

Barbara will sing to the residents of Eugene in their forthcoming war loan drive.

Whiskerless Men Get 'Water Cure'

It was a balcony scene. But the Juliets were looking on with glee (their balcony was the upstairs of the Side). The Romeos were being dunked headlong in a rain barrel. Such was their fate for using a razor when they knew whiskers are a "must" at Sophomore Whiskerino time.
